SULTAN'S LIFE

Attempted, As Ruler Left The Mosque

A BOMB BURST

IN COURTYARD TEMPLE, KILLING FORTY PEOPLE.

Sultan Showed Courage and Self-Possession—Drove Himself Back to Palace—Perpetrator of Outrage Among the Killed.

THE SULTAN OF TURKEY.

Special to the Whig. Sofia, Bulgaria, July 22.—It is reported here officially from Constantinople that during yesterday's Selamlik an attempt was made to assassinate the sultan.

Sultan Was Brave. London, July 22.—The Turkish censorship is evidently suppressing the reports regarding the attempt on the life of the sultan, for no further press despatches from Constantinople have reached London. A dispatch received by the Turkish embassy says: "As the sultan was issuing from the mosque at the conclusion of the ceremony of the Selamlik a bomb burst in the courtyard of the mosque. Divine Providence miraculously preserved his majesty, who displayed his usual self-possession and courage. Himself driving the phaeton, his majesty returned to the palace, graciously bowing as if nothing had happened. A few persons were killed or injured. The Selamlik is in progress at the infamous and dastardly deed."

Perpetrator Among Killed. Berlin, July 22.—An account of an attempt on the life of the sultan of Turkey, received here, says that forty persons were killed, all native Turks and soldiers, and that it is believed that the perpetrator of the outrage is among the killed.

UNANIMOUS RESOLUTION

Passed by Zemstvo Condemning Government.

Special to the Whig. London, July 22.—The Moscow correspondent of the Times telegraphs: "The congress, to-day, by almost unanimous voting, decided to appeal to the nation, and passed a resolution in favor of resistance to the arbitrary and unjust acts of the government. The appeal to the nation takes the form of a simply and moderately worded history of Russia, since the November revolution. The record of broken promises and mischievous and cynical indifference is laid bare in convincing fashion."

$100 REWARD

Kentuckian Offers it For New Theology Truths.

Louisville, Ky., July 22.—Rev. Theodore T. Eaton is out with an offer of $100 reward to anyone who will produce a single new truth in theology discovered since 1850. This is Dr. Eaton's defiance to higher critics who talk of having "discovered new truths." For every such truth exhibited to him Dr. Eaton will pay $100.

Will The Cup Go?

Montreal, July 22.—Is the Seawhaka cup ever going to be carried off by the Americans? The official time of yesterday's race was: Start—2:20. First round—Manchester, 2:57.42; Alexandria, 2:59.04. Second round—Manchester, 3:33.10; Alexandria, 3:35.30. Finish—Manchester, 4:08.05; Alexandria, 4:11.05. Elapsed time—Manchester, 1:48.05; Alexandria, 1:51.05. Manchester won by three minutes.

WHEAT HEADING OUT.

Crops Will Begin to Mature in Two Weeks.

Winnipeg, July 22.—A tone of confidence pervades the railway crop reports issued to-day. In few instances are there indications of serious damage from insects. Wheat in some districts has attained a height of three and a half feet. In several districts the prediction is made that the crop cannot yield less than two bushels per acre, and in some with the vast area under crop this season, would insure a total yield of 80,000,000 bushels. Between 30,000 and 40,000 men from outside the west will be required as laborers to take of the crop, which will commence to mature within two weeks.

MAY BE DISSOLVED.

What May Happen in Good Old England.

Special to the Whig. London, July 22.—The cabinet met yesterday, and remained in session for two hours. What action, if any, was taken on the government's defeat in the House of Commons, on Thursday last, has not been announced. It is understood, however, that the government decided to remain in office until the end of the session and to dissolve parliament in October.

No authoritative statement will be made until Monday and in the interval the cabinet council Mr. Balfour had an audience with the king, which lasted half an hour.

Saves Lives Of Own Children.

Norristown, Pa., July 22.—Mayor Samuel Roberts has placed himself in line for a Carnegie medal. While fishing from a boat his attention was attracted to two boys, struggling in the water. Pulling up another, Roberts rowed to the scene, and plunging into the water without time to take off his clothing, grabbed the boys by the hair as they were going down the last time. When the mayor drew them to the surface great was his surprise to find they were his own sons.

TWO BIG SUN SPOTS.

Have They Anything to Do With Hot Wave?

Boston, July 22.—Two sun spots are now exciting considerable interest among the Harvard astronomers together with those above the centre and the right side. Their diameter is estimated to be 100,000 miles. Whether the hot weather is caused or affected by them is not known.

Gertrich, of the Harvard Observatory, said: "Sun spots are not unusual but these are of interest for their great size. Scientists are not agreed as to whether they have effect on the weather or not."

WON'T HANG

Donahue's Death Sentence Is Commuted.

FOR LIFE IN PRISON

HE IS A DECIDEDLY HAPPY CONVICT.

St. Lawrence County Man, Convicted of Murder in Indiana, Receives Commutation of Sentence, and Breaks Down for First Time.

Michigan City, Ind., July 22.—A happier convict was never confined in the Northern Indiana prison than Edward Donahue, who heard from Warden Reid last evening that his sentence had been commuted to life imprisonment.

Donahue's first act was to fall on his knees and offer a fervent prayer of thanks for what he believes was an act of divine interposition in saving his life. He then called for pen and ink and began to write a letter to his mother in Syracuse.

The action of Governor Hanley was a surprise to the prison officers, who had expected the gallows in preparation for meeting out the death penalty.

Governor Hanley said he was not actuated by sentiment, but that the evidence in the case warranted his action.

Donahue was convicted in Lake county for the murder of Amner North, near Hartzel, Ind., October 5th, 1904, the supreme court recently sustaining the decision of the lower court and Donahue was to have been executed in the state prison in this city.

