Young Woman and Her Companion Say They Were Held Up at Pistol's Point-$190 Involved-A Queer Tale.

A highway robbery, of more than sual audacity, was reported to the local police this morning. A young oman who boards at a local hotel is the person supposed to have been reb-bed, and the identity of the others rouded in mystery. From what can be learned, the stories told by woman the case, are somewhat conflicting truth of the matter being hard to get at, as she is apparently unwilling The alleged robbery took place either late vesterday afternoon, or early in the evening, and the scene of the alleged hold-up was a place on the penitentiary road some distance from the city. The young woman is said to have been introduced to a strange young man, who represented himself to be a traveller, and said that he which he gave her the name. They arranged to go for a drive, and at this stage is where the variance in her stories is manifested. She told the police that after driving for a con-siderable distance, they were held up at the point of a pistol, by a masked man, who demanded their money. Her companion-in-trouble, she said, imwhich he claimed contained 875. The desperado, she alleged then turned his attention to her, with a rough request for her money, She denied having any and after some parley, he commence discovering a roll of $115 secreted in her garments. The pair were then ordered to drive back to the city, and not look back at their peril. They complied with the request. Another version of the incident also heard. The young woman is said last evening, and after looking over French observance of neutrality dur- the register, stated that a young man Monday afternoon was hot and op- ing the events in the far east. The whom she had met and who said he publication will include the instruct was staying at that hotel had "done" cautions which the government has ter reporting the matter to the police taken to prevent a violation of this morning, left for a drive to Gananoque. It is said that her object in going to Gananoque was to overtake her companion of last night. The story looks decidedly "strange" in parts and the truth is evidently not all yet known.
