MOTHER TEACHES SON.

Death Forces Confession and Reunites Young Man and Father.

Springfield, Ohio, Oct. 6.—The recent death of Mrs. Augustus Spylglass, of Miss Caroline M. Robinson, as she was commonly known at her home, 1315 Ridge avenue in Philadelphia, that she was the mother, and not the sister of Frank Edward Spylglass, has reunited the latter with his father, Augustus Spylglass, of this city, after a separation of thirty years.

Spylglass and Miss Caroline M. Robinson were married here August 11th, 1874. Fourteen months later she secured a divorce, and was awarded the custody of their infant son. Then she disappeared.

The child grew up to regard his own mother as his sister, until she summoned him to her bedside when she was dying. News of the whereabouts of the son first came to the police chief of this city, after a letter from R. E. O'Brien, then in a letter from the son asking him to locate his father. The reunion is the result.

WAR CORRESPONDENT.

The Only Lady Writer Recognized by Japan.

MRS. MARTIN EGAN.

New York, Oct. 6.—Mrs. Martin Egan, former Miss Eleanor Franklin, has the distinction of having been the only woman war correspondent recognized by Japan during the recent war.

She corresponded for the Associated Press. They fell in love with one another and were married before they started on their home journey.

BRIDE GETS A BIG CHECK.

Stenographer Weds An Alabama Millionaire.

Paterson, N.J., Oct. 5.—"The lucky girl in Paterson," say all Miss Helen Van Nimwegen's friends. The young woman was employed as stenographer in the office of Malloy, May & Burt, brokers in Wall street, New York. Today she became the bride of Augustus Meher, a multi-millionaire of Mobile, Ala.

Mr. Meher had been paying attention to the daughter of the senior member of the firm of brokers and had come to New York to arrange for their wedding. Appearing at the Wall street office the millionaire met the stenographer and his fate simultaneously.

At the wedding breakfast, the bridegroom presented the bride with a cheque for $100,000 and a magnificent assortment of diamonds.

WANTED THEM.

The Trial of Footballers in Ottawa.

Ottawa, Oct. 6.—"Tom" Boucher and "Hal" Walters, the members of St. Patrick's football team summoned to police court for assaulting Robert and McKinnon, of the Montreal team, in last Saturday's match, appeared this morning and through their counsel, Louis J. Kehoe, pleaded guilty to a charge of assault. Mr. Kehoe made a nice little speech telling of the glories of football, and the exciting nature of the game, and Magistrate O'Keefe let the defendants go on suspended sentence with a warning.

A BAD PRACTICE.

The Horse Killed and Driver Injured.

Dublin, Ont., Oct. 6.—Last night, about ten o'clock, a G.T.R. freight going east struck a horse and buggy at the crossing near the depot. The driver of the rig was David Walker, a young man, who had fallen asleep. The horse was killed and the buggy smashed to pieces. Walker was found in an adjacent field, inside the buggy top, with a broken leg. The horse and buggy belonged to Hunter's livery.

FIANCEE'S COSTLY WHIM.

Because of It Aged Iowa Banker Sacrifices Realty.

Charles City, Iowa, Oct. 6.—G. B. Eastman, one of the wealthiest men in Northern Iowa, has just disposed of all his real property, amounting to more than $500,000, in satisfaction of his fiancée, Miss Wood, of Minneapolis, whose acquaintance he gained through answering a newspaper advertisement. So hurriedly did he sell the property that he accepted the first offer made by some local capitalists who are said to have obtained it for three-fourths of its actual value.

Eastman has been a resident here for forty years, and was the first banker in Northern Iowa. He is a widower, 25 bananas 25c.; can of best peas 7c. Crawford.

FEELING AGAINST DE WITTE.

Developed at a Municipal Caucus.

St. Petersburg, Oct. 6.—A strong sentiment against Count Witte developed at a caucus of the St. Petersburg municipality yesterday evening called to discuss civic action in recognition of his services at Portsmouth. Suggestions that a banquet be given in his honor and that he be presented with the freedom of the city or an address were rejected and a resolution was adopted declaring that he is not worthy of any special honor, because his services at Portsmouth "were only a redeeming sacrifice for the political mistakes in which he has acquiesced, and which were responsible for the war."

BIG COMMISSIONS.

Fortunes for the Presidents' Relatives.

New York, Oct. 6.—That $2,600,000 has been paid as commissions by the Mutual Life Insurance company to two members of the family of Richard A. McCurdy, president of the company, and a promise of District Attorney Jerome K. Tobens, that a scandal would be submitted to an extraordinary grand jury were the sensational in the insurance investigation yesterday.

It was brought out by testimony before the legislative investigators that Robert H. McCurdy, son of Richard A. McCurdy, had received as commissions on foreign business, $1,163,828 and on domestic business, $541,852, and that Louis A. Tobens, son-in-law of Richard A. McCurdy, had received an aggregate of $920,113 in commissions from the company.

Robert H. McCurdy said he expected his income this year would be about $110,000.

DISCOVERED A GREAT TENOR.

Huckster in New York to Startle World.

New York, Oct. 6.—In the person of Isaac Routman, a humble street huckster of the east side, and who is a young compatriot of Jean De Reszka it is believed that a great tenor has been accidentally found, who will identify the dramatic world and who will rank with Messrs. Caruso and De Reszka.

"After a course of proper instruction," says Dr. H. G. Hartrock, Currier, who made the "find," "believe me, I will rank one day with our greatest tenors." "He is marvellously gifted," says Miss Fritzi Scheff, "and he will equal Caruso or De Reszka. He shall have a stage name, and a combination of Caruso and De Reszka, for he will equal them both," and as Raphael Caruso young Routman has passed into the care of musicians who will educate him for the operatic stage.

CANNOT REACH TOMB.

Fell Down Cliff and Body Cannot Be Drawn Up.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—A dispatch to the Record-Herald from Estes Park, Colorado, says: "Five hundred feet below the summit of Mount Ypsilon a tomb is being constructed around the body of Lewis G. Leving, an art student, from Canton, Ill., who was killed by falling from the mountain. The body lies at the edge of a lake, and it is impossible to recover it. Men can be lowered, because they are able to push themselves free of abutments, but inanimate objects cannot be brought up by rope. An inscription telling the young man's name and how he met his death will be placed on the tomb, but it is doubtful if anyone will ever see it."

THE HUNGARIAN DIET

To Open In Four Days—Oppose Extended Suffrage.

Buda Pest, Oct. 6.—The Hungarian diet opens four days hence, but the king's decision regarding the parliamentary crisis is still unknown, even if one has been reached. The recent excitement has yielded to a feeling of vague uneasiness, which Baron Fejervary's return from Vienna, yesterday, without a pronouncement, stimulates. Meanwhile, the condition remains, with voice and pen, are opposing to the utmost, any extension of suffrage, and they are encouraged in this by the unexpected support of Count Tisza, the liberal leader, whose journalistic attack on manhood suffrage, however, displeased his own followers.
