HOLD THE BY-LAWS UNTIL THE ELECTIONS IN JANUARY.

Money Would Then Be Saved to the City — City Property Scheme Not Ready — The Medical Health Officer's Intentions.

No word has yet come from the board of works as to submitting a by-law authorizing the issue of debentures for the cost of extending the O'Kill street sewer. When will the people be asked to vote? Perhaps it is intended to hold the by-law till the municipal elections in January. This, it is thought, would now be the proper thing to do, owing to the lateness in the season and the fact that some hundreds of dollars would be expended in putting the by-law to hold. It still remains to be seen whether the city, and the civic treasury would be the better for the delay, now that the matter has been held off so long. By the time the city property report on the city buildings is ready, perhaps another month will have elapsed, and it could afford to wait the real snow which it will be buried in. It is suggested, in anticipation of the defeat of the larger scheme, viz.: the changing of the city buildings to include the Board of Education quarters, that two by-laws on this question should be prepared, one for the larger scheme and the other for the original plan of putting in steam heating, which would effect a saving in coal and insurance, and more than pay for itself. The ratepayers might sanction the heating scheme, as it is a needed improvement.

The New Health Officer.

The medical health officer, Dr. J. H. Bell, will not announce his new plan he intends to follow in connection with his civic office, just at present. He will first have a conference with the health board, after being officially installed in his position, and then outline what he thinks ought to be done. His intention is to follow up carefully every case of contagious disease as soon as it is reported, and ferret out its origin.

MARINE INTELLIGENCE.

What is Going on About the Harbor.

Crawford's wharf: Schooner Winnie Wing cleared for Charlotte. The schooner M. A. Lydon cleared, this morning, for Charlotte. G.T.R. wharf: Schooner Arisande, with twenty-eight tons of hay, from Wolfe Island. The steamer Myles passed up this morning, on route from Montreal to upper lake ports, with general cargo. Craig's wharf: Propeller Persia, down this morning; propeller Michigan, up, to-night; steamer Niagara, down, to-night. The schooner Amundale is disappearing from Charley Shoal, the having gradually washed her overboard into deep water. It is yet hoped to get her spar. Swift's wharf: Steamer Belleville, down, last night; steamer Rideau King left for Ottawa this morning; steamer Althea, up, to-night; steamer Pictou, up, to-night; steamer H. M. Pellatt, up, last night. B. W. Folger and the Donnelly Brecking company's outfit will leave for Trenton on Saturday, to raise the bulk of the propeller Melbourne, which Mr. Folger purchased. It is expected it can be floated in three days. Capt. Thomas Donnelly has just returned from Alpena, Mich., where he disposed of the hull and cargo of the steamer D. H. Birkhead. The steamer was bound for Racine, Wisconsin, with coal and was disabled by the King left from the way to Kingston. She was taken into Alpena, where repairs, and while there took fire and was burned. Her cargo was insured in a Buffalo company, the hull in a British company. The cargo and hull were sold to Alpena from the side line, and the Montreal Transportation company is expected to do much business this fall in handling western grain. They have all their boats in commission, in fact have had them busily engaged since navigation opened. The managers think the government should so deepen the Welland canal that vessels of 10,000 tons' burthen could bring their cargoes, without breaking bulk from the west to Kingston. Grain thus carried can be delivered in Montreal at a cheaper rate than by any other route.

Fall Importation.

Prevost, Brock street, has received all his fall importations for order work, consisting of Scotch and English tweeds, blue and black serge, chevot and venetian for suitings, a great variety, nine splendid assortments of black and blue, beaver and fancy overcoatings. A splendid assortment of patterning at prices that defy competition.

A Popular Hospital.

The Hotel Dieu is taxed to its full capacity. As a hospital it has become popular with all classes of people, on account of the generosity and careful attention of those in charge. On account of its increasing number of patients, its grant from the government is larger than ever before. The Hotel Dieu is being patronized very largely by the Protestant doctors.

