A YOUNG MAN STABBED By Father of Girl With Whom He

Was Driving. The police have been making enquiries concerning a stabbing affair, which occurred late on Sunday night. A young man was out driving with a girl, the daughter of a Frontenac ward resident. The father of the gir objected to the couple keeping company, and happening to meet them near his house, as the girl was about to leave the carriage, he is said to have attacked the young man with knife, inflicting severe cuts on hand, wrist and body. The doctor in attendance says the young man will lose the power of the hand injured. He is around, but as yet has laid complaint against the one who at tacked him. It is not likely the police will act unless he takes out warrant for the arrest of his assault-
