Kitchen Comfort

is an every day reality to the lucky owner of an

Imperial Oxford Range

It bakes without burning, roasts without scorching, and maintains its oven at an even dry heat for hours. Top, bottom and sides are heated equally—its thermometer tells the story and guesswork becomes a certainty in cooking.

Delicately browned bread, pies with under crusts cooked as well as the upper, cake that hasn't "fallen," and all the little successes of baking that mean contentment, freedom from worry and comfort in the kitchen are assured by the IMPERIAL OXFORD RANGE.

The way it saves fuel is most astonishing. No heat is wasted—cooking value is gotten from every ounce of coal.

If your dealer doesn't handle the Imperial Oxford Range, write us direct.

People preferring a Steel Plate Range will find the Oxford Chancellor as perfect in every way as such a range can be made.

WHAT WHIG CORRESPONDENTS TELL US.

The Tidings From Various Points In Eastern Ontario — What People Are Doing And What They Are Saying.

Plenty Of Hay.

Morven, July 31.—The last two weeks has been well improved by the farmers in housing their hay, while the nice weather lasted. The recent heavy rain has put grain in a very bad shape for harvesting. W. R. Purdy is making preparations to rebuild his barn.

Plevna Pointers.

Plevna, July 31.—The farmers of this place are having a wet time for taking off their hay. William Martin who has been on the sick list is recovering. A number of young folks from this village attended the party at Ardoch last week. John Card is repairing the school house. Miss Gladys Godkin entertained thirty-four of her little friends on her birthday, July 20th. Owing to the recent rain the roads are in a bad state.

Orangemen At Church.

Glenvale, July 31.—L. O. L., No. 841, attended service in the Presbyterian church, Sunday, July 9th. Rev. Mr. Milligan conducted the service. The lodge also attended the celebration in Belleville on the 12th. The garden party and dance held in Mr. Hawkey's grove, Thursday, was a success. Miss Mary Hawkey, visiting her parents for the past couple of weeks, has returned to Chicago. Visitors: Mrs. Crumley and children, Kingston, and Miss May Binnington, Sydenham, at J. C. Gibson's; Miss Amanda Gordon, Lowell, Mass., at James Gordon's; Mr. and Mrs. W. J. Amey and children, Kingston, at J. D. Ellerbeck's; Mrs. Alice Binnington, Havelock, at J. Cramer's.

McLean Happenings.

McLean, Aug. 1.—Low fields and flats are flooded and the hay that was not stacked last week is floating in water on account of three days' heavy rain. The hail storm on July 26th, did not hurt the crops in this vicinity, but between McLean and Mountain Grove, some of the farmers have had their grain beaten out and hay damaged by the hail. One hail stone was measured and it was found to be over two inches around part of it. There are plenty of berry buyers going through here. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. Rufus Wager, Trafford, at Robert Vanvolkenburgh's; Miss Eliza Smith was at her father's, John Smith's, on Monday; Sunday school has not been held here during the past two weeks on account of the rains.

News From Chaffey's Locks.

Chaffey's Lock, Aug. 1.—The picnic on Thursday for the little people was well attended and enjoyed. Idylwild Hotel is pretty well filled with tourists. Many of them report good fishing on Saturday last, their average catch of bass being four and a half pounds. Miss M. E. Martin and Miss M. Donnelly, Westport, are guests of Miss M. Fleming. Miss Edna Fleming is spending a few days at Philipsville with relatives. A party of about twenty-five are at Fetter Cairne island, Indian Lake. Mrs. G. Mauve, and Miss Nellie O'Brien, Montreal, arrived on Saturday, to spend a few weeks. Capt. Bowen and family, Brooklyn, N.Y., are at Mrs. Simmons'. The heavy rains have put a stop on haying. Misses Cole and J. Fahey, Elgin, have returned home after spending a few days at Chaffey's.

New Switch Put In.

