Prightful Dreams.

Dull Headaches.

TERRIBLE PAINS AND A FREQUENT DESIRE TO URINATE. Such were the troubles of Mr. Joseph Leland, Alma N.W.T. He happily found relief in

DOAN'S KIDNEY PILLS.

Here is what he says:—"I was troubled with dull headaches, had frightful dreams, terrible pains in my legs, and a frequent desire to urinate. Nothing Doan's Kidney Pills recommended for kidney trouble, I decided to give them a trial. I procured a box, and was very much surprised at the effectual cure they made. I take a great deal of pleasure in recommending them to all kidney trouble sufferers."

Doan's Kidney Pills help the Kidneys to drain off the poisonous impurities which have collected, thus cleansing out the kidneys, bladder, and all the urinary passages. They correct inability to hold the urine, and thus obviate the necessity of getting up many times at night to urinate. Their good results will be immediately felt in all cases of kidney trouble.

Price 50 cents per box, or $ for $1.25. At all dealers, or will be mailed direct, on receipt of price, by THE DOAN KIDNEY PILLS CO., TORONTO, ONT.

BISHOP'S CHARGE

that it might be signed, and returned to the general. I was not sent any of the bishops. His object, of course, is to make it appear, that a very large number of the clergy are in accord with the sentiments it contains.

Parts of this document are sufficiently unobjectionable to throw the unwary off their guard; and perhaps, lead them to sign it. But section iv. is unique in its audaciousness, and in its expression of insolent disbelief. It says: "Our conviction is that it is not without grave responsibility and peril, that any of us should build the faith of souls primarily, on details of the historical narrative, the historical validity of which must ultimately be determined in a court of trained search, although many of us, until such final decision takes shape, may feel devotedly, to the traditional details in question."

As the primate and the co-adjutor bishop of Montreal have said, in a circular addressed to the clergy of that diocese, if such men were honest, they would give up their office and leave the church. I trust that no clergyman in this diocese was misled, or so far forgot himself, or was so far recant to his ordination vows, as to sign it.

Having nothing to say against legitimate freedom, or an honest investigation of the books of Holy Scripture, I am not a blind advocate of one theory of inspiration, as against another, but there is a fact, and a doctrine of inspiration, which Scripture itself affirms, and which the church has always taught. Let us then, never lose sight of the fact, or let go our hold of that doctrine. God's revelation has not suffered from any of the assaults, and they are many, which have been made upon it, in the past, and it will not suffer now. It will come out of the fierce fire through which it is passing, purified, brighter, and clearer. "The Word of the Lord endureth for ever, and this is the Word, which by the gospel is preached unto you. The danger is to the souls of men, who may lose their anchorage and drift on the sea of unbelief, and about by the waves of this troublesome world."

The visit of Dr. Kirkpatrick, master of St. George's College, Cambridge, which some people dread, because of his connection with a school of critics, in which there are many a hearty hostile to the Bible, who go to it with "a priori" opinions against it, was a very pleasant experience, and surprised all who heard him, by his reverent and scholarly treatment of his subjects; and I am sure, did much to strengthen and confirm the faith of many.

Memorial to Late Archbishop. At the request of the executive committee, I issued, a few weeks ago, a pastoral in behalf of an object which every member of the church in this diocese should be anxious to support. I think ought to be commended to the diocese. There is no memorial to the late archbishop, who was a member of this diocese for more than half a century, and his bishop, for nearly forty years. This is not creditable to us, and surely has been an oversight. He was undoubtedly, in many respects, a great man, and did a great work for the diocese. A becoming memorial to him, and something which as a diocese, we owe to ourselves, would be the erection of a memorial, which I shall be very glad, therefore, if the clergy, (if they have not already done so), will bring the matter before their congregations, and appeal to them in its behalf. It certainly ought not to be a difficult matter to erect what would be a fitting memorial to the late archbishop, and an ornament to our cathedral.

Mr. Burton's Work. Rev. Mr. Burton still continues his good work, and with a diminished success, increasing both the stipend of the clergy, and the offerings to the mission fund. It is a work which gets done quickly, but when he gets over the diocese, his financial position will be very different from what it has been, and the clergy will have stipends on which they can live.

The Ontario Churchman. This paper still holds on its way, with the high character which it started. Each number contains a much interesting reading, as is usually distributed over four copies of an ordinary weekly paper, for which from one to two dollars a year is charged; and yet, in subscription to the Ontario Churchman, is only twenty-five cents a year. Those who think it, wonder how it can be published for this. It certainly is evident, that money, that the purpose of making it, but for the church's sake, I am exceedingly sorry that it does not find its way into the home of every church family, because I know it would do them good. I am persuaded that if the clergy would ever take a little more trouble over the matter, and commend it to their people, there would be few who would fail to take it. In certain parishes where this has been done, it is in the hands practically, of every family, with an educating influence both manifest, and satisfactory. My estimation of the paper is such that I personally send it to a considerable number of people. I do wish the clergy would make an effort to put it in the possession of all their people.

