Personal Bickerings Between Linevitch and Kuropatkin Break Out Airesh-Chinese Rumor Disaster to Japanese Fleet.

London, May 25 .- The St. Peters+ burg correspondent of the Times cables as follows: I am informed that Birileff is invested with the same authority as Makharoff and Skryedoff, with the title of commander of the naval forces in the Pacific, He will be subordinate to Linevitch, but superior o Rojestvensky, This suppression Rojestvensky in the supreme command. therefore, follows irrespective of his physical fitness to retain it after his arrival at Vladivostok. The considerations of Rojestvensky's unfitness Dutch port admiral and dockyard administrator afford a reasonable explanation for the preference given to Birileff. There are fanciful reports of Rojestvensky's numerous ailments and of alleged interviews with Rojestvensky's admirals. His nerves are badly shaken, but that probably would not prevent him fighting a good fleet action if Togo decided to engage him. According to information from rustworthy source, personal bickerings between Linevitch and Kuropatkin have broken out afresh. Both generals are constantly telegraphing complaints o the emperor. It is said that Kuropatkin, who first declared his intention of returning, has now determined to remain, On the other hand, Novosti reports Kaulbars to be on the point of returning on sick leave.
