EVENTS AT QUEEN'S
GREAT INTEREST TAKEN IN FOOTBALL.

Faculty and Students Behind the Team—Campus, Track, Tennis, Etc.—Picked Up in Nooks and Corners.
It is noticeable that never before in the history of football at Queen's has more interest been taken in her teams. Even when the practices occur on the athletic field, students in large numbers and no small contingent of spectators from the city journey out to watch the play and when the college campus is the scene of the fray there is as large an attendance as is often seen at championship matches.

Notes on The Side.
Basketball enthusiasts are called to form a league.
Turner is in the game once more though the cut over his eye has not closed yet.

Association football is on the boom and large numbers of players practice nightly on the lower campus. Arrangements are being sought whereby a series of yearly games can be secured between the three Canadian universities. The idea is to follow out the schedule submitted in tennis. Varsity comes to Queen's; Queen's goes to McGill, and McGill sends a team to Toronto and so on around the circle from year to year.

Ladies' singles—Miss H. Donald, beat Miss Scott 6-2, 10-8. Miss Ferguson beat Miss McNeil 6-0, 6-0.
Men's singles—H. W. McKel beat T. J. Fraser 5-7, 6-4, 6-3. Prof. Campbell beat L. K. Sullivan 6-1, 6-2. A. Carr beat H. B. Burns 6-1, 6-2. H. E. Moore beat W. E. Patterson, 6-2, 6-2. G. E. Pentland beat A. D. Cornett 6-3, 6-2. G. A. Platt beat J. A. McCann 5-7, 6-3, 6-1.

Stole From Freight Car.
Yesterday, discovery was made that a K. & P. railway freight car, standing near the local station, had been broken into. A bale of dry goods had been ripped open, and some gloves and cloth along with the goods. No clue as to the thief has yet been discovered. The police are looking into the case.

Not Sleeping Well.
Without sleep there can be no bodily or mental vigor, consequently sleeplessness is a dangerous condition. Nothing so surely restores sleep as Ferronine; it's harmless—just a nourishing, strengthening tonic. Ferronine vitalizes every part of the body, makes the nervous system completely rebuilds the system. The cause of sleeplessness is removed—health is restored—you can work, eat, sleep—feel like new off-Ferronine cost 50c. per box at all dealers; get it to-day.

Case Withdrawn
From the Jury By Order of Judge.
At four o'clock Tuesday afternoon the only criminal case in the docket, The King vs. Young for theft, was opened before Judge Clute. John G. Young, of the township of Oso, was charged with the crime of stealing from Ira Cooke, on the 11th of September.

PERSONAL MENTION.
Movements of The People—What They Are Saying and Doing.
John McKeelvey is at Atlantic City. Archbishop Gauthier held confirmation at Wolfe Island today.
Henry Larkin, Atlantic City, is visiting friends in the city.
Joseph Doyle has been appointed caretaker of the steamers North King and Caspian.

Joseph Murphy's Appearance.
Joseph Murphy, the Irish actor, who connects the stage days of thirty years ago with the present, appeared in the Grand Opera House last evening in his favorite melo-drama "The Merry Widow." He was greeted by a large audience. Mr. Murphy appeared here last year, and previous to that he had been to Kingston in fifteen years. His personation of the character of "Larry Donovan" pleased his hearers. He had good support in J. Hyland, Seth Smith, W. T. Sheehan, Miss Josie Chaffin, Miss Mary Ferner and Miss Pauline Fielding. The play, however, is not strong enough for one of Mr. Murphy's celebrity. The songs introduced were warmly received. At the beginning of the second act, Mr. Murphy sang his celebration song, "A Handful of Earth" and in the last act, Miss Hyland heard in "The Last Rose of Summer," and "My Irish Molly O."

St. Luke's Anniversary.
Next Wednesday, the feast day of St. Luke the Evangelist, will be the seventh anniversary of the consecration of Archbishop Gauthier. In that period, he has made three canonical visitations to every parish in the diocese, and has seen the erection of several churches, hospitals, and hospitals. At eight o'clock, on the morning of his consecration anniversary, high mass will be celebrated in St. Mary's cathedral.

COOKE'S RECEPTION
TO ITS NEW PASTOR, DR. MACTAVISH.

It is likely that N. T. Greenwood will resign his old position as director of the Glee Club. The boys missed "Nat" during the past year, and will be glad to see him once more in charge.
The year '07 in arts held a well attended meeting at the university last evening for the purpose of nominating officers. Election at next meeting. A committee was also struck to look after the junior year's interest in the allotted time for registration in the faculty of medicine classes at the end of the week. After that date it will cost an extra five to sign the roll. The freshman class this year exceeds expectations and will pass the half century mark.

