A MILLION NEEDLES

COULD NOT INFLICT THE TORTURE WOMEN SUFFER FROM HEADACHES.

Headache is not in itself a disease, but a symptom or accompaniment of other diseases, principally those of the stomach, liver and bowels.

Burdock Blood Bitters

removes the cause of the headache, and not only does this but it also restores the entire system to healthy action and buoyant vigor.

"I was troubled with headache for a number of years, but could get nothing to help me. I procured a bottle of Burdock Blood Bitters, and finding it was doing me so much good, I got two more. I am now fully cured and think there is nothing in the world like Burdock Blood Bitters for headache."

THE WHIG—72nd YEAR

DAILY BRITISH WHIG published every evening, at 206-210 King Street, Kingston, Ontario, at $5 per year.

THE DAILY WHIG.

"Opiter per Orbem Dicor."

People Bribe Themselves.

The people are sometimes bribed with their own money, and through public works. Hence it is not so very remarkable that an attempt has been made to hypnotize the New Yorkers.

It will be remembered that over an hundred millions were voted for the enlargement of the Erie canal, and the electors who were not directly profiting by the work or expenditure did not take much stock in it.

The result of the vote has not been announced, but it is likely that the proposal carried, and that the people have practically "doped themselves by the offer of public improvements for which they have to pay."

Visit Of Mr. Crosby.

A man among men will visit Kingston this week, in the person of Earnest Crosby, the eminent apostle of peace and reform.

Mr. Crosby occupies the unique position of advocating a great cause for its sake, and for the people's service. He is a lawyer of high standing, and enjoyed the distinction of being legal adviser to the American embassy in Egypt.

Liberals Sweep Alberta.

The electors of Alberta have spoken. They have passed through their first provincial election and approved very cordially of the Rutherford government and its platform.

They have given the liberal party a standing in the legislature that would be the better if not quite so strong. There is an opposition, but it is so weak as to really amount to nothing.

The sweep of the province by the government party is significant. It shows that the people of the west, who understand the situation, have no sympathy with the rot that has been talked on the school question.

They know what the schools are like, and they have effectually silenced those who have attempted to stampede them on a racial and religious issue.

The conservative party has been crushed in the province. It has boasted of what it could do. Its leader has been deceiving the people, and the evidence of this came to hand on the eve of battle.

Then Mr. Bennett was represented in a telegram to a conservative paper, as a usurper, having secured the leadership by a fluke. Then he was pictured as an ally of the C.P.R., to the exclusion of that railway competition which the west demands. In general he was represented as a humbug and a failure, and his own people in Calgary put a proper estimate upon his worth by defeating him.

Changes In The Staff.

The Collegiate Institute is to be again disturbed by the retirement of two of its teachers. They will not go, however, until the Christmas vacation, and it may be possible then to secure competent and eligible successors.

The high school term proper, however, begins in September, and ends in June, and it is not desirable to have any changes in the school staff in the meantime if they can be avoided.

There is only one way to avoid them, and that is to have a definite understanding with the teachers in June, and before the summer vacation. Then the management committee and the principal should have a heart to heart talk. The teachers whose services are satisfactory should be conferred with and an arrangement entered into which will hold for a year. If there is reason, on any side or on both sides—the board's and the teachers'—for a change it can take place at once, and other teachers can be sought when they may be found.

Something should be done to save the high school from the conditions that must follow frequent changes in the staff, and changes that operate very seriously against the progress of the scholars.

The many changes last year did the classes an injury. It is hoped there is not going to be a repetition of the experience this year.

Cleaning The Quaker City.

Next to that of New York—and in some respects more notable than it—was the Philadelphia election, in which boss rule was most completely beaten. It had long years of experience and seemed to have a grip upon the situation which no power or force could break.

It was the fate of the combination to be eventually broken by the man who was its choice originally for the mayoralty. John Weaver was a respectable man, but a figurehead. That was the presumption. That was a feeling which moved Mr. Durham, when he selected him for an office where, if elected, he would of course do what he was told and ask no questions. But circumstances developed strangely. Mr. Weaver was expected by the people to give some evidence of his goodness, and he was equal to the emergency. He disapproved of the sale of the gas works to a company under conditions which meant the loss of millions to the people. He made one or two moves which opened the eyes of the people to the enormity of the transaction, and the first thing Durham knew the heather was on fire.

The gas deal was not only prevented, but other inequities were opened up. This came about through the removal of public officers who antagonized the mayor. Evidence was unearthed of great frauds that had been committed in connection with the filtration system, and when experts were called in the city was found to have been plundered out of about $6,000,000. This was done, under the eye of Durham, the real controller, acting through puppets, and with the connivance of officials, by having specifications made which the ordinary contractor could not carry out, but which the tools ignored, putting in materials much cheaper than those called for and generally conducting the work to suit themselves.

The men who controlled the city for years and robbed it at their own sweet will made a desperate fight to retain power. But the people were aroused, and they re-elected Weaver as mayor and practically commanded him to clean the public service and rid it of every one that has been influenced by the bosses and brought disgrace upon the city.

