Dead Ashes Cost Money to Heat.
 Most hot water heaters have a center draft only—also most center draft hot water heaters have a wall of dead ashes next to the water jacket, because thorough combustion with center-draft only is not possible—coal burns principally in the center.
 The ashes must be heated before the water can be heated.
 Ashes are hard to heat—they are expensive to heat, they absorb the heat which should go into your coils.

The "Bison" hot water heater has side drafts, draws the heat and fire to the sides, up the sides, against the water jacket. It heats the water quickly, economically.

THE WOMEN MEET IN CONNECTION WITH CELEBRATION OF ONTARIO.

There Has Been Good Work Accomplished During the Year—Excellent Addresses Delivered.
 Napawa, June 8.—The annual meeting of the Woman's Auxiliary of the diocese of Ontario began on Wednesday morning, by a celebration of the holy communion in St. Mary Magdalone's church, and sermon by the Bishop of Ontario from the text "Go work to-day in my vineyard." The business part of the meeting was began at the board meeting in the church hall, on Tuesday evening, when committees were struck, and reports had a preliminary hearing. The thank-offering presented at Wednesday morning's service totalled $615, and several amounts have come in since.
 The chief feature of the Wednesday afternoon session was the address of Miss Wilgess, missionary at Bay River, diocese of Mackenzie River, now home on furlough. Her story of the largest diocese in the world was simply told, and deeply interested her hearers.

A TEMPERANCE VIEW.
 English Workers on Public House Trusts.

The debate in the senate on "Public House Trusts," and Earl Grey's public and private utterances, are just what English temperance men feared, bringing this scheme for the control of the drink traffic before the Canadian people. Just about the time Earl Grey landed in Canada, "The British Nations Temperance Federation" publishing a manifesto, addressed to "The Temperance Organizations of Canada." The federation embraces thirty-three temperance societies of England, Ireland, Scotland and Wales, and includes the large bulk of the working forces of this great reform. The president is A.
 Cameron Corbett, M. P., and amongst the vice-presidents are the Countess of Carlisle (president of the English W.
 T.C.U.) and twenty-seven members of parliament. Let the manifesto speak for itself.
 "Dear Friends,—We hear with deep regret of a disposition on the part of some in Ontario to favour the creation of a public liquor monopoly, whereby philanthropic and religious people may be induced to join in the setting up of a so-called "Reformed Public-house Trust System," or, in the creation of a state, or municipal or other public monopoly in or for the sale of intoxicating drinks—whereby the entire community become implicated in the liquor traffic under the idea of improving its conditions and permitted applying part of its profits to counteractive agencies.

 "In the interests of the sacred cause of temperance, and of the good name of your country and its influence upon the motherland and other countries, we on behalf of the enormous hosts of temperance workers—entreat you to give no encouragement, by any such idea, but to protest against and oppose it, no matter from what quarter such evil counsels may come. We have had a similar agitation to face for a series of years, and the intensity of our opposition, grew with our increased knowledge of its evil tendency. We enclose for your personal pamphlets on the question, and trust that every branch of each temperance organization will issue an opposition to the setting up of any state, municipal or other public monopoly whereby the whole community would become a partner in the ever deadly and destructive traffic in intoxicating drinks.
 "The alleged successful results following the creation of a state liquor monopoly in Russia have been cited but the Russian National Medical congress meeting this year in St.
 Petersburg has ventured to pass the following resolution of remonstrance:
 "The spirit monopoly not only does not check alcoholism in Russia, but it actually favours its growth, because of its value in filling the coffers of the state. An active and successful conflict against alcoholism, which is in Russia a social evil of the first magnitude, is only possible if we had full guarantees of liberty for our persons and words, and freedom of the press and public meetings. It is only under these conditions that it would be possible to spread the truth among the people in instruction as to the injury caused by alcoholism, and the real causes of its development. For thus exposing the evil consequences of this state liquor monopoly of the medical congress, we leave, from the Vienna Der Abstemist, that many of the scientists were promptly seized and banished to Siberia!"
 "A year ago the great United Kingdom Alliance had this subject of a proposed public liquor monopoly before them at the annual meeting, and unanimously resolved: "That this council discontinue all proposals to create a municipal or public monopoly for the common sale of intoxicants, involving as it would the implication of local communities in the carrying on of the traffic and in the drunkenness and other evils resulting therefrom; and this council deprecates the prospect of the people, especially Christian and temperance reformers, being led to look to the profits on the sale of liquor as a means for organizing agencies to counteract the evils it creates."
 "This year it has unanimously reaffirmed the above, and the National Temperance Federation has also unanimously endorsed the same. We commend the same to you for endorsement and publication."