Death Of Kingstonian.

The death has occurred in Vancouver, of A. Penner Briggs, aged fifty-two years, son of the late Thomas Briggs of this city, after an illness of several weeks from cancer of the stomach. He was one of the earliest easterners to have been in British Columbia, and has long been connected with the hotel trade on the Fraser river and with the hotel trade. Lately he was senior member of the firm of Briggs & Chamberlain, and the newspapers speak of his popularity. He leaves a wife, three sons and a daughter, and his two brothers, located in the province, were among the mourners at the service in the Reformed Episcopal church.

Noble Irish Guards' Band.

Winnipeg Tribune. Commencing with that lilting melody, "The Low Back'd Car," "Dear Little Shamrock" and "The Irish Emigrant," alternated with lively airs, every selection found admirers, and as performed by Mr. Hanson's band, these homely songs seemed invested with all the charm peculiar to traditional Irish music. These national airs are native, simple and spontaneous; music not born of an artist school; nor are these songs a mere by-product of culture. To-night at Opera House.

REFUSED CASES TOO.

Double Discrimination Against Kingston Young Ladies.

There is another side to the question of Kingston girls being refused at the nurses' training school of the General Hospital. Several young ladies of this city have gone to the United States to become professional nurses. They have returned here and sought cases. The answer they got from some local doctors was that they were bound to give their cases to graduates of the Kingston hospital. Thus, Kingston girls are not only refused entrance to their home hospital, but outsiders are given the preference in nursing cases in this city and vicinity. There is thus double discrimination.

A Slight Mistake BUT HIS CONDUCT THOROUGHLY HONEST.

A Case in the Police Court—The Decision of the Magistrate—The Farmer's Wife Had Her Cheque Cashed.

Two cases occupied the attention of Magistrate Farrell, Wednesday afternoon, at police court. The episode between the farmer's wife from Mount Chestney, and the apple agent, occupied the stage for the greater part of the afternoon. The fruit man had difficulty in getting his draft, on a Winnipeg apple house, through the bank, so was unable to give the money for apples purchased. The fruit was shipped to Winnipeg on Saturday, and as expected, the pay for it was telegraphed here, yesterday, on its arrival. D. M. McIntyre, acted for the defendant, and C. J. Riggs for the complainant. The magistrate said at the conclusion of the case "the apple agent's conduct, strikes me as thoroughly straightforward, and he merely made a slight mistake." He was discharged on the ground of receiving goods under false pretences, and paid the woman the amount of her cheque, $30.

A Mistaken Idea.

Kingston, Oct. 12.—(To the Editor): It is a mistaken idea that Kingston girls are not admitted into training school. We have one Kingston girl in training, and we do not find all local applicants desirable; one great reason on account of the home connection and home responsibility. When a young woman signs her agreement to remain in the three years in the training school her first duty is to her school and her hospital. But when there is also a home interest it is impossible for her to give her mind and attention undividedly. There are apt to be domestic troubles and worries and illnesses of a more or less serious nature, and a demand upon her time and strength, at home as well as at the training school, consequently the nurse's own health and nerve resource has a double strain and injustice. It is not always desirable that a nurse-in-training should have a large connection of friends and associates in the city. Her time ought to be given to lectures and study, and if she has unlimited callers and visitors and inducements to spend her time elsewhere than in study and healthful recreation, her hospital work again suffers, and we could not hope to turn her out a first-class nurse. We only endeavor to exercise judgment in the choosing of applicants both from the city and elsewhere. All young women, who are not well versed in the duties of a profession with so many grave responsibilities. When care and judgment is exercised in our choice we trust the public will feel that it is their duty to take an interest in the welfare of those who are held responsible for the well being and care of the sick and helpless in the hospital, and for the turning out of good and all round comers from the training school.

PERSONAL MENTION.

Movements Of The People—What They Are Saying And Doing.