When notified by Warden Reid of the action of Governor Hanley, the condemned was overcome with emotion, and cried like a child. The emotion was the first evidence the man had given since he was received at the prison, and he was possessing the finer sensibilities. He had been surly and uncommunicative during the months before the time of his sentence and the date set for his execution. After receiving the commutation he said that he was glad that there was one man in the state who questioned his guilt and that he would now put forth every effort to prove himself worthy of the governor's clemency.

The crime for which Donahue escapes the extreme penalty was one of the most heinous in the history of Indiana. Donahue and his victim left the latter's home together to go to Chicago to sell a horse and carriage belonging to Northrup. They slept together in Michigan City the night of October 3rd. The next night they slept together in Tallston. The morning of the following day, Wednesday, they left in the direction of Hobart. That night Donahue appeared in Hobart with the horse and carriage and sold a watch and chain, belonging to Northrup. With the money thus secured he bought liquor Thursday and Friday.

Northrup's remains, riddled with bullets, were found two days later by boys near Hobart. There were two bullet wounds in his head and three in his body.

All clues pointed to Donahue. He was traced along the lake shore, and the officer being instructed to look for a struggle and to take the fugitive dead or alive. All trace of him was lost near Richmond. Later he was heard of in Buffalo, and from that city traced east.

There was a fierce fight in Donahue's old home near Amboy when the Syracuse police discovered their man hiding in a feather bed. The trial in Indiana lasted a week and resulted in a verdict of murder in the first degree. The local police know Donahue as one of the most desperate criminals in the United States. He had served time in Indiana, Illinois, Michigan and New York.

From St. Lawrence County. Waterson, N.Y., July 22.—Donahue was born in Gouverneur, in 1862, and two years later his father died. He spent his boyhood in Gouverneur, and then removed to Syracuse. He now has a number of relatives living in St. Lawrence county, and spent the greater part of the winter of 1903-4 taken on a tour of the Gouverneur live-man, drove the animal recklessly, broke its leg, and urged the horse on a long distance after the leg was broken. He made his escape at that time and nothing was heard of him about Gouverneur until press dispatches told his connection with the Indiana murder case.

Edward Donahue was captured by Detective William Dornier and James Woods of Solway, on last Christmas at the home of Donahue's mother near Amboy. The criminal was taken only after a desperate struggle and held that time until his conviction and sentence he steadfastly asserted his innocence.

A later dispatch says: One officer and thirty-three members of the crew were killed.

TEAMSTERS SURRENDER.

Men Ordered to Apply for Old Places.

Chicago, July 22.—The teamsters' strike that has so greatly disturbed business conditions in Chicago for the last 103 days, was this morning officially declared off by the teamsters' joint council. The men have been ordered to report to their old positions, and it is estimated that less than one-half of them will be re-employed.

The strikers have made a complete surrender and will apply for work as individuals and without an agreement of any kind with their employers.

The first break came Thursday when the lumber teamsters voted to return to work regardless of what action might be taken by any other union. The department store drivers and the railway express drivers also voted to call off the strike.

It is expected that about sixty per cent of the department store drivers will be reinstated. The employers say that only such men will be taken back as are needed after the non-union men have been provided for and that the question of securing the union button must be left to the individual employer.

TWELVE YEARS A FUGITIVE

A Counterfeiter Captured in California.

Los Angeles, Cal., July 22.—After successfully eluding the United States secret service men for over twelve years, J. B. Gregory, alias Harry Leonard, expert counterfeiter and escaped convict, has been captured here and turned over to the United States authorities to serve out an unexpired term of seven years in the House of Correction at Detroit, Mich. For the last eight months he has been living with his wife in this city.

He had been held in his operations and had put out a flood of spurious $1 coins. He deposited cash bail in $1 coins, and was released on $100,000 cash for his appearance in court and then jumped the bail. At that time he was living under the name of Harry Leonard. In October, 1892, Deputy United States Marshal Budgett arrested Gregory at Seattle. He was tried and convicted of counterfeiting and sentenced to seven years in penitentiary on December 1st, of the same year and sent to McNeill's Island.

TO TAX AMERICAN VESSELS.

Should Not Use Welland Canal.

Free of Cost. St. Catharines, Ont., July 22.—The opinion is very strong in places along the Welland canal that the dominion government should again resort to the old system of laying toll on the vessels carrying freight through the canal.

A large percentage of the vessels are American. They load at American points. That they enjoy the great privileges of the Welland canal, free of cost is manifestly unjust, since the Canadian people paid the whole cost of building and are paying the whole cost of maintaining and operating this great inland waterway. There seems to be no very good reason why toll should not again be imposed.

Population of Town is Slaughtered by Raiders.

Salonica, European Turkey, July 22.—A report received here says that a large Bulgarian band attacked the patriarchal villages of Baltina and Gradshuitza, in the Morinovo district on Thursday night, murdering the entire population indiscriminately, and that the carnage did not end until this morning. The number of victims is not known. Troops proceeded to find the district, and another village in the vicinity of the population had fled, burned the village, the inhabitants of which were suspected of having murdered thirty Turks near Doiran.

WHO ARE SAID TO HAVE FORMED A PLOT TO MURKIN.

Special to the Whig. St. Petersburg, July 22.—Orders have been issued to Cosens to replace the marines who have been guarding the Kolpino works, outside St. Petersburg. This change in the guard has been made owing to the discovery of a plot on the part of the marines to mutiny.

"VIVE RUSSIE."

The Cry Welcoming De Witte in Paris.

Special to the Whig. Paris, July 22.—M. De Witte, the senior Russian plenipotentiary, who arrived here yesterday, received a notable reception at the Northern railway station. French popular sentiment being expressed with cries of "Vive Russie."
