THE CHURCH SUPPER.

"Ding-dong!" said the big church bell, "A supper to-night and things to sell; Ding-dong! I do declare, Here I'm rung in on a vestry fair. I've a mind to stick and refuse to ring, For I wasn't donated for such a thing. But my, oh, my! How sweet that smells! I wish that coffee were good for bells!" For at every pull the sexton gave The bell swung out above the nave, And at every swing he got the scent, And on he swung there, all content, Said down below good pastor Pipp, Fingers tapping, tip to tip, "I have been asked by all who're here To say unto the sister dear, Who brought the coffee here to-night, That we consider it her right To thus be thanked in public wise— She finds great favor in our eyes. May all her deeds smell sweet as this By which she brings her neighbors bliss." Thought blushing Mrs. Jones, "I knew What CHASE & SANBORN'S brand would do." Good deeds, you know, are only lent, And so she smiled in deep content.

A First Class Factory. Plevna, Aug. 7.—J. H. Ehlh, inspector of cheese factories, made this place a visit on August 2nd. He congratulated H. Stewart, the cheesemaker, on the clean appearance of the interior of the factory. He had made a number of visits this season and found the Plevna factory to be the neatest and cleanest he had seen this year. The average make of cheese is thirty-five boxes a week. The result of the inspection of milk is as follows:

Bears Are Fierce Game. Grizzlies are the best game in the world. When you once get their dinner, they are savage fighters, and the hunter's life is in danger every minute unless he is a good shot and has a steady nerve. If you ever get your hands on a grizzly, you are a dead one. These stories of men killing them with knives in hand-to-hand fights are about as reasonable as it would be to talk of stopping a locomotive by getting in the way of the train. If the big fellow gets the chance to deliver one below, it is all over.

Dates Of Fall Fairs. Toronto—Aug. 24 to Sept. 11. Ottawa—Sept. 8 to 16. Woodville—Sept. 15. Victoria Road—Sept. 19, 20. Newmarket—Sept. 19, 20, 21. Lindsay—Sept. 21, 22, 23. Who's To Be Boss? Philadelphia Press. "Mr. Neesly and Miss Strong are actually to be married, eh?" "Yes, unless he gets scared and backs out. It makes him nervous every time she mentions the 'good old sea' she's going to year. She pronounces it so much like 'trousers'."

Deafness Cannot Be Cured by local applications, as they cannot reach the diseased portion of the ear. There is only one way to cure deafness, and that is by constitutional remedies. Deafness is caused by an inflammation of the mucous lining of the Eustachian Tube. When this tube is inflamed you have a rumbling sound or impaired hearing. Deafness is the result, and unless the inflammation can be taken out and this tube restored to its normal condition, hearing will be destroyed forever. Poetical Selections

The Green Apple. Cleveland Plain Dealer. "Why do you take the city census in summer?" "We wait for the green apple season." "Why?" "Because much of our population in the suburbs will then be doubled up."

The Greatest Of These. Helen M. Gooches in Brooklyn Eagle. There is mirth and death. There is dress and mourning. There is much to madden given. But a heart to dare Through joy and care, Is a treasure born of heaven.

You've Heard This Before. The moment that I felt the jerk, I knew the fish would make me work. I thought at first the line would break Or he would pull me in the lake. I've seen some bass that I would call Fair-sized, but this one beat them all. Two feet would be his length, I guess. He certainly was not much less. You'd better go and ask the guide. Well, then, if you're not satisfied please tell my gym arms were sore. You played him for an hour or more. And all the time the way he fought Beat any fish I ever caught. I was exhausted, just about. Before I tired the monster out. No, I can't say what he would scale, But all the same he was a whale. The reason why I cannot say Is that the beagar got away.

The Foolish Folk. Theodore Garrison in The Smart Set. Deeds are the man's nature. Throng solemn men and wise. With scales to weigh the things that he Lays low beneath their wisdom's yoke. They ponder as is meet; But we be the foolish kind Who know the world is sweet. Scholar and sage and fearful priest They trudge a dismal quest. And make our life of earth the least Or if the least be best. Weigh each the worth of prince or king Or if the least be best. But we be the foolish kind Who know the world is sweet.

Sure Cure's. Chicago News. I had to: toothache once to beat the world. It gave me fits all of a month or more It jumped and thumped until I couldn't lie. Another night—and every day I swore 'Tid him to the devil's, but joy sand was shy of that by just about a grain. And so I doped it with a lavish hand And notified my face to stop the pain.

The Automobile. Chicago Chronicle. Biblical students declare that the voice of prophecy is plainly heard in the book of Nahum, which might have been written some 2,700 years ago: "The chariots shall rage in the streets, they shall jostle one against another in the broad ways; they shall see like torches when they shall run like lightnings." Anyone who will take a stroll along the Lake Shore drive or Grand boulevard on a fine afternoon will see what Nahum had in mind.

He Did It. "Who gave the bride away?" "Her little brother. He stood up right in the middle of the ceremony and yelled: 'Hurrah, Fanny, you've got him at last!'"
