WOMAN!

THE ALL-IMPORTANT PACT That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a womana woman whose experience with women's diseases covers a great many years. You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a manbesides a man does not under-cause he is a man Many women bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their famil physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation. Women suffering from any form of opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken. Out of the vast volume of at Portsmouth, which will always bear experience which she has to draw from, help your case. She asks nothing in advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.

If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn. Mass., for special advice. in restoring to health so many women, you cannot well say, without trying it, I do not believe it will help me.

HIS GOLD CHAIN GONE.

Mayor of Montreal Laments Loss of His Insignia.

Montreal, Aug. 29.—The costly gold chain of office worn by the mayor of Montreal is missing, and detectives are on the hunt for it. The chain, which s always worn by the mayor at civic functions, was kept in his worship's apartments at the city hall. When arrangements were being made for the reception of Prince Louis of Battenberg his worship proceeded to hunt up the insignia, but it had disappeared It is supposed to have been carried of by thieves.
