THE MIKADO

Issues Rescript At Conclusion Of Peace.

BENIGN ANCESTORS

ARE GIVEN PRAISE AND GLORY OF VICTORY.

Desires Establishment of Neighborly Relations—Admonishes His Subjects Against Vainglorious Pride and Commands Attention to Lawful Vocations.

THE MIKADO OF JAPAN. Tokio, Oct. 17.—The emperor, yesterday, issued a rescript in reference to the conclusion of peace.

His majesty records the glorious success achieved by the army and navy, the diligent performance of their duties by the civil officials, and the cheerful manner in which the nation has borne the heavy burden of expenditure and sacrifice. The result is in a great measure, due to the benign spirits of our ancestors, as well as to the devotion to the civil and military officers, and the self-sacrificing patriotism of our people.

"Continuing," the emperor says: "We have examined the terms agreed upon by the plenipotentiaries, and having found them to be in entire conformity to our will, we have accepted and ratified them. Peace and glory thus having been secured, we are happy to invoke the blessing of the benign spirits of our ancestors, and to be able to bequeath the fruits of this great desire to our posterity. It is our earnest desire to share the glory with our people and to long to enjoy the blessings of peace with all nations. Russia is again a friend of Japan, and the friendly relations now re-established shall become both intimate and cordial."

In concluding the emperor admonishes his subjects against manifestations of vainglorious pride, and commands them to attend to their lawful vocations, and to do all that lies in their power to strengthen the empire.

MEDALS AWARDED

By the Carnegie Hero Fund Commission.

Detroit, Mich., Oct. 17.—A Pittsburgh despatch says the Carnegie hero fund commission, last night, made public its investigation into the case supposed to entitle the participants to share in the fund. Ten awards were made, among them a silver medal to Michael A. Doyle, a ship laborer of Quebec, who, on April 28th, 1904, rescued Miss Kuster, a seventeen-year-old student who attempted suicide by plunging into the river where the water was thirty-five feet deep, and filled with floating ice. Another award was a bronze medal to Arthur Gottschalk, Lancaster, N.Y., for his rescue of Mrs. Webster, Detroit, who fell from the pier at Bertie, Ont., on the night of July 6th, 1904.

HYDE NOW READY

He is expected in the city not later than Wednesday. Mr. Hyde has been visiting friends in and near Boston recently.

Picked Up A Barge.

Southampton, Ont., Oct. 17.—During the gale, on Sunday night, the barge Jennette, lumber loaded for Tonawanda, broke away from the steamer United Lumberman, off Presque Isle, Mich. The Jennette drifted across Lake Huron, arriving off this port, yesterday afternoon, with her canvas and deck load gone. She was immediately picked up and towed into the harbor by the tug Frank G. McAulay.

Captured A Burglar.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—A duel took place in Westmount Park, early this morning, between Frank Mooney, a well-dressed burglar and a policeman. The burglar was shot in the arm and side, in all nine shots being fired. The man had a hit with him. He is evidently a stranger and is now in the Western hospital.

When you require a tonic, try a bottle of beef, iron and wine at Gibson's Red Cross drug store. 50c. there.

CLERKS FROM SCOTLAND.

Bank of Commerce Advertised for Fifty Lads.

Montreal, Oct. 17.—The Canadian Bank of Commerce has established a new precedent for Canadian banks, and has advertised in Glasgow, Scotland, for fifty junior bank clerks, at a salary of £50 a year.

A leading official of the bank stated that the bank had been notified that a number of lads were already on their way to Canada. He added that the rapid extension of the branch system by different banks had made it impossible to get a sufficient number of bank clerks in Canada, and the experience had been that Scotch lads, when secured early enough, made good bankers. Other Canadian banks are also negotiating to bring out a number of English and Scotch boys.

A BIG LIREL SUIT.

Harmsworth Suing Pearson's Papers for $250,000.

London, Oct. 17.—Sir Alfred Harmsworth's libel suit for $250,000 damages against C. Arthur Pearson's papers, the Standard and the Daily Express, is the noisiest sensation of the week. Pearson published a copy of a wit alleged to have been served on Harmsworth, by a Captain Beaumont, and his wife, claiming an annulment of a bond signed by the captain agreeing to sell his shares in Harmsworth's paper. Answers, for $40,000, on the ground that it had been obtained by misrepresentation and duress. Beaumont also claims damages proportionate to what his interest could now be worth in Harmsworth's publications, if he had not sold it. This claim is computed at $2,500,000.

