A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry. HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, unde one of the following plans:

(1) At lease six months' residence upo and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, but if he prefers he may substitute stock; and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation. (2) If the father (or mother, if the fa her is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make a homestead entry unde the provisions of this act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entere for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother. (3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead. (4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farming land owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the saidland. The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining of cornering township. settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clauses (2). (3) or (4) must cultivate 30 acres of his homestead, or substitute 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 80 acres substantially fenced. The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the homsetend law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.
