Dr. Winter and Mr. Shaw of Methodist church were well received, and held their own nicely in the assembly. It is reported by one of our superintendents who sees a good deal of Canada, that as speakers the Methodists can put our Presbyterian clergy in the shade. Of course we have never held to infallibility of judgment in even our high bishops, and therefore have our own opinions. But Dr. Winter is a fair type of the good, clear, ready, warm and graceful speaker, which he showed himself to be. Mr. Shaw also carried the house with him.
