J. F. JACKSON SPEAKS TO PLYMOUTH BRETHREN.

The Articles in the Ark of the Covenant—A Clear Exposition—Calls Given to Various Clergymen.

J. F. Jackson, Boston, Mass., delivered the first of his series of lectures to the Plymouth Brethren at the old Collegiate Institute building, Sunday evening. The attendance of the brethren was large and all were much pleased with the capable manner in which the lecturer handled his subject, "The Tabernacle in the Wilderness." The speaker taught that the tabernacle, viz., the pot of manna, the rod of Aaron and the mercy seat, representing the sins of the children of Israel and God's choice of Aaron as his leader. These truths were much elaborated by scriptural references and the discourse clearly showed the results of careful study and clever interpretation. Three other lectures will be delivered by the same lecturer this week, on Tuesday, Thursday and Saturday evenings.

Forty years ago some kindly Christian gave a New Testament to a wounded soldier in a hospital at Vicksburg, Miss. That soldier has just written to the American Bible Society that he found the New Testament precious when he was in the hospital, and therefore he has decided to be used as speedily as possible for putting the gospel into the hands of wounded soldiers in Japanese hospitals. It is always difficult, the Christian says, to say just where a really Christian act will end.

AN EMERGENCY MEETING

Of Civic Finance Committee About Street Railway.

On Saturday afternoon an emergency meeting of the committee on the street railway was held, at which were present Mayor McFarlane, Alds. King, Toye and Hoag. The conference was with regard to the street railway, which has not received the attention to which it is entitled. The question which was discussed was in connection with the part the city should take as to putting in a tender for the railway. To do this, upon this, fuller information concerning the prospects of the road and its ability to pay will have to be got. At the meeting of the finance committee, when the bondholders offered to sell the road for $125,000, it was proposed that a committee be appointed to get information about several roads up west for the purpose of comparison. Nothing resulted from the suggestion, however. Nothing was discussed on Saturday concerning the getting of the road in operation now, nor about power. Two of the finance committee were to meet this morning with J. M. Campbell to discuss the railway question, and prepare a report for the city council, which meets this evening.

A number of launches from Clayton and Alexandria Bay will contest.

To Amend Certain Acts for Benefit of Merchants.

The recently organized retail merchants' association of Kingston, is beginning to show that it is a live institution. The officers are circulating the following petition, which will be presented to the Ontario legislature on Wednesday by the member for Kingston; signatures of almost every merchant in the city are attached to the petition, which reads: "1.—That the pedlars' and hawkers' license act be amended so that the same can be properly enforced and the purposes for which the act is passed be not evaded, and also that the municipalities can have power to increase the fee and otherwise protect the mercantile community.

"2.—That the transient traders' act be amended so as to clearly define who are transient traders, and prevent those who do not contribute to the taxes of the community, from injuring the trade of permanent resident merchants, who are on the assessment rolls of the community.

"3.—That the trading stamp act be amended so that the giving of coupons, exchange tickets, or other similar devices by merchants or manufacturers, who are on the assessment rolls, be prohibited.

"4.—That the division court act be amended so as to simplify the collection of small debts and reduce the time now necessary for obtaining judgment thereon.

The petitioners state that it is not only in the best interests of the municipality, but also for the consuming public that the amendments should be made, and the petitioners, therefore, ask that their requests be granted.

HIS ARM BADLY SHOT.

It Had to Be Amputated Close to the Shoulder.

William Bruce, a young man living in Gananoque, was brought to the hospital late on Sunday afternoon, with his left arm in a mutilated condition, with holes in it from a shot wound. He had been out in a small boat, and in the usual and unfortunate way, turned the muzzle to point at himself. The result was a large hole in the arm, the shot tearing a large hole in the arm above the elbow, and carrying away flesh and bone. The injured young man was attended by Dr. McCammon, of Gananoque, who temporarily dressed the wound, and then drove to Kingston with him. At the General Hospital, on the examination of the arm, it was found that amputation was absolutely necessary, and accordingly the arm was removed close to the shoulder. The young man is progressing as well as can be expected, though the case is serious.

Bruce says that he was not out shooting, but merely boating. He and alongside a fisherman's punt, and, seeing a gun reached out to take hold of it. The muzzle was pointing towards him and his hand came in contact with the trigger before he knew it. He is twenty-eight years of age, and his home is in London, Ont. He works in Gananoque.

