In the last six months have had very exciting times in the Dominion of Canada, especially in the parliament buildings in the city of Ot tawa. Before touching on that I will efer to the years 1895 and 1896 hen the conservative party held power in Ottawa. The liberals in Manitoba had abolished separate schools, but the Roman Catholic church had appli ed to the Dominion government, led by Sir Charles Tupper, and the Hon Mackenzie Bowell, for a remedial bill, allowing separate schools in Manitoba of the people in that province, The premier of the conservative par v at Ottawa, Sir Charles Tupper and several of the leading men of that party, were in favor of granting separate schools, but there was a party in conservative party led by the late Hon. Clarke Wallace which was not. The Tupper government went to the country on the issue and was feared. What defeated them? The lib eral party led by Sir Wilfrid Laurier, with the assistance of the almost solid Orange vote throughout the Do minion. Sir Wilfrid had the Roman Catholic clergy against him at that time in the province of Quebec, but to counteract that influence, his lieutenants went through the different counties whispering in the ears of the habitants, "Sir Wilfrid is a Frenchman; you are a Frenchman; Sir Wilfrid is your brother. Don't you want your brother to be premier?" That knocked the church in a great many cases. In the other provinces down by the sea, and in the west, the cry was raised by Sir Wilfrid Laurier and his Twelve o'clock noon. By order of the lieutenants, "Hands off Manitoba proreserve bid, that large lot of land, 91 | vincial rights.
