THE BUGLE SOUNDS WHAT IS HEARD IN MILITARY CIRCLES.

The Men Were Out Minus Their Tunics—Snobby Not Prevalent in Camp—The Sports Were Interesting. Bill was a butcher by trade and also did considerable cattle buying.

Yesterday was so warm that the men were allowed to parade in the afternoon, minus tunics. Even at that some difficulty was experienced in getting all the men into line.

The lady visitors to the camp continue as numerous as ever. Baseball teams, representing the 47th and 49th Regiments, met on the diamond last night.

The A.M.C. will be photographed on Wednesday evening.

Camp Orders. The orders for to-day contain the following information: Divisional field officer to-day from the 6th infantry brigade.

The following officers have been granted leave of absence: day, from 3rd to 4th July, Veterinary Lieut. A. McGill, C.A.S.C., 4th to 5th inst.

One officer and five non-commissioned officers and men are struck off the strength on medical report.

Hospital corporals in mounted corps will be selected from the mounted men in the corps, and furnished with a horse.

The artillery brigade will be inspected by Lieut.-Col. G. Hunter Ogilvie, R.C.F.A. on the 5th and 6th insts.

Officers commanding brigades will be good enough to have a return forwarded to headquarters at once, showing number of officers, non-commissioned officers, and men and horses, who travelled on transport requisitions, issued with circular letter, dated 15th June, ultimo.

Instructions re Transport Requisitions will do so at once. Sergt. Instructor J. R. McGowan, signalling instructor, is taken on the strength of the camp from this date.

Yesterday was no holiday for the troops under canvas. They put in a hard day's drill in spite of a burning sun.

Capt. Elmsley, brigade major, 4th Hussars, is one of the most popular officers in camp.

Lord Aylmer was expected to visit the camp grounds to-day.

There is a tailor shop on the grounds for the benefit of any Tommy Atkins who may wish a stitch in time to save nine.

The officers of the 4th Hussars were photographed yesterday evening.

Sports At The Camp. Saturday afternoon was a half holiday at the camp and at the request of the staff officers, the Y.M.C.A. management undertook to arrange sports for the occasion.

The wrestling match was won by Trooper Ellenbeck, 4th Hussars, who took two out of three bouts, each lasting three minutes.

The warrant officers staff sergeants and sergeants of the Royal Canadian field artillery, Kingston, have much pleasure in extending the hospitality of their lines to the W.O.'s staff sergeants and sergeants of the militia camp at Barrington.

No. 1 Co., 47th Batt., were under the camera last evening. Edward Manning, formerly employed at the R.M.C., has charge of the dining hall at the 47th Batt., and is giving excellent satisfaction.

General Lake arrived at the camp yesterday afternoon. Col. Males, commanding the 47th Regiment, entertained at dinner Sunday afternoon.

Trooper Dwight Frink, "B" squadron, 4th Hussars, sustained a slight injury to his leg lately, which detained him in hospital.

The guards on the bridge are becoming very vigilant of late, sending many men back to camp for being improperly dressed.

Large numbers from the city attended the drumhead service, many of the visitors remaining throughout the day. The troop were drawn up in front of the staff officers in the centre, directly facing the chaplains.

A GOOD PREACHER IS THE NEW PASTOR OF BROCK ST. CHURCH

Upon Whom Does the Work of the Church Depend?—Seek the Truth and Then Tell Others. Rev. C. S. Eby, the newly appointed pastor of Brock Street Methodist Church, spoke at both services last Sunday.

Choosing for his text at evening service John 14: 26, "But the Father which sent me, He gave me a commandment, that I should say, that His commandment is, that I should speak the words which He has given me, so I speak." Rev. Mr. Eby continued the purpose of his remarks.

The warrant officers staff sergeants and sergeants of the Royal Canadian field artillery, Kingston, have much pleasure in extending the hospitality of their lines to the W.O.'s staff sergeants and sergeants of the militia camp at Barrington.
