A TRULY IDEAL WIFE

HER HUSBAND'S BEST HELPER

Vigorous Health Is the Great Source of the Power to Inspire and Encourage—All Women Should Seek It.

One of the most noted, successful and richest men of this century, in a recent article, has said, "Whatever I am and whatever success I have attained in this world I owe all to my wife. From the day I first knew her she has been an inspiration, and the greatest help-mate of my life."

Mrs. Bessie Ansley

To be such a successful wife, to remain the love and admiration of her husband, to inspire him to make the most of himself, should be a woman's constant study.

If a woman finds that her energies are flagging, that she gets easily tired, that she has backache, headaches, bearing-down pains, nervousness, whites, irregularities of the menses, she should start at once to build up her system by a tonic with specific powers, such as Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound.

Following we publish by request a letter from a young wife:

Dear Mr. Pinkham: "Ever since my child was born I have suffered, as I hope few women ever have, with inflammation, female weakness, bearing-down pains, backache and wretched headaches. It affected my stomach so I could not enjoy my meals and half my time was spent in bed."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound made me a well woman, and I feel so grateful that I am glad to write and tell you of my marvelous recovery. It brought me health, new life and vitality."—Mrs. Bessie Ansley, 611 South 10th Street, Tacoma, Wash.

What Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound did for Mrs. Ansley it will do for every sick and ailing woman. If you have symptoms you don't understand write to Mrs. Pinkham, at Lynn, Mass. Her advice is free and always helpful.

A LONG COURTSHIP.

Waited Until Lover Had Acquired $100,000.

Geneva, Sept. 18.—After a courtship of more than forty-five years, the marriage has just been celebrated at Constantine, a Swiss, named Herzfeld, aged sixty-six years, and Mlle. Steindl, who is sixty-five years old. The couple became engaged before they were twenty years of age, and soon after young Herzfeld left for America in search of fortune, telling his fiancée that he would not return without $100,000, and asked her to wait for him. During the forty-five years the lovers exchanged nearly 3,000 letters, and fifty photographs, and they recognized each other without difficulty on meeting again. The newly-married pair have left for Chicago, Ill., where Mr. Herzfeld has a large business.

TWO LOST LIVES

SINK EXHAUSTED BEFORE EYES OF SURVIVORS.

Woman One of the Victims—Cook Lost Sight of for Moment Is Sinking When Mate Goes to Rescue, and Both Go Down.

Sault Ste. Marie, Mich., Sept. 18.—The schooner V. H. Ketchum, bound from Duluth to Cleveland, burned Saturday night off Parisian Island, Lake Superior, and two members of the crew were drowned while attempting to leave the burning vessel in a life boat.

When it was seen that the fire was beyond control the nine members of the crew, including Mrs. D. Amos, cooked, launched the life boat and prepared to row to the steamer Nottingham, which had taken the Ketchum in tow.

In attempting to lower the woman into the life boat the craft was capsized and the nine persons were thrown into the water. In the struggle to save themselves the eight men forgot the presence of the woman, and she was carried some distance away.

Mate Andrew Anderson went to her rescue as she was sinking for the third time. Seizing her clothing, Anderson attempted to return to the ship, but the high waves carried him away.

Tired out by his exertions and borne down by the weight of the helpless woman, he was unable to make any headway, and the two sank before the crew could offer any assistance.

The Ketchum was owned by the Seither Transportation company, Cleveland, and was valued at $12,000.

$1,000,000 FOR KING.

Crown Inherits Fortunes Through Death of Recluse.

London, Sept. 18.—Kind Edward has just inherited a large fortune from a reclusive man, who lived the last thirty years of his life as a recluse at Folkestone. Capt. Wilson formerly held a commission in the Guards. He visited Queen Victoria at Buckingham Palace, and he must at one time have enjoyed the late queen's friendship, for a painting of a dog presented to him by Victoria. Wilson's life until his father's death was that of a wealthy man's son. When his father, Sir John Wilson, Bart., once commander of the British forces in Ceylon, died, he learned for the first time that he was illegitimate. Thereupon he resigned his captaincy in the Guards, said goodbye forever to society, and went to live the life of a recluse on an estate at Brentford. Friends removed him thence and lodged him in an asylum on the ground of insanity. Subsequently he was released and dispensed large sums in charity through a female servant until he died. His own fortune, which now goes to the king, amounts to over $750,000. In addition to this, the king will receive $130,000 left to Wilson by his father, who died in 1856.

Throws Pepper in Eyes.

Chicago, Sept. 18.—Following ten years of quarrels and lawsuits, Mrs. Augusta Dahlberg is declared to have thrown a handful of red pepper into the face of William Grace, the contractor, Friday afternoon. According to the story, the woman was awaiting Mr. Grace near his office, 1498 Wabash avenue, and as he emerged from the building she tossed the blinding powder at his eyes. It is said Mr. Grace will not lose his sight. He is said to be suffering great pain at his home, 107 Pine Grove avenue.