 New York, June 8.—Officials of the City, Hoboken, Bayonne, Newark, in Northern New Jersey, declare that the corporation had been defrauded within a year by the illegal use of has been revealed a conspiracy between conductors and clerks now in the company's employment and former employees. Employees of department stores at Newark are also implicated. The headquarters of the New Jersey group of conspirators is in Paterson, where a school for educating conductors to cheat their employers exist.

Young Man Dead.
 Calabogie, June 6.—John Smith and family, Mattawa, are visiting relatives here. Death has again visited our quiet little hamlet and claimed a bright young person, Allen Yault, a bright young man, who had been having undergone a critical operation for appendicitis, which proved fatal.
 Of a quiet disposition, he was loved by all who knew him. He leaves to mourn his father and mother, four sisters and five brothers, Miss Mary Arnold left Mattawa for Sturgeon Falls, Miss Minnie Legge, visiting friends in Renfrew, has returned home.

A Sudden Death.
 Junetown, June 6.—Eli Tennant is preparing to move his barn, and will hold under a concrete wall. W. B.
 Warren, Lansdowne is doing a good business here with his portable saw mill. Lane Trussell, Rockfield, was calling on his cousin, Miss B. Herbis-on, recently Patrick Ryan, who for some years lived with Malcolm Scott, died suddenly of apoplexy. Visitors: Miss Nellie Stinson spent Sunday last with Ross Purvis, Mrs. Chas.
 Trussell, Mallorytown, spent a few days last week at James Purvis'. On Thursday evening June 5th, Willie and Edna Summers will entertain a number of friends.

Visited The School.
 Blair Settlement, June 7.—Meadows and grain are looking well and prospects are good for an abundant harvest. Little Roy Derbyshire, who went to Kingston General Hospital for treatment, has returned, much improved. Dr. Johnson visited our school last week and found everything satisfactory. J. Blair has returned home after visiting friends in Kingston.
 Mrs. D. Laidlaw, ill for some time with pneumonia is recovering. Visitors: Miss Nellie Stinson spent Sunday the guest of Miss D. Siedler. Eva Blair is at her uncle's, in Newboro; Mr. and Mrs. S. McAnn at Verona;

Toledo News.
 Toledo, June 7.—Miss V. Ivy, Portland, was the guest of Mrs. J. Foster for a few days last week. Mrs. Mc-Donald, Portland, visited friends here last week. Mrs. Dodds, seriously ill, is not recovering as rapidly as friends would desire. Mrs. H. N. Beecher is visiting friends in Brockville.
 Mrs. Chester Slier, Brockville, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. C.
 Tallman, in place. J. Foster disposed of the Commercial house, of which he has been the genial host for the past ten years, to Mr. Jones, of Morton, who has taken possession.
 R. Percival is contemplating a trip to the town hall yesterday. Workmen are employed in finishing the new English church in this village. A. C.
 Fendis, late of Montreal, has come to reside in Arden, and is building a new store, on the lot adjoining the new church. Rev. C. Huffman, expected to stay at the Methodist parsonage another year. Mr. Heath has moved into the new building lately vacated by W. W. Pringle, the latter having moved to his home on the station road. John T. Clark, several times an inmate of Rockwood hospital, but who has been at liberty for some months, has again been confined as a dangerous lunatic.
 The late having moved to his home on the station road. J. R. Andrew, dispute between Messrs. Deter and Barker, over a piece of land in the village, has been amicably settled by arbitration. Edward Mueck, whose house and contents were recently destroyed by fire is building a new residence on his farm.

Might Have Been Fatal.
 Morven, June 6.—W. R. Purdy is remodeling his barn. What might have been a serious accident, was averted just in time. E. Kayler's hired boy was drawing out manure with a young team and stopping to shut a gate the team left him. Miss Bertie M. Smith and Miss May Leonard coming down the York Road saw the runaway team in time to rein their horse into the ditch and leave the rig, when the crash came, smashing one wheel off their buggy, and upsetting it against the fence. The young ladies got off without any injury save Miss Leonard got her face scratched a little and one wrist bruised. The horses struck a telegraph pole, leaving wagon and crashed into Mr. Foster's well, and daughter, Bath, who were behind the ladies.
 Mrs. Foyster was bruised badly. In the absence of Mr. Boyce, away attending conference the pulpits of both churches were filled by Rev. Mr.
 Wicket, Victoria road. Wedding bells are ringing. Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Lottie Bell, twin daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Albert Bell and Clarence Sharpe, oldest son of Lucas Sharpe, both of this place.
 The end is not yet; there are more to follow. Mrs. D. R. Hicks returned on Monday from a several days' visit with her mother at Erinville. D.
 Parks, Odessa, called on his cousin, Miss Bertie M. Smith, at Maple Corner, on Tuesday.
