PIRATES KILLED NATIVES ON SIBERIAN COAST.

Pretext of Friendship—Gained a Landing, Ransacked Houses and Shops and Slaughtered the Inhabitants.

San Francisco, June 19.—Details of a terrible massacre by pirates of 150 natives on the Siberian coast, has been received in a letter from Petrovsk on the coast of Kamchatka. A Monographist has written to his brother here that several months ago the natives in a small settlement down the coast observed a schooner yacht drop anchor in the harbor and its coming was hailed with cries of rejoicing. From the vessel came several small boats. The natives could see the crew piling what they thought were supplies into the smaller craft. Then the men pulled for the shore. During that and the next day there was heard the firing of arms, and later smoke and fire were observed. This led to an investigation and a horrible scene of pillage and massacre was brought to light.

About the streets of the settlement were strewn bodies of 150 of the inhabitants shot and cut to pieces by the pirates who, under the pretext of friendship, had gained a landing on the coast. Every hut was ransacked and anything of marketable value had been taken. Who the marauders were those who managed to make their escape could not say beyond giving the information that some Japanese were in the party. When Monographist sent his letter the people of Petrovsk feared an attack on that town.

THE "BAND OF HOPE"

Of Sailors' Snug Harbor Had a Picnic.

The first anniversary of the Macdonald Band of Hope, in connection with Sailors' Snug Harbor work was held on Saturday afternoon having been arranged for the occasion. There are eighty-two names enrolled of which number about sixty availed themselves of the privilege as well as the pleasure of a drive to Welbourne Park, where they lunched and enjoyed ice-cream, fruit, nuts and candy. The band with all their friends were photographed at the door of the Snug Harbor, previous to leaving for the day, and it was a novelty, as well as an interesting sight to see so many children, with their banners and flags, denoting who and what they were, each boy and girl wearing their blue and white ribbon rosette, and the officers (who are children) their badges.

The pledge of the band of hope reads as follows: "I hereby promise, depending on the help of God, to abstain from the use of all intoxicating liquors as a beverage, tobacco and cigarettes; also from using language and conduct, such as I would not wish God to hear or see."

A large banner was received from J. K. Macdonald, Toronto, bearing the inscription, "Macdonald Band of Hope," heretofore at Carleton Place, Ontario, Macdonald being the president of the Upper Canada Tract Society, under whose auspices, and direction all the work in the Sailors' Snug Harbor is carried on. James M. Farrell, temporary magistrate, being vice-president for this port.

The Policemen Thought.

Incidental to the initiation of forty-seven candidates into a secret society in the Bastable block, Syracuse, N.Y., the other night, a cooking main was held, witnessed by 200 persons. Only two battles were waged, but the interest for four hours was intense and there was considerable betting. After the ceremony of installing members the centre of the lodge room was cleared, a pit improvised, and for a time feathers and grog flew. It was 129 a.m. when the spectators departed, Policemen who heard the crowing of cocks thought that the noise emanated from a meat market in the neighborhood.

Wonderful Advance.

It is barely half a century since Livingstone carved his name on a tree standing in view of the marvels of the Victoria Falls, in "Darkest Africa." After Livingstone came many other explorers, but it was not until the advent of the railway that there is now a fast railway train running through the very region. A train de luxe leaves Cape Town every Wednesday for Kimberley, Mafeking and Bulwer's, connecting with Gwelo, Salisbury and Victoria Falls. These trains are lighted by electricity and provided with saloon, dining and sleeping accommodations. The Cape to Cairo railroad, indeed, reaches every important point which only a few years ago were reading about in the wonderful narratives of Livingstone's and Stanley's explorations. Soon there will be no dark corners of our vast continent, and the spirit of man's outlet?

Death of Young Lady.

Perth Road, June 17.—The Union Sunday school picnic in Harris' grove on the 15th, was a great success. The principal feature of the day was a game of football. A number from here attended the funeral of Miss May Glass, Leiland. Deceased was well known in this vicinity, and her bereaved friends have the sympathy of this community. We are sorry to learn of the removal of Rev. John Waddell from this mission to Battersea during his two years as pastor of the Methodist church here. He has created many friends, and it is to be hoped that our new pastor will be as able to fill the position, as his worthy predecessor. On June 14th, Walter Ritchie, of this place, was united in marriage to Miss E. Ferguson. The young couple will reside near here, and they have the best wishes of the community. The band picnic will go off on Saturday, the grand success as formerly announced, and preparations are being made to surpass all previously held. Sherman Babcock is slowly recovering from a severe attack of pneumonia.

Expensive Letter Writing.

Rudyard Kipling, Sir Arthur Conan Doyle and a few other writers are reputed to have received something like a dollar a word for some of their writings, but this is small enough beside what was paid at an auction in London the other day for a letter by Mary Stuart. It brought $6,500; and the average per word was $3.03. But Queen Mary's letter writing was expensive. It cost her—among other things—her head and her reputation. Some love letters have been even more expensive.

A MILITARY FUNERAL

FOR THE TWO DECEASED ARTILLERYMEN.

An Imposing Spectacle—The 14th Band Headed the Mournful Cortege—Coffins Borne by Two Gun Carriages.

