Provincial Secretary's Action

Toronto, May 19.-The employment of an American accountant by the provincial secretary to investigate and report upon the book-keeping systems in the public institutions was the subject of a smart debate in the legislature, yesterday evening, during the passing of the supplemental estimates. The question was raised for the op position by Mr. Auld, who spoke briefbut to the point. The contribution of Mr. Graham, who spoke at greater length than his colleague, was well delivered, vigorous and effective. In his explanation Hon. Mr. Hanna said he was connected with the company by which the accountant was employed As one result of the accountant's work the contract for making binder twine at the Central prison, renewed for five years by the late government, had been cancelled, developments in connection with it having made that step necessary in the public interests.