Arden, July 31.—Our rainy season is upon us, and all harvesting operations are suspended. F. J. Clark is spending part of his holidays with his brother, Rev. W. H. Clarke, Havelock. Lena Lindsay returned to-day to her school at Beech Corners near Plevna. Edna Heath will re-open school on Wednesday at Green school. Mr. Ostrom, Belleville, and party, are camping on Osborne's Point. Mr. Detlor and daughter, Southern Ohio, are visiting in Arden and vicinity. George A. Scott is recovering from quite a severe attack of pneumonia. John Hayes has been confined to his bed for a few days, threatened with typhoid fever. A. H. Carl is in Toronto. F. Rice, manager of the Imperial bank, Toronto, and daughter, are at the Lakeview Hotel. Frankie Alexander, and sister, Grace, are spending the week visiting friends at Deseronto. A new switch is being placed at the station, to facilitate the passing of trains at this point.

"Pine Hill" Occupied.

Ferguson's Falls, July 31.—A number from here went on the excursion to Ste. Anne de Beaupre last week. Mrs. Charles Hollinger, Devil's Lake, Dakota, is visiting at her father's, Robert Craig. Miss Millie Donaldson left for her home at Black's Corners, on Tuesday, after spending the last few weeks with her sister, Mrs. D. Horricks. Mrs. H. Norris, Sr. and Miss Violet, Carleton Place, accompanied by Miss Nellie McIntyre and little Misses Violet and Myrtle Young, Ottawa, are visiting friends in the village and vicinity. Mrs. E. J. Sheppard and children and her mother, Mrs. Edward Sheppard, Hamilton, are visiting at Mrs. Alexander Sheppard's. Mr. and Mrs. William Doyle and children, of Smith's Falls, spent a couple of days at P. Doyle's last week. Our "Pine Hill," is occupied at present by campers, L. Robertson, Almonte, accompanied by a couple of Ottawa friends are spending a few weeks there.

Cutting It For Hay.

Bishop's Mills, Aug. 1.—On account of the recent terrific storm of wind and hail many of the farmers are cutting their grain as hay. The grain crop was much damaged. Rev. and Mrs. Stuart Woods, Metcalfe, spent a few days last week at home of John Woods. Misses Helen and Annie Woods, Colorado, are visiting at old home. Mr. and Mrs. James Gill, Hamilton, are visiting Rev. and Mrs. McKenzie at manse. Mr. and Mrs. James Price and family have gone to reside in New Liskeard. He sold his store and property to Robert Jones, who is doing a splendid business. Richard Reynolds has gone on an extended trip to North-West. Mr. and Mrs. Albert Alexander, Smith's Falls, visited friends here last week. The Misses Anderson, Kemptville, spent Sunday at home of their brother, William Anderson. Mr. and Mrs. Chisholm, Kemptville, visited at manse last week. The Misses Bishop, Smith's Falls, are visiting at home of their mother.

Won Special Prize.

Kepler, July 31.—Rain, rain, rain; lots of hay and barley out. Wells are filling up to the brim. The Misses Knapp and Miss Vanalstine, rusticating at their country homes for the past week, returned yesterday. Dr. Knapp drove out after them. Richard Aykroyd and family, Scotland, made a short visit at his old home, on his way to the North-West, where he has taken up land. Congratulations to Miss Velma Lawson, on her very successful examination, being entitled to a special prize. Miss Helen Wartman is visiting friends in Sydenham. Visitors: Mr. Bunt and wife, Kingston, and T. Sharp and F. Sharpe, Sharpton, at A. J. Sharpe's; Miss Mavety, Kingston, at Harvey Buck's; Sidney Burt and family, Hyde Park, North Dakota, and Miss M. Burt, Napanee, at R. Townsend's; Miss R. and N. Spooner, Michigan, at S. Abbott's; Mrs. Denison, Portsmouth, at H. Johnston's; M. Orser and wife, R. Coghlan, J. McBride and M. Silver, at Mr. Ferguson's; J. W. Stagg, Kingston, at C. Cranston's;; Roscoe Coghlan at M. Orser's.

Cheese Makers Encouraged.