MAY SUCCEED FULFORD.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The death of Senator Fulford leaves another opening in the upper chamber of the House of Commons, and it is more than likely that it will be filled by the appointment of Mr. Comstock, who for a time represented Brockville in the House of Commons, to the general election of 1900.

THE PRINCE'S FUNERAL

Passed Over With Perfect Order—Police Absent.

Moscow, Oct. 17.—The funeral of Prince Troubetzkoy, the liberal leader and rector of Moscow University, who died suddenly in St. Petersburg, October 12th, took place here, yesterday, and passed off in perfect order. Enormous crowds witnessed the ceremony. The police were conspicuously absent, and the students took control of the proceedings. The ordinary funeral services were a standard during the funeral exercises, which lasted almost the entire day. Thousands of people lined the streets along the route of the procession.

Hamburg, Oct. 17.—A terrible north-west storm, accompanied by rain and hail, has been raging in the North Sea for four days. Many vessels have foundered or are damaged, and twenty-five sailors are known to have been lost.

USED BANK NOTES.

Wrapped $162 in Newspaper to Take to Bank.

Watertown, N.Y., Oct. 17.—Truman Berow, a driver for the J. S. Briggs bottling works, lost $162 by a careless inadvertence of his wife. It seems that Mr. Berow had $192 in bills which he intended placing on deposit in one of the banks this morning. He wrapped this money up in a newspaper that lay in the kitchen of his residence.

Shot At His Murderer.

Chicago, Oct. 17.—After he had been stabbed by Joseph Toccoano during a fight last night, Vito Foglio, fifty years old, drew a revolver and fired at Toccoano, who was wounded and fled. Foglio's two sons, Pietro, twenty years old, and Anthony, fourteen years old, who witnessed the fight, both drew revolvers and fired several shots at the body. Toccoano was dead when the police arrived. Vito Foglio was arrested and taken to a hospital, where it was found that he suffered from two large scalp wounds and two wounds in the face. The sons escaped.

Soldiers' Monument Mutilated.

Ogdensburg, Oct. 17.—Yesterday some malicious individual broke the barrel of the gun held by the bronze soldier, one of the figures in the soldiers' monument, recently unveiled here by Vice-President Fairbanks. The barrel was made of solid bronze and has either been sold to a junk dealer or thrown in the river. The destruction of the monument has aroused much indignation.

WANT ALMONY

To Be Collected From Dead Man's Estate.

Detroit, Oct. 17.—A request to collect alimony from a dead man's estate is the unique petition filed in the probate office by Mrs. Louise Anderson, divorced from her husband seven years ago. Mrs. Anderson says that one hundred dollars per month be allowed from the estate, which amount has been unpaid since Anderson's death, four months ago. Her attorney claims alimony should constitute a lien upon the estate. The will was probated in Ontario and the administrator, Frank Mason, is said to hold twelve thousand dollars worth of real estate in Detroit.

AN ODD TASK

Put Upon Stead By The Czar.

TO HOLD MEETINGS TO DISCUSS CURRENT POLITICAL QUESTIONS.

Stead Has a Most Favorable Regard for the Monarch — He Had an Interview With Alexander II., Which Created Interest.

London, Oct. 17.—One of the most extraordinary appointments ever offered a British journalist has just been given by the czar of Russia to W. T. Stead. The noted journalist has been received several times by the Russian ruler.

Recently Mr. Stead had an audience with Emperor Nicholas at Peterhof and was authorized to organize public meetings to discuss current political questions. A letter has been received from Mr. Stead, who is now in Russia, in which he mentioned that he was already holding meetings.

W. T. Stead is a man who has done many astonishing things. Leaving the Times for London when a young man, he joined the staff of the Pall Mall Gazette. At one time he edited his paper from jail. In the course of his career he has chatted familiarly with Pope Leo XIII. and been the friend of Cecil Rhodes, the confidant of Manning, the adviser of Presidents McKinley and Faure. He was editor of a newspaper which whipped a Gladstonian government to action and of the reform of the British navy, and he struck a sensational blow for purity of London streets.

Then more than seventeen years ago, he added to his journalistic laurels by interviewing the czar of all the Russias, Alexander III. No Russian emperor had ever been interviewed before, and the amazement of the official world at his feat was added to by the fact that Stead, in defiance of all court etiquette, Mr. Stead closed the interview.