The Woman's Auxiliary. The Woman's Auxiliary, which has just had a most successful and enthusiastic annual meeting, in Napanea, was the even tenor of its way, and amounts in good works. It has decided to give its thank-offering this year, which reached the office of the general board for missionary work in our North-West. We shall miss the large amount, which, for some years, it has been giving to one of the funds of the diocese; still, we feel that under the circumstances, the auxiliary has done right. It has not, however, forgotten or overlooked the needs of this diocese, and by a unanimous vote, it was decided to devote the thank-offering next year, to our widow's and orphans' fund. It is a wonderfully consecrated organization, and has been wonderfully blessed of God. All its sessions are opened with prayer; thus looking to God for guidance and help, which certainly has been vouchsafed. Quiet Day. Rev. Dr. Whitney, principal of Bishop's College, Lennoxville, conducted a Quiet Day for us, last autumn, and all who had the privilege of hearing his admirable addresses, felt that it was indeed a day of spiritual refreshment. His resignation of the position of principal of Bishop's College, and return to England, is a decided loss to the Canadian church.

Days Of Intercession. At the last meeting of the board of management of the M.S.C.C. a resolution was passed, asking the bishops to request the clergy of their several dioceses, to observe the days of intercession in behalf of missions, and in obedience to our Lord's command, to entreat him to raise up men for the clergy of this diocese, will see that services are held in all their parishes, on the days appointed by the church, for this purpose, and with their people, pray the Lord of the harvest, to send forth laborers into His harvest.

Work Of The Diocese. We miss the chancellor from our meeting, and indeed day by day, in connection with the affairs of the diocese, in which he takes so deep an interest, and to which he is always ready to give his attention. We are especially sorry for the cause of his absence, and hope that he may return with renewed health and strength. A resolution of synod, expressing our mind in this respect, which would be fitting in a letter I received from him from Vancouver, just before he sailed for Australia. He says: "I would ask you to tell my brethren, clerical and lay, that I am very sorry to miss our meeting, in synod, and that I earnestly hope and pray, the blessing of the Almighty will rest upon their labors."

Changes And Appointments. There have been a great many changes in the diocese since last year. The Rev. J. C. Rollett resigned the curacy of St. Paul's, Kingston, and returned to Montreal, where he has taken up secular work. Percy Rollett, student, who had been in charge of Hammondsburg and Millbridge for a year, resigned the curacy of St. Paul's, and returned to his home in California. Rev. Joseph Forsythe, M.A., resigned the parish of Longboon, and has been placed on the superannuation list. The Ven. Archdeacon Worrell was elected Bishop of Nova Scotia, and resigned St. Luke's, in this city, to the Rev. J. B. S. Forster, B.D., to that church, who has resigned the rectory of Merrickville, to accept. I also appointed him one of my examining chaplains, in the diocese of Huron, in recognition of his rich scholarship. I appointed Rev. Joseph Elliott, rector of Cataract, rural dean of Frontenac, in place of the Rev. C. J. Young, M.A., who had left the deanery. Rev. J. H. Colonna, M.A., was appointed to the rectory of St. Lawrence, and resigned Stirling and Frankford. Rev. B. P. Byers, M.A., resigned the rectory of Ameliasburg, and accepted Stirling and Frankford. Rev. J. H. Astley, M.A., of England, was appointed to the mission of Loughboro. Rev. E. M. Rowland resigned Newboro, and Rev. Joseph Young, M.A., resigned the curacy of St. Paul's, Kingston, and accepted the curacy of Ameliasburg. Rev. J. L. Holah has left the diocese, and Hamilton, Ontario. Rev. J. W. Forster has resigned the parish of Wolfe Island, and I have granted him the year's leave of absence from the diocese.

I appointed the Rev. Canon Macmorine, B.D., to be Archdeacon of Ontario, in the place of Archdeacon Worrell, who became Bishop of Nova Scotia. Rural Dean Fogert, M.A., resigned. Rev. J. Ross Beaulieu, M.A., was appointed to be rural dean of Hastings, in place of the Rev. C. J. Young, M.A., who had left the deanery.

Rev. Mr. Forsythe, a retired clergyman, father of the Rev. Joseph Forsythe, and of Mrs. Metzler, passed away at a ripe old age. He was a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, a good classical scholar, and loved to talk of the work of his early days. He remembered this diocese in his will, and bequeathed to his son and daughter, what he left to his son and daughter, will ultimately come to it.

Rev. George Metzler, B.A., of King's College, Windsor, a hard working clergyman, who did not in any way spare himself, was cut down, in his comparative suddenness, in the midst of successful work, in a parish where he was greatly beloved. The parish of Oxford Mills, has lost a devoted member of the church, George Sanderson, a godly layman, who passed away after a lingering illness, to the rest of Paradise. For more than fifty years, he took an active interest in church work. He was always the clergyman's friend, and at his house, bishop and clergy were ever welcome.

The death of the Right Rev. Maurice Scollard Baldwin, the late vicar of Bishop of Huron, has left a gap in the Canadian church which cannot easily be filled. He was indeed an episcopal Christ, which could be known and read of all. His pure and consecrated life, his close walk with God, and his eloquent utterance, made him a power, wherever he went. To be with him, was a benediction. He never spared himself, was always about his Master's business, and literally died in harness.

