THE SPORT REVIEW

BITS OF NEWS ABOUT THE DIFFERENT ATHLETICS.

Hartubise Captain of the Peterboroughs—Brantford Lacrosse Team Off for Chicago—'Rube' Waddell in the Game Once More.

Either Lash or Montague will play quarter for Varsity. The Toronto Argonauts will have three teams on the field Saturday. Varsity is a little shy on weight, but there is lots of speed in the team, both on and back of the line. Dr. W. T. Hendry will referee and A. B. Wright umpire the Varsity-Toronto-Argonaut game on Saturday.

Two former Varsity captains, Rev. A. F. Barr, and Threlbourne, helped Captain Casey Baldwin coach the candidates at last night's practice. Wesley Coe, the amateur champion shot-putter, can box a bit, and he talks of becoming a professional pugilist and trying for the heavyweight championship.

Wood, who played cleverly at outside wing for the Toronto Argonauts, Saturday, twisted his ankle at practice, and will be on the hospital list for a few days. It is likely that the hockey teams of McGill, Toronto Varsity, Yale and Harvard, will participate in a championship tournament at Pittsburgh during Christmas week.

The prospects for the Peterboro team this year are of the brightest now that Crowley, Hartubise, Meagher, Dillon and the rest of the veterans have decided to play a game once more. If Captain Baldwin can develop a trio of good scrummers at Varsity the Toronto Collegians will make the other teams hustle. There is no lack of good material or of enthusiasm.—Toronto Globe.

The Brantford lacrosse team that goes to Chicago on Friday night to play on Saturday will be a mixture of seniors and juniors. It is likely that the majority of the junior defence will play against the Red City athletes. Dates for the intermediate series of the O. R. F. U., will likely be changed, Brookville playing in Kingston on October 14th, and Limestones on Thanksgiving day, in order not to clash with the Queen's Varsity game.

Flett, the Toronto Argonaut's star half-back, will be out of the game for some time to come. His ankle was badly twisted in practice yesterday afternoon, and he will not be in the line-up against the Victorias, Saturday.

Eugene Hartubise, the champion amateur heavyweight wrestler of Canada, will captain the Peterboro team, and should make a fine teacher. He is popular with the players, knows the game from alpha to omega, and is a worker.

George Edward, better known to baseball followers as 'Rube' Waddell, who has been out of the game on account of a sprain of the shoulder, then, three weeks, has come right, and will be in the box for the Athletics early this week.

A despatch from San Francisco says: Aurelio Herrera, through Sol Levinson, has posted $500 forfeit and articles for a fight with Eddie Hanlon before the Pacific Athletic Club at Los Angeles on November 3rd. The boys are to give 75 per cent. of the receipts, divided 75 and 25 per cent. London has been working hard for some weeks under a very capable American coach, and is confident of springing a surprise upon the champions.

THE TWO MYSTERIES.

A Poem on Death, By the Late Mary Mapes Dodge.

The death of Mrs. Mary Mapes Dodge, editor, writer of stories and poet, which occurred recently, gives touching appropriateness to this very human poem by her on death, which, by the way, has been widely attributed to Walt Whitman, says The New York Globe.

In the middle of the room, near the coffin, sat Walt Whitman, holding a beautiful little girl on his lap. She looked wonderingly at the spectacle of death and then inquiringly into the face of the aged poet. "You don't know what it is, do you, my dear?" said he, and added, "We don't either."

We know not what it is, dear, this sleep so deep and still; The folded hands, the awful calm, the cheek so pale and chill; The lids that meet no more in sleep, though we may call and call; The strange white solitude of peace that settles over all.

We know not what it means, dear, this desolate heart pain; This dread to take our daily way and wake again; We know not to what other sphere the loved who leave us go; Nor why we're left to wonder still nor why we do not know.

But this we know: Our loved and dead, if they should come this day— Should come and ask us, "What is life?" not one of us could say; Life is a mystery as deep as ever death can be.

Yet, oh, how dear it is to us, this life we live and see! Then might they say—these vanished ones— and blessed is the thought: "So death is sweet to us, beloved, though we may show you naught. We may not to the quick reveal the mystery of death. Ye cannot tell us, if ye would, the mystery of birth."

The child who enters life comes, not with knowledge and intent; So all who enter death must go as little children sent. Nothing is known, but, "nearing God, and life is to the living so death is to the dead."

SUPERSTITION IN INDIA. Beliefs of Native Hindus Which Fakers Turn to Profit. Some few years ago a man whom I know bought an estate near a town of some size, and immediately on his taking possession was surprised to find that he had also taken on a strange responsibility.

At the side of the road before his place was a gigantic peepal tree which the natives believe become the residences of departed spirits in great numbers. This is a Mohammedan as well as a Brahman superstition. The tree was in charge of a rascally old fakir, who was systematically torturing a fine revenue from the people of the community by various devices, principally ventriloquical conversations of the departed ones with their friends. He had a hut at the base of the tree. The protruding limbs almost blocked the roadway and were a great nuisance, and the nightly noises about the tree, but next to the great annoyance to the new owner of the property. He stood it as long as he could, and when one day another fakir, who was also a ventriloquist and had highly trained monkey, came by he promised him a handsome fee to rid him of the fakir of the tree. As long as the fakir was there to prophesy what dreadful things would befall him if he refused, the tree was cut or broken any attempt to clear the roadway would mean a native revolt.

A GOOD FOOTBALL STORY.

