Picton, July 10 .- One of Picton's octogenarians, Paul Findlay McCunig, aged eighty-seven, passed peacefully away at his rooms in the Tecumseh house, Friday, after an illness tending over the greater part of spring and winter. He was wellknown about town, familiarly called "Uncle Findlay" by his many friends, by whom he will be much missed. He was born in Picton, and spent the early part of his life in Kingston where he carried on a forwarding business, operating a line of barges be tween Kingston and Montreal. Some forty years ago he came to Picton. ness, but during the past fifteen years he led a retired life. He was a brother of the late James McCuaig, M.P. for Prince Edward, and an uncle of Messrs.
