DAILY MEMORANDA.

This is St. Bartholomew's day. Vaudeville, Lake Ontario Park, 8.30 p.m. The sur rises Friday at 5.15 a.m., and sets at 6.49 p.m. Hunters after notoriety often begin by shooting off their mouths. You can't put your best foot forward until you learn to toe the mark. The success in literature requires much ability and many postage stamps. Slumming isn't as fashionable as it used to be. In fact, it has taken quite a slump. The inexperienced housewife's cook book seems to furnish her with food for thought. Excursion to Brockville and Oshawa, also to motor boat races, 8 a.m., to-morrow. This day in history—Washington burned by British, 1814; Foo Chow bombarded by France, 1884; Massacre of St. Bartholomew, 1572.

M. A. College, May 24th, 1905. During the last year Prof. Francis Von Ruhl has been teaching voice culture at the M.A. College. In the early part of the winter he gave a Recital in the College Chapel. At this, the naturalness and ease of his voice production commended itself to me, and the smoothness of especially the French and Italian songs were very pleasing. The professor has supplemented marked natural ability with serious and conscientious study, with serious and conscientious study, and the result in his technique is accurate and masterful, while his interpretation is poetic, broad and sympathetic. As a teacher, Mr. Von Ruhl is very liberal in his pupils, who give him great praise and consider they have made excellent progress under his instruction. Very respectfully signed, LOUISE FREYHOFFER, Head of the Piano Dept., M.A.C.

THE BUILDING BURNED.

Quite a Heavy Loss at Point Edward. Special to the Whig. Sarnia, Ont., Aug. 24.—The plant of the Canada Machinery company, at Point Edward, was discovered on fire at 4 a.m. There are no waterworks there. The building was totally destroyed, with contents, loss $150,000, with insurance of about $75,000. The office and storeroom was saved being in a separate building. This company was formed two years ago and took over the business of J. L. Bord, a Chicago manufacturer, who had failed while manufacturing can-making machinery, dies and presses, in competition with the United States Can company, for the foreign trade. The plant may not be rebuilt.

HOPE WANES

Russian Attitude Is Uncompromising. PAYMENT OF MONEY UNDER ANY GUISE, THEY CONSIDER INDEMNITY.

Conference Adjourns, Till Saturday.—Japan's Proposal Shows Old Points of Difference in New Dress—Russia May Have to Pay Over $500,000,000.

Special to the Whig. Portsmouth, Aug. 24.—The hope of peace which had held out in the knowledge that the Japanese envoys would make concessions, has waned perceptibly, for the Russians have assumed an uncompromising attitude, have in fact virtually refused to accept the proposals of their adversaries. The Russians went to the conference room, yesterday, prepared to agree to a final adjournment if the Japanese did not bring forward a reasonable plan for a solution of the deadlock, at which the conference has arrived. It was no surprise to them, therefore, when Baron Komura and Mr. Takahira proposed a settlement that was in the nature of a modification of the Japanese terms. They were not impressed, however, with a sense of the magnitude of Japan's offer, and were frank in expressing their belief that the offer would not be acceptable to St. Petersburg. After some discussion the envoys agreed to take a recess until next Saturday, in order to give both sides the opportunity of thinking things over, and of communicating with their respective governments.

In effect, according to the Russians, the compromise proposal of Japan is a combination of old points of difference in a new dress. Briefly, Japan proposes that Russia buy back the island of Saghalien, with the understanding that a certain amount of the value of the Eastern Chinese railway, built by the Russian government, or the sum obtained through the sale of the railway, should be deducted from the total of the money which the Japanese government is prosecuting the existing war against Russia.

In the course of the discussion that followed the presentation of Japan's plan to break the deadlock, it was mentioned in excess of $500,000,000 was mentioned as the probable amount Russia would be required to pay. But the proposal of Russia should pay such a vast sum to her victorious enemy is not the reason for the opposition shown by the czar's envoys to the scheme of adjustment. They take the ground that under whatever guise the payment of money to Japan is sought, it is nevertheless, an indemnity, and an indemnity Russia will not pay, if the present position of the government is honestly held and adhered to.

