IN STRICT CONFIDENCE.

Women Obtain Mrs. Pinkham's Advice and Help.

She Has Guided Thousands to Health.— How Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound Cured Mrs. Fred Seydel.

It is a great satisfaction for a woman to feel that she can write to anyone in confidence about the most private and confidential details about her illness, and know that her letter will be seen by a woman only, a woman full of sympathy for her sick sister, and above all, a woman who has had more experience in treating female ills than any living person.

Over one hundred thousand cases of female diseases come before Mrs. Pinkham every year, some personally, others by mail; and this has been going on for twenty years, and after day.

Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman of such experience, especially when it is absolutely free.

Mrs. Pinkham never violates the confidence of women, and every testimonial letter published is done so with the written consent or request of the writer, and for the benefit of other women who may be benefited as they have been.

Mrs. Fred Seydel, of 412 North 54th Street, West Philadelphia, Pa., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"Over a year ago I wrote you a letter asking advice, as I had female ills and could not carry on my family. You gave me a kind letter of instructions and followed up your advice. I am not only a well woman in consensus, but have a beautiful baby girl. Mrs.
