Ottawa, Aug. 30.—A fog, rising off Ottawa and Rideau rivers, and a cloud-bedecked sky, completely foiled the ambition of Ottawans, this morning, who got up, at cock crow, to see the eclipse of the sun. Not for two seconds was there sunshine until after the event was over. At the new observatory, Experimental farm, Canada's new telescope was turned on, but it was of no avail; the sun mo destly remained veiled behind murky

Militia orders, to-day, state officers of the permanent force are reminded that although, as a general rule, pro-motion up to the rank of major will be made by seniority, promotion to the rank of regiment lieutenantplonel will be made by selection from the regimental majors, wha have duty qualification for commanding.
