SOME OF THE TENDENCIES OF THIS AGE.

Discussed Sermon by Rev. Prof. Ross-No Danger Creeds or Church Suffering by Freedom of Opinion

"The Signs of the Times," was subject of an excellent discourse Rev. Prof. Ross, in Chalmers' church last evening. Christ's criticism of the Pharisees for not discerning the signs of the times was applicable to twentieth century, said the preacher for there are earnest and devout men who, to-day, because they are search ing after the truth, are maligned for not agreeing with the standards orthodoxy. The aspects of religion were simply becoming more perfectly understood by each generation. It is well to search out the tendencies of age and see how they effect the fare of Christ's Kingdom. MADE IN RECENT TORONTO DOG SHOW.

Some of the Awards of the Judges-What Kingston Exhibitors Secured From Their Excellent Entries.

The judging of the Canadian National exhibition dog show began on Monto God this could be said of Ontario day afternoon last. The entry, 1,310, was a record, and stands as a great tribute to the energy and sound judgment of John G. Kent, chairman Movements Of The People-What committee. His aggressive policy reform has borne splendid fruit. The Toronto dog show ranks second only to the great New York show in Madison Square Garden, In some ways it is regarded as even the most important show in America. One may safely say that it stands forth above all others as a breeders' show.

Miss Maggie Post, Main street, left There was a very large number vesterday afternoon to visit friends Toronto exhibitors, and the "one dog-man" and small breeder were the guest of Mrs. H. Lougher, Queen pressed at the absence of the distinguished English expert, Harding Cox. The large entries that had been made Parker, Westport, are spending a few in cocker spaniels and fox terriers showed how keenly his appointment Archibald Hendry, of the Shedder had been appreciated. His classes have company, has been appointed judge on been ably handled by the other judg es among whom they were divided. Parker Thomas, Belleville, handled with much care. Irish Water Spaniels had a good entry, in fact larger than could be seen at any other show in America. The main supporter of this quaint breed for many years has been T. A. Carson, Kingston, who has always owned the best and has led the way with his dogs at the most prom shows. He has a new star known as "Norah McShane," recently imported from the Emerald Isle, This bitch is a daughter of the famous champion "Poor Pat," She has head and topknot typical of her breed She was owned in Ireland by a clergyman, who is now in this country. In cocker spaniels there was the keenest competition, and all the lead ing kennels were well represented. As far as quality is concerned the reds and parti-colored are decidedly ahear of the blacks. The latter color has, i anything, rather deteriorated the last few vears, while the others have been making decided progress, There is still the need of a really high class black the want will be fortunate.
