WHEN SHOES LOOK "SECOND-HAND"

THE first shoe was a sandal - to protect foot soles only. That is seven-eights of shoe duty yet. But, the weak spot in nearly all fine shoes today lies in the sole leather. Too many soles wear out in two months. And, a shoe upper, when re-soled, looks as a Felt Hat does when blocked over - it looks "second-hand." The time to put good soles on shoes is when the shoes are first made. Then, they won't need re-soling till you've had wear enough from them, so you can afford to give them away to "the man." The toughest sole leather in this world, or in any other, is the new process "Quick-Oak" Sole.

It is wiry and close-grained as rawhide, and almost refuses to wear out.

You can soak it in water for four straight hours without wetting it clear through. Put high-priced regular process Oak Sole leather in water for one hour and it will be wet completely through from one side to the other.

What protects you from catching cold in wet weather is merely the difference between "Quick-Oak" Sole leather and the other kinds.

"Quick-Oak" Sole leather has now been tested a twelve-month, and we had to guarantee big purchases in order to control this brand for Canada. To be had only in the genuine "Slater Shoes." and have the slatewith the price $3.50 or $5.00