Small Boy's Wanderings.

Ottawa, Sept. 18.—George Prud'homme, aged four and one-half years, strayed from his home on Thursday. He has been located in Montreal, in the Cheminville street police station. The Montreal police found him on the streets. He is too young to tell anything about it. He evidently strayed down to the central station and got on board a train.

MOST WONDERFUL VOICE

Is That Possessed by Madame Schumann-Heink.

Mme. Schumann-Heink, who was born Ernestine Bossler, is a native of Lisbon, a village near the city of Prague, in Australia. Her father was the commandant of the Austrian military post at Lisbon. As a child she manifested considerable signs of liveliness of temperament, and gave her parents not a little trouble with her desire to play tricks. This vivacity still remains, and is one of the reasons why she has become the undisputed "queen" of the German prima donnas. At her eleventh year she was placed in charge of some nuns in a Prague convent, and they partially succeeded in taming her. To these nuns is due the discovery of her vocal powers. Her first appearance on the professional stage was in Dresden, Germany.

The earnings of the Wolfe Islander for the last month was $1,200. Her manager has books containing twenty tickets for sale at two dollars. Many are taking advantage of the cheap rate offered. James O'Brien has been appointed collector of taxes for this year.

The dredge which has been working in our harbor for the last five or six weeks, laid to-day, for Belleville.

The citizens of Cape Vincent are certainly entitled to praise for the energy they displayed in conducting their fair, which was held last week. The weather for the past couple of years has been unfavorable, with the result of a shortage in the receipts of over $2,000. This year the directors of the association decided to meet the indebtedness by private subscription, which was cheerfully met, and left the fair of 1905 to open free of debt. Last Thursday was a banner day with them their gate receipts being larger than any one day in the history of their fair. Friday and Saturday, the threatening aspect of the weather prevented many from attending who would have otherwise done so. They took over two thousand entries. Patrick O'Neill, Cape Vincent, exhibited a three-year-old Durham bull, that was admired by all stock fanciers. He weighed 2,100 pounds, and was purchased from the Murphy brothers, Wolfe Island, when three months old. George Pyke was a large exhibitor to the fair, and carried off many red tickets.

The island fair will be held on September 27th and 28th. The directors are springing new ideas to make it a success. Along with the regular prize list many specials will be offered on different articles. Death has been reaping a good harvest in our midst lately. It is our sad duty to record the death of Frank Cavely, which took place on Friday evening, after an illness of one week from inflammation of the bowels. His funeral took place on Sunday, at St. Andrew's church. Deceased carried $1,000 on his life. Chapman Yrkes, the local dentist, formerly Miss Forbes, to mourn his demise, Miss Althea McLeod is ill with typhoid fever.

Notwithstanding her great fame, Mme. Schumann-Heink has never lost the natural freshness of her youthful character. There is not a particle of false pride in her. She believes in artistic ideals, but in her every day life she is a genuine womanly woman. She is the most congenial colleague on the operatic stage to-day, and is always studying ways and means to aid her fellow players and help them advance in their profession.

Island Exhibitors Successful at Cape Vincent Fair—Several Deaths on the Island—Ill With Typhoid Fever.

Wolfe Island, Sept. 11.—Sympathy, on all sides, is expressed for Mr. and Mrs. Pyke, in the loss they sustained in the death of their little daughter, Ola. The circumstances in connection with her death were very sad. Her remains were interred on Saturday.

One of our oldest and most respected citizens was interred last week in the person of Mrs. Thomas McReedy. Deceased was in her eighty-ninth year, and until a short time ago, had always enjoyed good health. She leaves a highly respected family to mourn her loss.

The earnings of the Wolfe Islander for the last month was $1,200. Her manager has books containing twenty tickets for sale at two dollars. Many are taking advantage of the cheap rate offered. James O'Brien has been appointed collector of taxes for this year.

For the Little Ones

To Keep Their Digestion Perfect Nothing is so Safe and Pleasant as Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets

Thousands of men and women have found Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets the safest and most reliable preparation for any form of indigestion or stomach trouble.

Thousands of people who are not sick, but are well and wish to keep well, take Stuart's Tablets after every meal to insure perfect digestion and avoid trouble.

But it is not generally known that the Tablets are just as good and wholesome for little folks as for their elders.

Little children who are pale, thin and have no appetite, or do not grow or thrive, should take the Tablets after eating and will derive great benefit from them.

Mrs. G. A. Croxley, 28 Washington St., Hoboken, New Jersey, writes: "Stuart's Dyspepsia Tablets just fill the bill for children as well as for older folks. I've had the best of luck with them. My three-year-old girl takes them as readily as candy. I have only to say 'Tablets' and she drops everything else and runs for them."

A Buffalo mother, a short time ago, who despaired of the life of her babe, was so delighted with the results from giving the child these Tablets that she went before the notary public of Erie Co., N. Y., and made the following affidavit:

"I, Mrs. W. T. Dethlefs, subscribed and sworn to before me this 13th day of April, 1907.