J. E. Terrill, Pictou, is in town for a few days. Edward Dempsey, Redville, is visiting in Kingston. Edward Bennett, of the M. T. Co.'s staff, is quite ill with typhoid fever. Mrs. Henderson and her son, Robert Henderson, have returned from a trip to New York. John Johnston, tailor, has been very ill in the general hospital. He is on the mend now. Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Roadley, Kingston, are in Belleville to attend the funeral of the late Miss Tilley. Allan Macdonald and wife, who have spent over thirty years in the North and vicinity, will leave to-morrow for Toronto, where they will reside in future. P. W. Wiggins, who came here from Ottawa to take an interest in the News and Times company, has withdrawn from that newspaper, and has left for Montreal. Rev. J. H. Caldwell, B.A., a graduate of Queen's, has been called to Pilot Mound, Man., to succeed the Rev. J. H. Caldwell, D.D., appointed western agent of the church. J. E. H. Barnett, Benbow, R. M. Connell, Ottawa, and J. H. Chamland, Greenfield, Ohio, are in the city, on their way east, after a very successful two weeks' hunting and fishing expedition in Northern Ontario. The many friends of A. W. Shields, son-in-law of D. J. McDonald, Colborne street, will be sorry to learn of his serious illness with typhoid fever at his home in St. Albert, North-West Territory, with slight hopes of his recovery.

Death Of J. H. Taylor.

To-day news reached here of the death in St. Louis of James H. Taylor, formerly of this city. His death occurred on Friday last after an illness of several days. He was survived by a widow and three children, James in British Columbia; Frank, of Texas, and a daughter, Birdie, in California. Mr. Taylor was a son of the late Capt. Joseph Taylor, inspector of bulls, of this city, and was about sixty-five years of age. He was for years superintendent of the Kingston and Pembroke railway and later of the Kingston foundry. He left here about eleven years ago for Galveston and then to St. Louis. In recent years he was a railway broker in the southern city. He was highly regarded here and many will regret his demise.

ARE MUCH IMPROVED On the Shelf

300 BUILDINGS ARE BETTER THAN THEY WERE.

Patrons of Factories—Helping Along in the Upward Lift—The Opinions of Chief Instructor Pablow.

"The work of improvement is steadily progressing in the Eastern Ontario dairy division," says G. G. Pablow, chief instructor for that division. There are 635 cheese factories in the division receiving the visit of instructors, and in all of the factories more or less improvement in equipment or building has been made this year, in at least three of the hundred considerable betterments have been made. The work has extended to the farm, too; never so much interest taken in patrons' meetings as has been taken this season. The next great advance will be made when the proposed county dairy associations are formed. The time has gone by when a great convention for the east and another for the west was sufficient. These served their purpose in creating a feeling of unity among the dairy industry in general, but for purposes of general education we must get nearer the people than that, and the county associations it is intended to form will meet the needs of the hour.

MARRIED AT BROCKVILLE.

A Pretty Wedding in St. Peter's Church.

Brockville Recorder. A pretty church wedding took place Wednesday afternoon in St. Peter's church, when Miss Helen Biell-Kinney, youngest daughter of Dr. Robert Kinney, inspector of public schools, was married to James B. Groat, youngest son of George Groat, of Kingston. The invited guests numbered about one hundred, but the church contained a large number of others who witnessed the ceremony. The ceremony was performed by Canon Groat, father of the groom, assisted by the Rev. J. H. Bedford-Jones. The groom, a popular Brockvillian, accompanied by his best man, Frederick Field, manager of the Bank of Toronto, in Matineuse, awaited the bride in the chancel. The soft tones of Mendelssohn's Wedding March, played by Miss Ethel Mcullen announced that the bride party had arrived. The bride was led to the altar by her father, who gave her away. She was dressed in an exquisite gown of white messaline silk over tulle, the skirt made in train, with side panels of flounced and shirred chiffon. She also wore a large veil surrounded by a coronal of orange blossoms, and carried a large bouquet of white bridal roses. The maid of honor, Miss Ethel Kinney, sister of the bride, wore a smart frock of Nile green crepe de chine, trimmed with chiffon lace, and a pink picture hat, decorated with pink roses. Her bouquet was pink. The usher was James H. Hutcheson, K.C., and Alfred S. Towriss, local manager of the Bank of Toronto. A reception and dejeuner at the bride's home was enjoyed and later, Mr. and Mrs. Groat left for New York and Boston, the bride travelling in a smart brown tulle suit and a brown feather hat. Mrs. Groat is a talented young lady, while her husband is the accountant in charge of the branch of the Bank of Toronto, and with a bright future before him.

