There Is Dissatisfaction Things are not working as well as might be hoped for in the city baseball league. There is a noticeable up dercurrent of discontent and several of the old enthusiasts are dropping out dissatisfied, with the turn events have taken of late. However, the teams pennant will likely finish out the race. At any rate the whole trouble is to be regretted as the material was right on hand for several good nines and the interest in the sport was rapidly being fostered. In good hands the league will be a winner next season.