Count Lamsdorff's View. London, Aug. 24.—The Times correspondent at St. Petersburg quotes the monarchicist Count Lamsdorff, the foreign secretary, as saying that Russia has already made such enormous concessions that it would be folly to grant more. Outside of diplomatic circles, the despatch, however, is believed that peace will come, a few weeks later, when the financial pressure which they claim is being exercised upon Japan by American and British creditors, military circles are even more warlike than ever.

ARCHBISHOP CHAPPELLE

Who Died in New Orleans of Yellow Fever.

Special to the Whig. New Orleans, Aug. 24.—The Most Rev. Placide Louis Chapelle, Roman Catholic Archbishop of New Orleans, refused to leave his post of duty when the yellow fever epidemic broke out and died from the treacherous disease after a short illness. He was born in Mende, France, August 28th, 1842, and entered the priesthood in 1865 at Baltimore, Md. He was consecrated bishop co-adjutor of Santa Fe, N.M., in 1891, and was made archbishop of New Orleans in November, 1897.

Cross of Legion of Honor Conferred. Paris, Aug. 24.—An interesting ceremony has just taken place at St. Jean de Loone, M. Etienne, the minister of the interior, visited the hospital of this town, and conferred the Cross of the Legion of Honor on the sister superior, who is ninety-seven years of age.

For sixty-five years she has looked after the patients in the same hospital, training to the city in search of epidemics, including smallpox and cholera. In 1870 two hostages taken by the Prussians were condemned to be shot. Without hesitating a moment, the sister walked through the lines of roads covered with snow, and presented herself before Prince Charles. She implored the prince to pardon the men, and her prayer was granted. M. Etienne congratulated the sister superior, who replied that she did not merit any reward, as she simply had done her duty and nothing more.

MARRIED THEM IN WINDOW.

The Minister is Now to Be Courted by Church. Special to the Whig. Montreal, Aug. 24.—Charges of infraction of the rules of the Methodist church have been made against Rev. John Armstrong, a superannuated minister of that church, residing in Rockland, this city, arising out of the celebration of the marriage ceremony in a shop window some months ago, in which that gentleman participated. The matter aroused much adverse criticism at the time and the thing was severely denounced by both Roman Catholic and Protestant clergy, as well as by the press. No action was taken by the Methodist church on account of the absence of the chairman of the district, Rev. Melvin Taylor, but steps have now been taken and as soon as that church official returns, the matter will be presented to a conference.

Montreal, Aug. 24.—As the Donaldson line steamer, Lakonia, was leaving port, this morning, for Glasgow, a steam pipe in the engine room exploded, killing St. Jackson, assistant fireman, and Alexander Smith, third engineer. Andrew Miller, fifth engineer, was badly scalded but may recover. The steamer returned to dock and will remain until an inquest is held.

Governor's Memorial Arch.

Special to the Whig. Government, N.Y., Aug. 24.—On the afternoon of the 23rd, the erection of this town began here, this morning. The streets were filled with visitors from the neighboring districts and the flags on nearly every building commemorated the centennial of Governor's Memorial Arch. The principal event of the celebration which will close on August 30th, will be the dedication of the marble memorial arch erected by the citizens to commemorate the centennial of Governor and to honor the memory of its pioneers and soldiers. The arch stands at the Main street park, with a total span and thirteen feet in height. The front of the top of the arch bears the inscription "Let Us Forget," while the keystone of the arch bears the inscription "Governor's Memorial, 1805."

Regimental Reunions.

Special to the Whig. The survivors of the 11th Regiment, N.Y.V., are celebrating their annual reunion, today, at Summit Park. They marched out this morning and after luncheon at a business meeting, followed by a camp fire with speeches, singing of old campaign songs and refreshments. Canajoharie, N.Y., Aug. 24.—The annual reunion of the 11th Regiment, N.Y.V., better known as the "Ironhearted Regiment," opened here, today, with a large attendance. This afternoon there will be pleasure trips and various entertainments for the veterans and this evening a camp fire at the Farrell Post rooms. AWFUL CRIME

Facing Starvation She Drowned Daughters. A MOTHER'S DEED

HUSBAND OUT OF WORK, SEEKS RELIEF IN MURDER. After Crime Mother Rushes Into Street and Proclaims Deed to Policeman, Who Arrests Her—Thrusts Them in Tub Filled With Water.