A QUIET WEDDING
WAS HELD IN ST. GEORGE'S CATHEDRAL.

A very quiet wedding was solemnized at St. George's cathedral, at half past nine on Tuesday evening, when Miss Edna G. Thompson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James Duncan Thompson, was married to Florent G. Arnold, Regina, N.W.T., by Archdeacon Carey, of St. Paul's church, who had christened the bride.
The bride wore a gown of white embroidered silk, with much enrichment of lace on skirt and corsage, a white beaver hat, and long, sweeping plumes of white. Her shower bouquet was of white roses and lilies of the valley, and she wore a bracelet of Roman gold, heavily chased, and set with diamonds and sapphires. The bridesmaid, Miss Vera Mundell, was in white net, over white silk, with white plume, and folds of blue velvet, and her shower bouquet composed of pink roses and lilies of the valley. The groom's gift to her was a large pearl necklace, and a diamond brooch.
Mrs. Thompson, the bride's mother, wore black brocade with lace garniture, and a hat of black and white. Miss Hannah Keyes, aunt of the bride, was in black and white silk, with a black hat. Miss Florence Thompson, the bride's sister, wore white crepe de chine, and a white hat. Miss Margaret Carey, mauve silk, and white velvet hat. Mrs. Holder, black silk and black bonnet. The only other members of the wedding party were Arthur and Blake Thompson, brothers of the bride. Mr. Harvey played the wedding marches as the party entered and left the church.

GERMAN FOREST LANDS.
Some interesting statistics have just been published relating to the extent of forest lands of the German empire.

It seems that 25.9 per cent of the entire land of the country is wooded, and that the extent of the forests rather than diminishes, as only 25.7 per cent of the entire area was forest in 1885. The least-wooded states and provinces are Schleswig-Holstein, Oldenburg, Hanover and East Prussia. Those with the most extensive forests are Saxony-Meiningen, Hesse-Nassau, and Baden, which covers 40 per cent of the entire area is covered with wood. Pines and firs of various kinds are increasing, while all sorts of deciduous timber, such as oaks and beeches, are diminishing. Deciduous timber is largely confined to the south and west. German forestry employs nearly a quarter of a million of woodmen and officials, and the expenses of maintaining them is more than repaid by the sales of timber.

PERU-NA IS A SYSTEMIC CATARRH
Remedy, Especially Valuable to the Declining Powers of the Older People.

In old age the mucous membranes of the body become thickened and partly lose their function.
This leads to partial loss of hearing, smell and taste, as well as digestive disturbances.
Peruna corrects all this by its specific operation on all the mucous membranes of the body.
One bottle will convince any one. Once used and Peruna becomes a life-long stand-by with old and young.
Mr. Charles F. Benetson, Truesdell, Mo., writes: "I have followed your instructions for the past month and am now as well as I can be at the age of eighty-four years. I thank you for your valuable instructions and advice. I first used Peruna fourteen years ago when my health was so bad that I had no hope of staying many days, and after using it I began to pick up. It has helped me ever since. I feel well, but will always have Peruna as my companion."—Charles F. Benetson.

Notes on The Side.
Basketball enthusiasts are called to form a league.
Turner is in the game once more though the cut over his eye has not closed yet.
Association football is on the boom and large numbers of players practice nightly on the lower campus. Arrangements are being sought whereby a series of yearly games can be secured between the three Canadian universities. The idea is to follow out the schedule submitted in tennis. Varsity comes to Queen's; Queen's goes to McGill, and McGill sends a team to Toronto and so on around the circle from year to year.

Joseph Murphy's Appearance.
Joseph Murphy, the Irish actor, who connects the stage days of thirty years ago with the present, appeared in the Grand Opera House last evening in his favorite melo-drama "The Merry Widow." He was greeted by a large audience. Mr. Murphy appeared here last year, and previous to that he had been to Kingston in fifteen years. His personation of the character of "Larry Donovan" pleased his hearers. He had good support in J. Hyland, Seth Smith, W. T. Sheehan, Miss Josie Chaffin, Miss Mary Ferner and Miss Pauline Fielding. The play, however, is not strong enough for one of Mr. Murphy's celebrity. The songs introduced were warmly received. At the beginning of the second act, Mr. Murphy sang his celebration song, "A Handful of Earth" and in the last act, Miss Hyland heard in "The Last Rose of Summer," and "My Irish Molly O."
