The wedding, on Wednesday last, in Trinity church, Utica, N.Y., was of very great interest to many Kingston people, for the contracting parties were Mr. Alfred Cole Birch, son of Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Birch, of this city, and Miss Anna Mabel McLoughlin, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. E. McLoughlin, of Utica. The marriage was solemnized by the Rev. Mr. Harding, rector of the church, and the bride was given away by her father. The wedding dress, a beautiful one, was of chiffon, embroidered in white, over which was a petticoat of white satin. The gown was elaborately trimmed with rose point lace, the bodice being formed almost entirely of lace. A veil of tulle fell across the forehead to the pretty old bridal custom over all, and covered the face of the bride. Her bouquet was of white roses and maidenhair fern. The bride's sister, Miss Cornelia McLoughlin, was maid of honor, and wore pink silk messaline, over chiffon and satin, a hat of pink chiffon, and carried pink roses. The bridesmaids were Miss Florence and Miss Ada Birch, sisters of the groom. Miss Marion Smith, of Lichfield Springs, N.Y., and Miss Gertrude Allen, of Utica, N.Y. They all wore white silk mull-frocks, white maline hats, trimmed with pink roses, and carried bouquets of the same. The groomsmen were Mr. Roy McLoughlin, and the ushers, Mr. S. Royden Birch, Mr. George Ames, of Binghamton, N.Y., Dr. F. W. Smith, and Mr. Clarence Putnam, of Utica. The church and the bride's home were filled with roses, chiefly American Beauties. The groom's mother, Mrs. Birch, wore a handsome gown of lavender silk, with a silk dot over a petticoat of silks, with elaborate trimmings of lace, and carried white roses. Mrs. McLoughlin, the bride's mother, was also in lavender, her material being crepe de chine, and her bouquet composed of purple orchids. Miss McLoughlin, the bride's aunt, wore grey crepe de chine, and carried white roses. About one hundred guests were present at the breakfast, and this portion of the day was very bright. Mr. and Mrs. Birch have gone to Albany, New York, Boston, and Gloucester, for their wedding trip, and on their return home will live at 178 Park avenue, Utica. Very good wishes, indeed, follow both from Kingston, for the bride has many personal friends here.

Miss Georgia Smith, was married at the residence of Mr. Thomas Webb, Hamilton, to the Rev. Neil M. Leckie, pastor of the Presbyterian church, at Londesborough. The ceremony was performed on Wednesday, by the Rev. W. W. McLaren, and only immediate relations were present. Mr. Leckie is very well known in Kingston, and supplied Dr. Mackie's place, at St. Andrew's, last summer.

The croquet tournament is still holding on its way, and has been the principal gaiety of an abnormally quiet week. Yesterday, the champions of the day previous, Mrs. Noel Kent, and Miss Blanche Deacon, gave way to Mrs. Ramsay Duff and Mrs. Campbell Strange. The weather seems to be taking a personal interest in the struggle, and is providing the most perfect of bright days for the encouragement of the gentle sport.

The engagement is announced of Miss Edith D. Carmichael, only daughter of Mr. W. D. Carmichael, Kingston, to Edward Harris Clarke, Montreal, only son of the late Mr. John Harris Clarke, C.E. The marriage will take place in December.

Mrs. Wilfrid G. Bailey will be at home to her friends at 112 Ordinance street, on the 1st and 3rd Tuesdays after 1st October.

GANANOQUE TIDINGS.
Complaint Against Police-Looking for Dark Corners.
Gananoque, Sept. 22.—The local policemen were hauled over the coals at the last regular session of the town council, a complaint of misbehavior being made against them. An investigation will be made by the police committee. The townspeople have confidence in Chief Ryan and his assistant. If the case is merely that of a sore head, it is hoped the facts obtained in the investigation will place the blame where it rightly belongs.

Mrs. Dr. H. A. Parker left yesterday to visit friends and relatives in Chicago. After three weeks' illness, the hum of industry is again heard in the manufacturing establishment of the town.

A gang of drunks made the night hideous for a while in some parts of the town last night. It is well for them they kept out of reach of the policemen, or there would likely have been "something doing."

It is rumored that Hymen is rampant, a number of our handsomest young ladies being about to take up to themselves mates for better or for worse. It seems too bad that the Yankees not only want our fish, but also want our young ladies. We must confess they are anglers.

Rev. D. S. House, grand chaplain, R. T. of Bloomfield, Ont., will be in Gananoque, October 5th, at the annual council rally of No. 284. Neither pains nor expense have been spared to make this occasion a notable one in the annals of Royal Templarism in Gananoque.

The mayor and council are on the streets to-night looking for dark corners, where new electric lights are needed. Part of this ambitious and stirring town is still in darkness, and it is hoped the mayor and council have not forgotten their specialties, so that they may see just what illumination will be for the best interests of the town.

The men are George Potts and Edward Riley. They quarrelled and exchanged blows with their fists. The men were separated but met later, and calmly agreed to fight a duel with knives. They agreed that the duel was to be to the death.

KNIFE CURE FAILS.
Operation on to Cure Waywardness, Led Flee.
Indianapolis, Sept. 23.—Edward Ross, of Lafayette, who underwent a surgical operation a month ago to correct a "runaway tendency," ran away last night to avoid another operation.

The boy's mother says he was a constant runaway. He was found at different times in many of the larger cities. Recently his mother read of an operation by Dr. Kelmer, of this city, to correct the criminal tendencies of a youth who robbed a woman in one of the churches here. She decided to have the boy operated on. A piece of the skull was removed to relieve a pressure on the brain. The boy was told it would be necessary to re-open the wound to see how the operation was making progress.

He became frightened, improvised a rope of bed clothing and escaped.
