AT NAPANEE FAIR THE EXHIBITS WERE OF VERY HIGH CLASS.

The Weather Very Fine, the Attendance Large—A Big Pumpkin on Exhibition—Some of the Prizes. Napanee, Sept. 21.—Napanee has had two days of elegant weather for the county fair and, as usual, the fair has proved a success. The first day was occupied in getting exhibits into position; the palace was transformed into a bower of beauty. All available space was occupied, and exhibits were equal, if not better, than former years.

The Gibbard Furniture company occupied their old position at the entrance, and have an elegant display of high class furniture, which won admiration from every visitor to the fair. Madole & Wilson's display of stoves and hardware was also very fine. M. B. Mills had a display of stuffed birds and animals that was admired and praised by every visitor. A. E. Paul also had a display of Japanese china and fancy goods. Uptairs was also fully occupied. G. A. Graham & Son showed furs in their accustomed corner and the display would certainly do credit to anybody. Madill Bros. made a very neat and attractive display of furs and dress goods, and other articles, which certainly attracted a very great deal of attention and was much admired. The ladies' department was filled with beautiful work and as usual held the attention of the ladies. The baby show, Tuesday evening, was a great attraction. Some seven children, with their adoring mamma's, contested for the honors of the day. The following are the lucky little ones: Baby Boy, first, Mrs. McCorkay, Detroit; Mrs. Thomson, J. Draper, third, Mrs. Mellon. Baby girl, first, Mrs. J. Sager. The first day's races resulted: Free-for-all—1st, Nellie G. Dan Hayes, Harrowsmith; 2d, Montague; 3d, Dennis Lake; 3rd, Prince Boy, George Johnston.

The Second Day. The second day was even more favorable than the first. The crowd was larger in many places and the gate receipts all higher than the first day. The roots and fruit were a sight to behold; one instance might be mentioned, a pumpkin, weighing 137 pounds was on exhibition. It took two men to handle it. The following are some of the winners: Heavy draught, stallion and three of his get, Diploma, G. H. Williams; stallion, three years old, G. H. Williams; G. HE DROPPED DEAD

"HOLD ON BOYS, MY HEART PAINS TERRIBLY." Last Words of Wellington Man— Popular Post Office Employee Moves to Gananoque—Home from West—Welland M. P. Visits Home.

Wellington, Sept. 20.—Reuben Reynolds, while working in the Wellington Packing company factory, was heard to exclaim about four o'clock on Monday evening, "Hold on boys, I have a terrible pain about my heart," and instantly dropped dead. The funeral service was held in the Methodist church on Wednesday, conducted by Rev. Mr. McCall.

Mrs. Robert McCartney's remains were brought from London to Wellington on Tuesday, for interment, and were taken to Rose Hall, her former home, and funeral service held in the Methodist church, interment in Chadsey's burying ground. Mr. and Mrs. Garrett Morden, Rochester, accompanied by his mother, arrived here on Saturday.

Miss Georgia Boyce, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Boyce, who for years has held a position in the post office, has resigned for a more lucrative position in the Gananoque post-office, as accountant. Miss Boyce is one of our most amiable young ladies and is a general favorite with all who have had the pleasure of her acquaintance. Her many friends extend congratulations and trust that her future may be strewn with prosperity and happiness.

CAMPERS AT "BONNIE VIEW."

Realization Greater Than Expectation. The query, "is expectation greater than realization?" is satisfactorily answered now, in the negative, in the minds of several young people from Halton County, who are now occupying the cottage home of A. M. Tennant at "Bonnie View." When planning this little outing they expected much, but have realized even more.

To try to describe this island's situation is useless, as many already know it, and words could not convey an adequate idea of its beauty to those who do not, so we can only advise all to find out for themselves this prettiest of spots on the St. Lawrence. To visit it once and find the occupants gives one even an idea of the good times enjoyed. Mrs. Eva Kelly and Mrs. H. N. McDonald supervised affairs, and are accompanied by Misses Jennie and Ethel Laue, Florence Hallie, Helen Kelley, Mabel Greer, Letta McDonald, C. Tennant, B. N. McDonald, C. N. Malory and Dr. A. H. Judson. Many pleasure trips and excursions were enjoyed, among them, a delightful ride in a private launch, to Brockville, fair, coming home by moonlight.

They were also kindly entertained at "Indian Bay," the picturesque home of Mr. and Mrs. George Potter, which was greatly enjoyed by all. When "At Home" campers near are frequently pleased with the sounds of laughter and sweet music coming over the water, the popularity of the young people is fully attested in the number of friends who visit them, and declare the camp a good example of where "Harmony Reigns Supreme." Much regret is felt by all at leaving the camp, and already plans are being suggested for another and similar outing. To good old "Bonnie View" we dread to say "farewell," and yet it must be, but 'tis with the expectation of again assembling to enjoy a period of life as only those privileged to meet here can enjoy it.
