HE WAS REJECTED

HE WOUNDS HIS COUSIN-- ENDS HIS LIFE.

Young Man in Love With Girl Fails in Murder Plot, But Succeeds in Killing Himself.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—Particulars of a tragic love affair come from Bucharest. Mme. Sarosch, manageress of a school at Sretley-Voda, sister of M. Dimitresco, the rector of the Roumanian university, has two daughters, Elise and Eugenie. From time to time her nephew, Amibal Prienza, visited the house and fell in love with the youngest and prettiest of his cousins.

Although Eugenie rejected the young man's advances, he was not discouraged, and continued his assiduousities. The girl was afraid to tell her mother and her sister of her cousin's passion, as she did not want him to be denied the house.

He came to the house as usual one afternoon. Mme. Sarosch and her eldest daughter left the drawing room, and the two young people remained alone. A few moments later several shots were heard. Amibal had fired twice at his cousin, one of the bullets lodging in her throat.

Afterward he sent two bullets into his right temple. When Mme. Sarosch and the servants rushed into the drawing-room Amibal was found in a dying condition. He expired while being conveyed to the hospital. After being hit, the girl ran into another room. Though her wound is grave, it is expected that she will recover.

A Profitable Apple Deal.

A short time since W. Eddy, near Colborne, sold his apple crop in bulk to James Coyle for $1,950. The Colborne Enterprise now reports that Mr. Coyle has resold the crop to J. E. McDonald for $4,000, thus making a profit of $2,050 without touching the fruit. And this after he had sold 190 barrels from the orchard. The second buyer, who paid the $4,000, has since had an offer of $500 for his bargain. Thus the farmer sold for at least $2,900 below value. The apples are nearly all Spies and Golden Russet, and have developed greatly in size under the favorable weather lately prevailing. There are twenty acres in the orchard.

Profits Of "David Harum."

Syracuse, N.Y., Oct. 5.—"David Harum," the novel written by the late Edward Noyes Westcott, of this city, netted the author's estate about $125,000, according to a statement made in the surrogate court, when the final accounting of the executrix of the estate was filed. Mr. Westcott, who was a banker, died seven years ago, and the estate was held open to derive the benefits from the sale of the novel.

$300.00 IN PRIZES

For the Best Memorandum of Events Kept in Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac For 1905— Be Sure to Get Your Almanac in Before January 15, 1906, as the Contest Closes on That Date.

The special feature about Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac, which makes it so popular among the people, is the space left on each calendar page for memoranda.

Thousands of persons throughout Canada have formed the habit of setting down opposite the days of the month certain items of interest, such as dates of births and marriages, of receipt and payment of money, of promissory notes or noticable purchases of the time of planting, of hiring help, of setting hens or when the mare is expected to foal, etc.

In order to encourage this custom, which is not only of interest but of considerable value to the person keeping this diary, we have decided to give prizes amounting to $300 in gold and to be divided as follows: First prize, $100 in gold; second prize, $50 in gold; third prize, $25 in gold; fourth to ninth (each), $5 in gold.

Anyone who has kept a memorandum of events in Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac during 1905 is eligible for a prize. The preference will be shown for the record which is most likely to prove useful for future reference.

The competition will close on January 15th, 1906, and it will be necessary for your almanac to reach our office on or before that date. The awarding of prizes will be entrusted to a committee of three well-known newspaper men and the names of the winners announced in the newspapers throughout Canada.

It is not necessary to send a letter, but be sure to write your name and address on the front cover of your almanac and mail it to Edman, Bates & Co., Toronto. If you desire it, we shall return your almanac, at our expense, as soon as the competition is closed.

If you have not been keeping a record of events during 1905 you will be interested in this contest next year, as the prizes will be of the same value.

Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac for 1906 will be mailed to every name on the voters' lists throughout Canada, and if you do not receive a copy by the 1st of January it will be sent free on receipt of your request.

Buffalo's Mayorality Candidates.

Buffalo, Oct. 5.—City conventions of both parties were held here. The democratic convention nominated D. J. Adam, a prominent merchant, as their candidate for mayor. The republicans selected Charles L. Feldman, at present corporation counsel, to run against Mr. Adam.

AT THE AGE OF 110

RETURNS TO NATIVE LAND, ERIN, TO DIE.

John O'Reilly Declares He Wants to Leave His Bones in Old Country.

London, Oct. 6.—By far the most interesting of the 410 passengers on board the Oceanic when she arrived at Queenstown, yesterday, was John O'Reilly, who claims and looks to be 110 years old.

He walked with a light step to the custom house, saw his luggage through, and made arrangements to get to his native place, Goreau, a little village near Schull, in West Cork.