AN EXPLANATION

Of July's Statement of Junetown Cheese Factory.

Junetown, Oct. 11.—(To the Editor): There seems to be a wrong impression, probably a misunderstanding, on the part of several, with respect to the monthly statement of July for Junetown cheese factory. The secretary reported as average price for pound cheese, approximately the average of weekly sales for the month. The only object of such a statement was to indicate a basis of comparison for competing factories, to let them know how they stood in comparison. The true average is obtained from dividing the aggregate money by the aggregate pounds cheese. Now both will serve the purpose of showing any money advantage one may have over another. But the statement from either source is not used in apportioning the money among the patrons (this being done in terms of milk). If given the true average, one can find the total money.

AN ANIVERSARY TO-MORROW.

To-morrow, October 13th, will be the twenty-second anniversary of the battle of Queenston Heights and of the death of General Brock. It will also be the forty-third anniversary of the inauguration by General Sir William Fenwick Williams of Kingston, of the present monument erected to Brock's memory upon the heights overlooking the river and the spot where he fell. Of all the officers of the Canadian militia, Brock's monument is the most conspicuous. It is a monument of granite, and is the only one, Lieut.-Col. J. Vance Graves, O.S.C., is still serving, the few, very few, that remain of the others there being now on the retired list.

According to the Ottawa Citizen the school children of the dominion are to be benefited by the selection of the Pacific railway in the selection of the railway on Kaien Island. It is understood that the company intends to offer a price of $250 for the best name submitted. It is to consist of not more than eight or nine letters, and the selection will be limited to a British Columbia Indian name, which is to be both appropriate and euphonious.

But the statement from either source is not used in apportioning the money among the patrons (this being done in terms of milk). If given the true average, one can find the total money.

AN ANIVERSARY TO-MORROW.

To-morrow, October 13th, will be the twenty-second anniversary of the battle of Queenston Heights and of the death of General Brock. It will also be the forty-third anniversary of the inauguration by General Sir William Fenwick Williams of Kingston, of the present monument erected to Brock's memory upon the heights overlooking the river and the spot where he fell. Of all the officers of the Canadian militia, Brock's monument is the most conspicuous. It is a monument of granite, and is the only one, Lieut.-Col. J. Vance Graves, O.S.C., is still serving, the few, very few, that remain of the others there being now on the retired list.

G.T.P. Western Terminus.

According to the Ottawa Citizen the school children of the dominion are to be benefited by the selection of the Pacific railway in the selection of the railway on Kaien Island. It is understood that the company intends to offer a price of $250 for the best name submitted. It is to consist of not more than eight or nine letters, and the selection will be limited to a British Columbia Indian name, which is to be both appropriate and euphonious.

Well Entertained.

The Misses Blomley, Collingwood street, entertained a number of friends last evening to introduce their cousin, Harry Blomley Lambert, the guest of honor. Music, and games were indulged in, refreshments were served, and a very pleasant evening was spent by those present. Mr. Lambert returned to his home in New York city, to-morrow, after enjoying his first Canadian visit very much.

A Call Extended.

The congregations of Foxboro and Sydney, Presbyterian churches, have extended a call to Rev. David Smith, B.A., Toronto, to become their pastor.
