THE CIVIC INVESTIGATION Toronto, Reaches An Uninteresting Stage.

Toronto, Oct. 27 .- Very little of interest transpired in the civic investigation. The proceedings are apparently dragging somewhat, and there is a general opinion that the taking of evidence will conclude to-morrow. So far as known, Alderman Dr. Lynd is the chief witness waiting on the list for examination. George Scott, secretary-treasurer of North-West Ratepayers' Association, resumed his evidence, this morning, and said that Dr. Lynd gave the association the impression, in January last, he was with the association, and conveyed no intimation, subsequently, that he had changed his mind. After the vote, Alderman Lynd told him that he could not help himself. Scott volunteered the statement that he had expressed the belief that when the investigation closed Dr. Lynd would come, out of it with honor.