This morning, Gunner Norman Jubb and Driver Samuel Haisrick, of "A" Battery, who were drowned on Friday evening, were buried with full military honors. Early in the morning, the remains of the two dead artillerymen were removed from Corbett's undertaking establishment to the de Pont Barracks. The coffins were covered with flowers contributed by the comrades of the deceased. Shortly after nine o'clock the military cortege passed through the barrack gate. It was headed by a firing party, in command of Sergt. Henderson. A carriage containing Undertaker Corbett and Canon Starr followed. Then came the 14th P.W.O. Rifles band, which played dirges as the mournful procession wended its way along King street to St. George's cathedral. Following the band came the two gun carriages bearing the two coffins, wrapped in Union Jacks, and on which were the dead artillerymen's helmets and belts. The men of both batteries were in two corteges, which was a lengthy and most imposing spectacle. Lieut.-Col. Fages was in command, and with him were Lieut.-Col. Ogilvie and Capt. Leslie. Lieut. Clairmont commanded the mounted party and Lieut. Mills those on foot. Service in St. George's cathedral was conducted by Canon Starr. Mr. Harvey presided at the organ and the choir was in attendance. The cathedral was filled to the doors. As the coffins were being carried to the gun carriages, the firing party presented arms and the buglers played "The Last Post." The cortege then returned and proceeded along King and up Princess street. Hundreds of people lined the walks along the route. The firing party accompanied the remains to Cataract cemetery, where they fired a party volley over the graves of their deceased comrades.

On Saturday evening, a Mr. Hopkins, who knew the late Norman Jubb and his family intimately in England and had been his companion when young, arrived in Kingston to see the young man, having heard that he had joined the artillery. Glancing over the papers he saw the account of his friend's tragic death. He performed a kind duty for the dead soldier's mother in England by placing a wreath of flowers on the bier.

The reception given on Thursday evening by Mr. and Mrs. Jeddiah Irish, in honor of Mrs. Irish's nephew and bride, Mr. and Mrs. Sandford Vandervater, was a brilliant affair, including a reception by a number of friends musically talented. Elmer Clyde, Odessa, is spending a few days here with friends. F. E. Brown and wife, were on Friday renewing acquaintances in Napanee; Mrs. Jeddiah Irish was in Kingston on Saturday for treatment of the eyes. Edward Irish has engaged with Robert Metzler, as cheese-maker. Miss Eva Silver, has returned to her home, at Yarker. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. James Smith, Westbrooke, with Mr. and Mrs. Henry Bush, Capt. R. Bartley and daughter, Jennie, Napanee, with Mr. and Mrs. B. ENTRY

Entry may be made personally at the local office for the district in which the land to be taken is situated, or if the homesteader desires he may, on application to the Minister of the Interior, Ottawa, the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, or the Local Agent for the District in which the land is situated, receive authority for some one to make entry for him. A fee of $10 is charged for a homestead entry.

HOMESTEAD DUTIES

A settler who has been granted an entry for a homestead is required by the provisions of the Dominion Lands Act, and the amendments thereto, to perform the conditions connected therewith, under one of the following plans:

(1) At least six months' residence upon and cultivation of the land in each year during the term of three years. It is the practice of the Department to require a settler to bring 15 acres under cultivation, to have 20 head of stock, and 20 head of cattle, to be actually his own property, with buildings for their accommodation, will be accepted instead of the cultivation.

(2) If the father (or mother, if the father is deceased), of any person who is eligible to make homestead entry under the provisions of this act, resides upon a farm in the vicinity of the land entered for by such person as a homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by such person residing with the father or mother.

(3) If a settler was entitled to and has obtained entry for a second homestead the requirements of this act as to residence prior to obtaining patent may be satisfied by residence upon the first homestead, if the second homestead is in the vicinity of the first homestead.

(4) If the settler has his permanent residence upon farmland owned by him in the vicinity of his homestead, the requirements of this act as to residence may be satisfied by residence upon the said land. The term "vicinity" used above is meant to indicate the same township, or an adjoining one of corner township. A settler who avails himself of the provisions of Clause (2), (3) or (4) must cultivate for their accommodation, and have besides 20 head of stock, with buildings for their accommodation, and have besides 20 acres substantially fenced. The privilege of a second entry is restricted by law to those settlers only who completed the duties upon their first homesteads to entitle them to patent on or before the 2nd June, 1899. Every homesteader who fails to comply with the requirements of the homestead law is liable to have his entry cancelled, and the land may be again thrown open for entry.

APPLICATION FOR PATENT

Should be made at the end of three years, before the Local Agent, Sub-Agent or the Homesteader, before making application for patent; the settler must give six months' notice in writing to the Commissioner of Dominion Lands at Ottawa of his intention to do so.

INFORMATION

Newly arrived immigrants will receive at the Immigration Office in Winnipeg, or at any Dominion Lands Office in Manitoba or the North-West Territories, information as to the lands that are open for entry, and from the officers in charge free of expense, advice and assistance in securing lands to suit them. Full information respecting the land, timber, coal, and mineral lands, may be obtained upon application to the Secretary of the Department of the Interior, Ottawa; the Commissioner of Immigration, Winnipeg, Manitoba, or to any of the Dominion Lands Agents in Manitoba, or the North-West Territories.