Cold was contracted in the little cut, and congestion of the brain ensued.

CROPS CONDITIONS.

Information Gleaned by Ontario Government.

According to information gained by the Ontario department of agriculture, the condition of crops in this section, fall wheat, which little has been sown, wintered well and looks to be in prime condition. It has not been injured by frost or insects, and will yield a fine crop. Winter rye is not grown in this district, but the condition of the clover crop is excellent, wintering in splendid form. Grass on the average, is behind in growth, owing to the backward spring.

The condition of live stock is generally good. Disease has been unknown and spring found all stock in first-class shape. There is an abundance of fodder, more than sufficient for local needs.

There is not any local ground wheat in storage, about 3,000 tons of hay are available for export.

Fat beef cattle are remarkably scarce, but there is large stocks of dairy cattle, most of the lot being of superior quality.

Spring sowing, on the whole, has been late, the ground in fair condition, with the acreage under cultivation about the same as in former years. The supply of farm help is about equal to the demand.

PLAYED THE GAMES.

BASEBALL FANS BOUND TO GO AHEAD.

Five Innings Played by One Team—The Rain Did Not Stop the Players—A Lively Contest to the Finish.

The local baseball season opened on Saturday afternoon with double-headed games, in the city league series. The wet weather which prevailed made it look for a time as if the games would be called off as was the case last Saturday when the games were scheduled to be played. The players were, however, determined to chase the hoodoo some way and both games were played-off although the rain and wet condition of the grounds at the cricket field, interfered greatly with the games and the players.

The first match between the Black Watch and Battery started at 10 o'clock, but after one inning, a heavy downpour of rain caused a delay, both teams waiting for a while for the storm. After a short time play was again commenced and four more innings played, the score at the close of the five innings being 10 to 3 in favor of the Black Watch. Wolfe and Shipley, the two other teams scheduled to play were on the field and although the rain still continued it was decided to start in and finish if possible. This game between the Beavers and the Lakeviewers was much the same as the other, the teams being more evenly matched as the score would indicate. The game was played the full nine innings and the result was in doubt right up to the last.

The work of the opposing batteries was first class, the Lakeviewers did well considering the disadvantages. With some more practice and other conditions favorable, some exciting games may be anticipated in the city league series this season. The batteries were for the Lakeviewers, J. Christie and W. Christmas; and for the Beavers, McIver and Symonds. The Lakeviewers won by 19 runs to 9. Umpires, McParland and Nicholson gave every satisfaction.

TO ENDOW A CHAIR

IN THE MEDICAL COLLEGE AT QUEEN'S.

The Trustees of Queen's University have decided to endow the chair of anatomy in the medical college. For the purpose $40,000 will be required. This will be the first medical chair to be endowed. At present the medical professors and teachers are all paid from the fees collected. The medical faculty regard the contemplated endowment as a most important step towards greater efficiency in the department of anatomy, which in a few years will be second in none in Canada. As it is now, Queen's is in the lead in one way, as she was the first to put special stress on comparative anatomy. The money required will come out of the general endowment fund, in the collection of which the medical staff will lend their energies.

The work connected with the professorship of clinical medicine, recently held by the late Dr. Herald, will likely be divided among several of the medical staff. This will result in an increase of clinical patients, and, therefore, benefit the students.

The extra six weeks' session at the medical college concludes this week. Several examinations will be held.

GRAND OPERA HOUSE.

Presentation of Two Shakespearean Plays on Saturday.

Two of Shakespeare's plays were presented to good-sized audiences at the Grand Opera House on Saturday by Joseph De Grasse, and a capable company. At the afternoon matinee, the company gave a very fine presentation of the "Merchant of Venice," Mr. De Grasse appearing as Shylock.

In the evening "Hamlet" was presented. The audience was appreciative of the liberal in its appliances. Mr. De Grasse in the character of Hamlet and his portrayal was interesting and instructive. At times, especially in soliloquies, his elocution was somewhat indistinct, but he more than counterbalanced this defect by his dramatic power and artistic depiction of the character of the mad prince. Miss Mabel von Volkenburg, as the Queen, was very effective. Miss Ida May Park, as Ophelia, played their parts well.

Also played Charles H. Montgomery in the role of Polonius. The productions were excellently staged, and were thoroughly enjoyed.