If his own account is to be believed, he was forty-five years of age, and married, when he emigrated to America sixty-five years ago. Of the voyage he has still a vivid recollection. He booked his passage on an old sailing vessel, which took seven weeks and three days on the journey.

John O'Reilly lived a roaming life in America for some years, and once bought 500 acres of the virgin soil of Pennsylvania. Had he retained the plot he could have made millions of dollars with it, but he realized at $4,000, and lodged the money in a savings bank, which failed.

"I never lost a day's work through drink," he explained, "though I have always taken beer or whiskey when I wanted it. I have smoked all my life, and never made any efforts to live long. I think I shall live a good many more years yet, but I want to leave my bones in the old country."

Willetsholme Items.

Willetsholme, Oct. 5.—Threshing is almost completed in this section. Apple-picking and potato digging are the chief occupations at present. Alfred Curtis had a valuable cow killed on the railroad recently. The lightning storm of Monday last killed a cow belonging to Frederick Wilson. Congratulations are extended to Thomas Woods and bride, who were joined in wedlock on October 4th. The bride, formerly Miss Jessie White, will be welcomed among the people here. W. Pierce, A. Curtis and John Curtis are drawing cement and gravel for their new stables. Several from here took in the Lansdowne fair last week. Miss E. Stratford, of the city, after spending some weeks visiting Miss Eva Wilson, has returned to her home. Visitors: Mr. and Mrs. James Thomson at 12, Milton's Mr. and Mrs. T. Suddalay, Gananoque, at Mrs. Bennett's.

CARRIED BULLET IN HEART.

Death Comes Eight Years After Man Was Shot.

Cadilla, Mich., Oct. 3.—After living for more than eight years with a revolver bullet in his heart, and in defiance of the death warrant given him by the Chicago physicians who attended him, Charles B. Nelson, who was shot by an unidentified negro, in Washington park, July 1st, 1897, died to-day at his home here.

The case, which is one of the most extraordinary in medical annals, attracted much attention at the time of the tragedy. Nelson was shot at three times by his assailant, two shots taking effect. One of the bullets struck him in the back of the neck while a second hit him in the breast and penetrated to the heart, and there it has remained ever since.

The mysterious case has never been cleared up. Clark and a woman were sitting in the park, when a negro sprang upon them and began shooting. He shot at Clark and killed him, pursued the screaming woman until he was in danger of being captured, when he disappeared and has never been apprehended.

PICNIC AT CLYDE MILLS.

Two Fine Gatherings—Great Day for South Canoto.

Clyde Mills, Oct. 4.—A very successful picnic was held in Gilles' grove in the interests of the Sunday school of South Canoto, on September 30th. The dinner provided by the ladies of Clyde Mills and Folger, was the very best. An excellent programme of music, singing and recitations was rendered by the pupils of the Sunday school, which, with a number of athletic sports, held the interest of the crowd until tea was ready. A number of prizes were given. Master N. Lee, Lavant, won three firsts; Mrs. Browning and Mrs. Duxan each one first, and Masters Fred, Morrow, J. Prasey and J. McKinnon each one second. Dr. McIntosh, McDonald's Corners, put up two dollars to be awarded the prettiest girl on the grounds. This prize was awarded Miss Manie McKinnon. A silver berry spoon was given to Dr. McIntosh, McDonald's Corners, for having come the greatest distance to the picnic. Mrs. LaFlavour, superintendent of the school, and the officers and teachers won great praise for the very successful picnic. A concert was held in the church in the evening, and the building was crowded. Squire Donaldson, Snow Road, was called to the chair, and in his most pleasing manner directed the evening's programme. It consisted of songs, recitations and dialogues, rendered by the young people of the village and vicinity, and was most excellent in every respect. Special mention should be made of Miss Ethel Cameron, Lanark, whose singing delighted the audience. A silver berry spoon, which was donated to the person coming the greatest distance to the concert, was carried off by Miss Rogers, Ogdensburg, N.Y. Miss Geneva Reynolds and the young ladies and gentlemen who so cheerfully assisted her, received praise for the excellent and most successful programme. The mill will close down in another month, when the boys will repair to the various lumber camps. Then there will be weeping and walking among the fair sex. Bandfield Playfair was called to the bedside of his father at Plevna, he being very ill.

Important Reforms Planned.

Washington, D.C., Oct. 6.—The department of commerce and labor is planning extensive reforms and a complete re-organization of the steam-boat inspection service, with possibly a reinspection of a number of vessels and a weeding out of the personnel of the service. Ever since the General Slocum disaster and the investigation which followed, Assistant Secretary Lawrence O. Murray has been devoting time and thought to this subject, and it is reported on good authority that Secretary McCall has finally given his consent to certain reforms which Mr. Murray seeks to introduce. No official announcement has yet been days.