Riley, Ottawa, Played Heroic Game in Red Tights. Buffalo, Sept. 30.—Recently met that energetic, athletic and respected priest of the Roman Catholic faith, who came to Buffalo some four years ago an entire stranger to nearly every person in Buffalo, to-day one of the best known orators and churchmen in order that there was another clean city, in all this big Queen City of the Lakes, says a writer in the Buffalo Inquirer. There is hardly any necessity of saying further in words just what this gentleman is, but understanding at all, I will add that I refer to the Rev. Father M. F. Fallon, rector of Holy Angels' church in Porterville.

He was making the rounds of his parish and was about to call upon a young man who is quite ill. If there is one thing more than another that Father Fallon is interested in it is the upbuilding physically of the hundreds of youths in his parish. He organized the O.M.U. Cadets and one of the best football and baseball clubs in the city has for three years been under his watchful eye. Father Fallon has legs, when a student in Ottawa College, was one of the best gridiron players in America and all one has to do to-day to interest this healthy minded gentleman is to start a conversation in which football is the central object.

The best football player I ever knew in my life," said the priest to me yesterday. "was a young man named Riley, who played on the same team with me in my college days in Canada. Never yet was there a man who could do the work that Riley could when he got the ball. We could anyone who tried to cross his path at the same time. He was a phenomenon. I never yet played against Harvard's famous eleven. Riley in one of the mix-ups tore his padded trousers and was forced to retire to the dressing room to get another pair. Well, sir, when he reached the room he would find none of any kind. But Riley wanted to continue to play and we also would be lost without him. Finally he espied a pair of old bright red trunks which were in the room and he hastily donned them. I will never forget the sight of Riley when he again came out on the gridiron. Everyone had to laugh and Riley laughed louder than the rest and they began to play. Well, there never was another man like Riley. In fact, all you could hear from the captain of the Harvards and all the coaches was:—

"Look out for that fellow there with the red tights. But Riley was looking out, too, and he was everywhere. You could easily see how the game was going by watching the red streak break through. Well, the game is over. It has been played this many

SCIENCE PREVENTS BALDNESS.

The Fatal Germ and Its Remedy Now Facts of Science. It is the rarest thing in the world for a man to be necessarily bald. No man whose hair is not dead at the roots, need be bald if he will use Newburgh's Herpicide, the new scalp antiseptic. Herpicide destroys the germ that cuts the hair off at the root, and cleans the scales of dandruff and leaves it in a perfectly healthy condition. Mr. Munnell, in the Maryland Hotel, Butte, Mont., was entirely bald in less than a month Herpicide had removed the scales of hair growth, and nature did its work by covering his head with thick hair an inch long, and in six weeks he had a normal suit of hair. Sold by leading druggists. Send 10c. in stamps for sample to The Herpicide Co., Detroit, Mich. G. W. Mahood, special agent.

NEWBURGH NOTES.

To Have a Temperance Rally on Monday. Newburgh, Oct. 6.—Rev. Dr. Chown, Toronto, will preach in the Methodist church on Sunday evening, October 8th. On the Monday following a temperance convention will be held in the Methodist church; morning, afternoon, and evening sessions being held. Rev. Dr. Chown will be the principal speaker and will explain fully the workings of the local option. The public are cordially invited to come and hear the question discussed. Our citizens are beginning to wonder if anything is to be done toward the re-erecting of the electric lights in Newburgh. It seems too bad that the plant should be lying idle when the lights are so badly needed, especially on the street. Mr. Youmans, our new druggist, arrived on Monday. We understand that Yarker and Newburgh baseball teams will play here to-morrow. Miss Ella Chant spent Sunday in Tamworth. Dr. Beaman, Perth, spent a few days last week with his brother, Dr. M. J. Beaman. P. D. Moore is working in Odesa. There was no service in the Presbyterian church on Sunday evening. G. B. Thompson was in Nanapanee on Monday. James Boyce has been appointed caretaker of the academy. A game of football was played on the high school grounds last week between teams from the school and village; the school winning by a score of two goals to nil.

Bath Brevities.

Bath, Oct. 5.—Rev. Richard Duke, S. B. A., conducted the services at the Methodist church on Sunday night. Mr. Duke was pastor of the Methodist church here over twenty years ago, and was pleased to see his old friends here once more. Over thirty people took in the excursion to Rochester, N. Y., on Sunday last. Miss Ada Topflich, who has been visiting friends in Rochester, N. Y., returned home on Tuesday last. Born on Thursday, October 5th, to Dr. and Mrs. H. S. Northmore, a son, Mrs. Lloyd Hawley, who has been visiting at Rev. W. Sessmith's, has returned home. Miss M. G. Edwar's visited her parents in Nanapanee on Saturday. Miss Nash, who has been visiting her parents here, has returned to New York to the hospital, where she is studying to be a nurse.

PIITSBURG IN TERROR

Thugs Rule Supreme and Police Are Powerless. Pittsburg, Oct. 6.—Pittsburg is in terror because of robberies, burglaries, hold-ups and murders. The police seem to have lost all control, crimes of all kinds are being committed, and people hesitate about going on the streets at night. Superintendent of Police Alexander Wallace has issued a statement that he is unable to cope with the situation with his present small force. He estimates that it will require at least 400 additional men to correct conditions. The council are opposed, as it is claimed that there is not enough money to pay more men. The thugs are believed to be those driven out of Chicago.

"Chuck" Tyler's injuries received in last Saturday's game, are proving rather serious. The ligaments around his right knee are torn, and he will be out of the game for some little time.