"The memory of the just is precious." And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified; praying that you may have a right judgment in all things.

Meeting Of Provincial Synod. The Provincial Synod of Canada, met in Montreal, in October last, and found it had more business to transact, than any of its members imagined. The archbishop of Montreal, who had been acting primate, was formally elected primate of all Canada; a fitting crown to his blameless life, and long service in the church of God.

The Diocese of Algoma, was erected into an independent diocese, but our synod, together with the synods of the other adjoining dioceses, must give their consent, and I would ask for action to this effect. The Provincial Synod, will not meet again, unless by special summons, which is not likely to be given.

The General Synod which will take its place, will meet in Quebec, next September; and we have the right to elect twelve delegates to it, six clerical, and six lay.

Changes On Bench Of Bishops. Within the past year, there have been many changes in the episcopate of the Canadian church. By resignation of Bishop Courtney, the Diocese of Nova Scotia was left vacant; and to Ontario's loss, Archdeacon Worrell was elected to fill the see, which, in the larger sense, was indeed a great loss to this diocese. An archdeacon, he was really as a right hand to me, ever ready to help, in every possible way, the work of the diocese. I am sure, that his faithful, and successful bishop, his consecration took place on St. Luke's day, October 15th, 1904, in Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal, when, owing to the fact of the Provincial Synod being in session, an unusually large number of bishops and clergy were present. With the bishop of Toronto I was one of the presenting bishops.

The Diocese of Caledonia being vacant, the Church Missionary Society, which provides the bishop's salary, and so has the right of nomination, suggested to the Archbishop of Canterbury, the name of the Rev. F. H. Davenent, B.D., for the vacant see. At the request of the Archbishop of Canterbury, Mr. Davenent was consecrated by the archbishop of Montreal, on St. Andrew's Day, November 30th, 1904, in Christ Church Cathedral, Montreal. I was one of the consecrating bishops. The vacancy caused in the diocese of Huron, was filled by the death of Bishop Baldwin, who died on the election of Archdeacon Williams, rector of Stratford, in that diocese, who was consecrated in St. Paul's Cathedral, London, on the festival of the Epiphany, January 6th, 1906. I was one of the presenting bishops.

Rural Dean Fogert, resigned. I appointed Rev. Dr. Roberts to be a minor canon of the cathedral. I appointed Rev. W. F. Fitzgerald, M.A., of the diocese of Montreal, to the parish of Leeds River, vacant by the death of Rev. G. Metzler. Rev. Stearns Tigue, M.A., has resigned the rectory of All Saints, in this city, and has been superannuated. All Saints has for some time existed only in name, and I have, therefore, decided to amalgamate the parish of which it once covered, with the parish of St. Luke's, in this city; which will, therefore, for the future, receive the portion of the Surplus Rectory fund, of Kingston, which was formerly paid to the rector of All Saints.

Rev. W. Bertal Henney, B.A., has resigned the rectory of Christ church, Belleville. I have appointed a parish in Newport, Rhode Island. Rev. E. Scammell has resigned the mission of Augusta, to take effect the 1st of October, and has accepted superannuation. I have appointed Rev. C. Lancaster, B.A., to be rector of Wolfe Island; the Rev. Walter Cox, to the mission of Clarendon and Palmerston, and the Rev. H. R. The parish of Oxford Mills, has lost a devoted member of the church, George Sanderson, a godly layman, who passed away after a lingering illness, to the rest of Paradise. For more than fifty years, he took an active interest in church work. He was always the clergyman's friend, and at his house, bishop and clergy were ever welcome.

The death of the Right Rev. Maurice Scollard Baldwin, the late vicar of Bishop of Huron, has left a gap in the Canadian church which cannot easily be filled. He was indeed an episcopal Christ, which could be known and read of all. His pure and consecrated life, his close walk with God, and his eloquent utterance, made him a power, wherever he went. To be with him, was a benediction. He never spared himself, was always about his Master's business, and literally died in harness.

"The memory of the just is precious." And now brethren, I commend you to God, and to the word of His grace which is able to build you up, and to give you an inheritance among all them which are sanctified; praying that you may have a right judgment in all things.

Quality Counts. In blood, especially, nothing shows more quickly than impoverished blood. Pimples, boils, skin eruptions of all kinds should be treated through the blood. Wade's Iron Tonic Pills cure these diseases by driving them out of the blood. In boxes, 25c. at Wade's Drug Store. Money back if not satisfactory.

Obituary. Rev. Mr. Forsythe, a retired clergyman, father of the Rev. Joseph Forsythe, and of Mrs. Metzler, passed away at a ripe old age. He was a graduate of Trinity College, Dublin, a good classical scholar, and loved to talk of the work of his early days. He remembered this diocese in his will, and bequeathed to his son and daughter, what he left to his son and daughter, will ultimately come to it.

Rev. George Metzler, B.A., of King's College, Windsor, a hard working clergyman, who did not in any way spare himself, was