Sunbury, Aug. 1.—The heavy rain of Saturday caused a delay in haying and harvesting. The Orange society will hold a social in a few days, on the church grounds. Ensign Crigi and wife now control the Salvation Army services and will remain for the summer season. Our football team practises nightly for the coming contest. The hay crop, a large one, is nearly all housed, and grain cutting has commenced. One of the village stores will, it is said, change hands shortly. The Maccabees will, on August 6th, attend church service in a body. A number of young people from the city have been spending some days with friends in this vicinity. A hired hand who last week stole money from his employer, near the village, and tried to escape with the same, was, in a few hours, safely cared for by the authorities, and is awaiting trial. Factory men are unusually encouraged by the advance in the price of cheese, especially at this season of the year. H. Cochrane is in the employment of J. A. McDonald. Our football team is in splendid form. Church service on Sunday was attended by a small number; the inclement weather was the cause.

Portland Tidings.

Portland, Aug. 1.—The farmers have nearly finished haying, which is an abundant crop. The lake is swarmed with campers. There are about sixty cottages, and all are in use, besides the numerous tents which are to be seen. This lake is getting more famous every year. The Commercial house is crowded with tourists. They report the bass fishing excellent. A number of people from Smith's Falls spent Sunday in the village. Miss Veda Dier, Westport, visiting Mrs. G. Cannon, returned home Saturday. Mrs. M. De Gez, Pittsburg, arrived last week to spend a couple of months in her new cottage. It is the most up-to-date cottage on the Rideau. Ernest Gallagher and wife, of Toronto, are spending their holidays on the lake. Miss Cameron and Miss Spry, of Barrie, are the guests of Mrs. Ross Cameron. Mrs. Blanchard, of Oak Leaf, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. G. Cannon. Stanley Lockwood spent Saturday and Sunday at his home in Westport. Mrs. (Dr.) Murphy, Pakenham, is the guest of Mrs. J. K. Scovil. Miss Myrtle Gallagher, of Harrowsmith, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. A. Gallagher. Mr. and Mrs. Charles Reid, of North Augusta, are the guests of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Murphy. Miss Estella Scovil has returned from visiting friends in Ottawa.

Calabogie Movements.

Calabogie, Aug. 1.—Mrs. F. Baxter and daughter, have left for Winnipeg and points further west. Mr. and Mrs. James Carswell spent a few days at the Legree house last week. The Dean and Low cottage of Sunshine Beach, is now completed and both families with other guests report a pleasant time. Messrs. John and Basil Bailey are erecting a fine new dwelling for their aunt, Miss Bailey. A. Cousel, of Manchester, Eng., is spending the summer months with his friend, T. J. Early. Quite a number from here attended the wedding of J. Conway and Miss Lizzie Mero, of Deere. The bride looked charming in a dress of blue crepe de chene. Many valuable presents were received by her. John Carswell and Herbert Tuffey spent Sunday at the lake. Messrs. Devine and McGarry have moved to their cottage by the lake shore. Quite a number from here took in the trip to St. Annes. Miss Ada Dempsay has been removed to Kingston hospital, being a victim of appendicitis. She came through the operation with success. James Carswell, Jr., of Renfrew, purchased from J. C. McKerrow a little bark canoe. Miss Mona Knight is visiting Mrs. E. G. Cooper. Michael Connolly, of Minnesota, paid a visit to Calabogie on Saturday last. Miss Minnie Closs left for Flower Station on Monday. A very sociable time was given by T. G. Murphy on Friday. A large crowd attended. Miss Minnie White spent Thursday and Friday with her friend, Miss M. Legree. Mrs. James Early and family are visiting in Calabogie at present.

STILL RAINING

Is the phrase that was heard many, many times during the past three days.

To the lady not having a Raincoat this proved very unwelcome news, as it meant a lot of discomfort in the way of wet skirts, soiled waists, and in many cases ruined headgear.

Why not prepare at once for the next rainstorm by procuring a new U-to-Date Raincoat such as we show. All our fall styles have arrived and they are certainly beauties. No old fashioned garments here, everything the very latest.