London, Aug. 24.—Driven to desperation because she had no food in the house to feed her large family, Mrs. Louisa Collison, aged forty-three, of 13 Courtney place, James street, Waltham stow, yesterday, drowned her two youngest children in a bath tub. This is said to be through no fault of her own, but through the misfortune of the father, Henry Collison, a fancy box maker, lost his situation in a box factory in Old Street, City road. He was the sole bread winner for the family, but simply because business is slack, his eldest son, aged seventeen, is also out of work, and the fifteen-year-old daughter, Maggie, was thus the sole bread winner for the family of eight. Her wages, however, did not meet expenses, and things went from bad to worse. The rent got behind and first this thing and then that were pawned to get along.

The breakfast menu yesterday consisted of a small bit of bread and a little butter. There was no tea, no meat of any kind in the house, and the sister superior, who is ninety-seven years of age, had nothing to cook. Something had to be done. Almost before daylight the father got up and took one of the first workmen to the city in search of work. Maggie, the bread winner, followed on another train shortly after five o'clock to the box factory in City road, where she is still employed. The eldest boy also left searching for any work that he could find. About 7.15 it is believed the mother took the children, Katie, aged seven, and Elsie, aged eight, while they were asleep, and no coal for a fire in the kitchen, which consisted of one-half of a paraffin barrel, dozed them. She then ran into the street, and shouting to the policeman, said: "I have just drowned two of my children." The policeman went to the house, and sent for Dr. Jeremy, of High street, who worked for over an hour trying to restore animation to the children, but without avail. The children were head downward in the water, with their legs hanging over the sides of the tub. They were in their night clothes only. In spite of the excitement outside the house, where a big crowd had gathered, two other children of the family, Frank and Ellen, aged ten and twelve, respectively, slept peacefully, oblivious of the tragedy.

ROBBER KILLS WOMAN

Makes His Escape After Firing Fatal Bullet. Chicago, Aug. 24.—Mrs. S. F. Mize, of New York City, was murdered last night by a robber while taking an evening walk in one of the fashionable residence districts of the south side. With Mrs. E. F. Wilson, of Las Cruces, N.M., she had reached the corner of Fifty-ninth street and Washington avenue, when they were confronted by a man who demanded their money and valuables. All along Fifty-ninth street and on Washington avenue people were sitting upon verandas, and Mrs. Mize, evidently expecting help, vigorously attacked the robber, at the same time calling loudly for help. Mrs. Wilson turned and ran back toward their hotel. Mrs. Mize was able to utter only two cries for aid when the robber shot her through the heart, killing her instantly. The murderer fled into an alley and disappeared in the darkness.

SEVERED AN ORDER

To Show Cause Why They Should Not Be Enjoined. Special to the Whig. Port Huron, Mich., Aug. 24.—An order from the United States court requiring the Grand Trunk machinist strikers, at this point, to show cause why they should not be enjoined from picketing and interfering with the locomotive operations and its employees has been served. For some days past the strikers have shown a greater degree of energy than heretofore, and have induced a number of the men to quit their places. They have also made life miserable for the workmen. Notices were served on the strikers and the more active participants.

Forty-Five Foot Dive.

Huntington, Pa., Aug. 24.—George Ballantyne, of Huntington, risked his life to win a bet of $5,000. Wagon Blainsburg, made the wager that Ballantyne was afraid to dive from the top of the railroad bridge here into the waters of the Juniata. Ballantyne promptly accepted the bet and within ten minutes had successfully performed the feat. The distance from the bridge to the water is forty-five feet. Ballantyne is ready to jump from the other side of the bridge for another $5,000.

The attack on these foreigners occurred in the district southwest of Kilwa.

Mrs. Lyette Moore Dead.

Watertown, N.Y., Aug. 24.—The death of Mrs. Lyette Moore, widow of the late George Moore, at the residence of her daughter, Mrs. J. D. Cameron of No. 48 Leray street, is reported. She was sixty-five years of age. Mrs. Moore was born and had lived in Canada the greater part of her life coming to this city about two years ago. Thousands of persons witnessed the race.

Elopement At Rosemount.

Port Hope, Ont., Aug. 24.—An elopement last Wednesday at Rosemount, six miles north of here, in Hope township, by a hired farm hand with his employer's wife, is causing a father and four children the loss of a wife and mother in addition to $25 in cash and a horse and buggy. No trace of the missing parties or horse has been discovered, and the case has been placed in the hands of the police.
