At high celebration, the Dean of Ontario cele brated, with Canon Grout as epistoller, Rev.W. Lewin as gospellor, and Canon Starr assisting. The office was sung to the new service, Redhead, a very beautiful one musically, and a very fitting medium for the expression of the various parts. The introit was the ever beautiful "Ye Shall Dwell in the Land," and all the hymns were harvest ones. Though a bit nervous over new music, the choir boys sang well, entering into its spirit, and the result was a hearty, inspiring service.