"It is perfectly monstrous. You don't mean to say that you dismissed the czar?" said the British ambassador. "Well, I don't know what that," replied Mr. Stead, "but I knew that the press had been waiting for lunch for half an hour. As I had put all the questions I wished to ask, I got up, and, in a friendly way, I said I would not detain him any longer."

In later years Mr. Stead interviewed President Kruger. Then in 1888, he interviewed the present czar, and was most favorably impressed by the character of that monarch.

"I thank God for his life. If he be spared to Russia, that young man will go far," said Mr. Stead. He wrote a most flattering character sketch of Nicholas in the Review of Reviews, and it is said never to have had his original impression changed. In recent years he has descended from these heights. He has dabbled in spiritualism, edited "Borderland" and "The Review of Reviews" (a "spirit" friend). He has been a pro-ber, an advocate of Esperanto, and a vehement critic of London plays, his latest effort being a vigorous denunciation of "The Springs of Chicago." Now he is adviser to the czar, an organizer of political meetings in a country that seems on the verge of revolution.

WENT ON STRIKE.

The County Magistrate Was Called and He Acted.

Port Stanley, Ont., Oct. 17.—The government steamer Vigilant dropped into the coal dock, yesterday, when fourteen of the crew struck and refused to load coal. Captain Dunn telephoned for the county police magistrate, Frank Hunt, but as Mr. Hunt arrived the strikers thought better of it and went to work. The magistrate arrived and after considering their action in going to work, fined the men one dollar and costs each and so the incident ended.

HE WILL BEGIN AGAIN AND PAY DEBTS.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—A despatch from Nelson, B.C., says that John Houston has written the Tribune, from Goldfield, Nevada, announcing his resignation as mayor, to take effect on October 25th. Mr. Houston says he is dead broke, but will pay his debts in time. He will never return to Nelson, but will fight his way up in Nevada.

A LAD'S ACT

Caused the Loss of His Father's Barns.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—Because his little six-year-old son set fire to dried apples, Andrew Finlay, who lives near Manotick, is missing his barns and outbuildings and his crops. He lost 200 bushels of oats and over 200 tons of hay. A high wind was blowing and barns on adjoining farms caught, but were easily extinguished. The loss is $4,000. No insurance.

MR. CALVERT DENIES IT.

Ottawa, Oct. 17.—The Free Press publishes a paragraph tending to give the impression that W. S. Calvert, chief liberal whip, was a competitor with Mr. Aylesworth for a cabinet position. Mr. Calvert denies it. He states that he came to Ottawa on departmental business, and in no sense to urge his claim to political preferment. The appointment of Mr. Aylesworth is the best that could be made, and he warmly endorsed it.

WHERE'S THE ITALIAN?

Toronto, Oct. 17.—Luigi Zilli, a young Italian, has been missing for nine days, and his friends are much concerned over his protracted absence. There are fears that he may have met with foul play.

WANTS TO ENTER WINNIPEG.

Winnipeg, Oct. 17.—The Millard railway line, negotiating for the right of way into the city over the Canadian Northern railway line from the United States boundary.

REV. W. H. SPARLING, PRESIDENT OF MONTREAL CONFERENCE, IS IN MONTREAL, ATTENDING A MEETING OF THE SPECIAL COMMITTEE OF THE CONFERENCE. HE WILL RETURN ON WEDNESDAY.

BARTON MYSTERY.

May Lead to Identification of Victim.

Toronto, Oct. 17.—The police have a clue which they think may lead to the identification of the murdered woman in the Hamilton mystery. She may prove to be a lady lately arrived from England, which would account for the difficulty in tracing her. Mrs. Warren, 15 Dean St., called on Detective Wallace and told him that she had information which might aid the detectives. On September 24th, Mrs. Warren arrived in Quebec from England and came on to Toronto. There was a young woman on board the steamer with whom she struck up an acquaintance. This woman said she received from farmers for hire, near Hamilton, where she would meet and marry a young man, who had been in Canada for about a year. The description in the papers correspond with the appearance of this young woman. Mrs. Warren went to Hamilton to view the remains.

HUSBAND SHOTS WIFE.

Then He Uses Gun to End His Own Life.

Buffalo, N.Y., Oct. 17.—Nathaniel L. Richmond, a well-to-do farmer, who lived at North Collins, near here, shot and killed his wife, yesterday, as she lay asleep in bed with her two-year-old baby. He then shot himself and died soon after. Melancholia is said to be the cause. The baby, which was by its mother's side, was deluged with blood but unharmed. The shots awakened Richmond's other children, who coughed his side just in time to see him breathe his last.
