DAILY BRITISH WHIG, published every evening at 200-210 King Street, Kingston, Ontario, at $6 per year.

THE DAILY WHIG

"Opifer per Orbem Dicar."

Leaving The Public Service.

A government official—the registrar of deeds in the county of Brant, which position called for a large annual stipend—has astonished the people by resigning from his post.

W. B. Wood accepted the appointment when he was not in rugged health. Providence has been good to him, however.

"To me," he writes to the provincial secretary, "the strenuous life bears on its bosom no dread, and now that I have regained my health, I prefer the rough and tumble of the busy commercial world."

The case will attract wide attention because it is peculiar. So many men have a wrong conception of the public service. They regard it as a sinecure, as a resort for those who are unfortunate in other walks of life.

Simply Held In Check. The fact that Lieutenant-Governor Forget did not call upon Mr. Haultain but Mr. Scott for the provincial government in Saskatchewan is commented upon most seriously by the conservative papers.

Mr. Haultain is, however, not deserving of our compassion. Nor is he seeking it. He is a conservative who, during the period of territorial government, posed as an independent, or at least as one who was mild in his political temper and alliances.

There is no evidence that the new provinces desire religious strife in the conduct of their public affairs. There is no evidence that the people as a whole are willing that the bitterness that was exhibited in Ontario on the school question should be transported to the west.

Talk On Civic Debt. The American press is giving much study to the question of taxation. It finds that the tendency is upward, ever upward, and that this is the result of an ambition on the part of the average official or legislator to do all that he can while in power.

Of course it is difficult to make an analysis when the assessment conditions vary so much. The tax rate, too, is not clearly indicative of the burden it imposes.

The employing printers of America, in convention assembled, has decided to refuse the eight-hour day. It is to be a fight to a finish, and the Russo-Japanese war will be nothing to it for tenacity and adherence to purpose.

The lottery gang in Niagara Falls paid sweetly for their misbehaviour. One put up a fine of $1,000, one of $500, and two of $100 each.

Do You Think So? Toronto Star. The stock strike talk may be only for the purpose of getting the public to buy early while the price is high.

Time For A Change. Montreal Herald. John D. Rockefeller is tired seeing his name in print. So are we. We'd rather see it in writing and on a cheque.

News Travels Slow. Ottawa Journal. It will be a good while before the ninety-nine million Russians who can not read or write will know exactly what the war ended in.

All Getting Back. Montreal Star. All of the people who rushed to Cobalt to get $36,000,000 worth of silver are not walking home. Some of them have been able to hook rides on the slow freights.

Make It Unanimous. Toronto Telegram. A pension for retired cabinet ministers is now a plank in the platform of both parties. A pension for retired farmers is a plank that will carry the country for any party.

Fabric Of A Dream. New York Press. When a man sits at a girl's feet under a tree and plays a banjo to her, she thinks that it is the way they would go on doing after they were married and had seven children.

Had Narrow Shave. Struck by a Falling Derrick—Knocked Senseless. Pictou, Sept. 8.—About noon on Friday an accident happened to Samuel Welsh, aged about thirty years, which nearly cost him his life.

ARE ON HIS TRAIL

POLICE PROMISE EARLY REST OF BIGAMIST.

Bluebeard Hoch and Henry VIII. Amateurs in Matrimony A-longside of the Swiss Dentist, if Detectives' Allegations Are True.

DR. GEORGE A. WITZHOFF. New York, Sept. 9.—Detectives who have been pursuing from one end of the country to the other clues they believed might lead them to the discovery of Dr. George A. Witzhoff, the bigamist, who is said to have married, robbed and deserted more than a hundred wives, have at last struck a trail of a woman in this city by whom they hope to trace their man to his hiding place.

Mrs. Bessie Jester, of Philadelphia, who was formerly Miss Bessie Oppenheimer, whose money he squandered in reckless fashion, and with whom he lived while studying dentistry at a college in that city.

Miss Dora Duff of this city, whom he married in 1900, after a three weeks' courtship under the name of Dr. George A. Weston, and whom he robbed on her wedding night of $900, her life savings, after presenting a pistol to her head, and then left penniless in a strange hotel.

Mrs. Anna Timmes, of Sayville, N.Y., whom he married in 1903, when she was a Miss Otto, and whom he deserted after he had secured, through her, $3,000 from her father to start a dental office in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. E. R. Muller, of New York, whom he married in 1904, and whom he deserted after he had secured, through her, $3,000 from her father to start a dental office in Bridgeport, Conn.

Mrs. Rosa Schwartz, who was Miss Middleton, when he met her several years ago and from whom he secured $350 one night while she lay on a sick bed by showing a revolver and demanding all the money she had.

Mrs. Herman Adler, whom Witzhoff married at St. Louis in 1902 under the name of Dr. Solomon Adler and whom he robbed of $1,500, and then deserted her, when he married a few years ago and then deserted after taking $300 belonging to her.

MORE NEW FALL AND WINTER MANTLES THEY are coming in gradually, and the most critical inspection can bring but one verdict the styles are faultlessly correct and the workmanship absolutely perfect.

Women who are familiar with the way we do things will not need to be reminded of the unsurpassed quality and the all-round attractiveness of the garments we sell; and this year our endeavor has been to even better the satisfaction of former years.

What is a Backache

It is Nature's Warning To Dismiss of Woman's Organism. Consequent Pain Stopped by Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

"It seems as though my back were breaking." Women utter the cry over and over again, but do not know how to stop it. Many have tried the usual remedies, but have not found relief.

They do not realize that the main spring of woman's health and vitality is indicated by such a condition of the woman's system, and that the aches and pains which attend it are but the result of a diseased condition of the woman's system.