Dr. Beatty Nesbitt wants the Toronto municipal elections run on party lines. He also wants the mayorality. Perhaps the people will have the chance to show what they think of him and his ideas.

there it doesn't matter how soon, some men drop out." Is that it?

The Dominion Coal company asks the government to put a duty of sixty cents per ton on anthracite screenings, which is being burned in place of their soft coal. Why not? Protection is a species of tribute which one man has to pay for the benefit of another.

Had some good men—one less tightly than Mr. Hearst—been the champion of municipal ownership in New York he would have been elected. It may be that Hearst is the real choice of the people, and that he has been robbed of the seat by the devices of Tammany Hall at the polls.

SPRIT OF THE PRESS.

How Is This?

Montreal Herald. Only eight boys have been killed at football this fall. Dear, dear, but the game is becoming almost too lady-like. Nineteen were killed in the corresponding period last year.

Discovery Too Late.

Hamilton Spectator. It was discovered in the New York mayoralty campaign, but too late to have its proper effect upon the voting that Candidate McLellan had "a pain in his destiny."

Getting Very Expressive.

Hamilton Times. Sir Frederick Borden talks of a further increase of a million and a half in our "war department." We now pay six and a half millions. Sir Wilfrid ought to begin to take an interest in that end of the spending; it's worth it.

A Surprised Statue.

Toronto Mail. Sir Oliver Mowat's statue is a very excellent representation of the former premier and governor. But it has a surprised look. It is evidently astonished to find the party out and the principles in at Toronto, and the party in and the principles out at Ottawa.

Something To Think Over.

Toronto Globe. Britain's exports increase $20,000,000 and her imports decrease $4,000,000. Here is a puzzle for the theorists who think the large exports and small imports cause prosperity, and are in turn caused by a protective tariff.

To-Morrow's Game.

The inter-faculty matches at Queen's have kept the footballers in great shape this week and a determined effort will be made to defeat McGill here, to-morrow. The team will have a light workout this evening. The following will probably constitute the line-up: Back, K. Williams; halves, Walsh, Livingstone, Gleson; quarter, Richardson; scrum, Gibson, Donovan, Thompson; wings, Kennedy, Cameron, Patterson, Timms, Turner, Bailie.

In regard to the rumored disaffection within the ranks at Queen's, the insinuations are denied by Capt. Patterson. He states that things have run quite smoothly throughout the season and there was no cause of complaint for such a report to be originated. Speaking of the delay in starting the game at Ottawa, he attributed the blame as much to Queen's as to Ottawa College.

Policy Holders Hard Hit.

New York, Nov. 10.—At the session of the insurance investigation committee, Actuary McClintock, of the Mutual Life, testified that in 1901 the old policyholders of the Mutual Life, paid $4,662,055 in expenses incurred in securing new business.

He said the estimated cost of this new business in 1904 was $9,830,733, and that the amount available toward this expense was only $5,168,698. The old policyholders paid the balance of the expense, he said.

STOP! WOMEN,

AND CONSIDER THE ALL-IMPORTANT FACT

That in addressing Mrs. Pinkham you are confiding your private ills to a woman—a woman whose experience with woman's diseases covers a great many years.

You can talk freely to a woman when it is revolting to relate your private troubles to a man—besides a man does not understand—simply because he is a man.

Many women suffer in silence and drift along from bad to worse, knowing full well that they ought to have immediate assistance, but a natural modesty impels them to shrink from exposing themselves to the questions and probably examinations of even their family physician. It is unnecessary. Without money or price you can consult a woman whose knowledge from actual experience is great.

Mrs. Pinkham's Standing Invitation:

Women suffering from any form of female weakness are invited to promptly communicate with Mrs. Pinkham at Lynn, Mass. All letters are received, opened, read and answered by women only. A woman can freely talk of her private illness to a woman; thus has been established the eternal confidence between Mrs. Pinkham and the women of America which has never been broken.

Out of the vast volume of experience which she has drawn from, it is more than possible that she has gained the very knowledge that will help your case. She asks nothing in return except your good-will, and her advice has relieved thousands. Surely any woman, rich or poor, is very foolish if she does not take advantage of this generous offer of assistance.—Lydia E. Pinkham Medicine Co., Lynn, Mass.

Following we publish two letters from a woman who accepted this invitation. Note the result.

First letter. "Dear Mrs. Pinkham:—For eight years I have suffered something terrible every month with my periods. The pains are excruciating and I can hardly stand them. My doctor says I have ovarian and womb trouble, and I must go through an operation if I want to get well. I do not want operation if I can possibly help it. Please tell me what to do. I hope you can relieve me. Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol St., Benning, D.C., Washington, D.C. Second letter.

"After following carefully your advice, and taking Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.

"As you know, I wrote you that my doctor said I must have an operation or I could not live. I then wrote you, telling you my ailments. I followed your advice and am entirely well. I can walk miles without an ache or a pain, and I love my life to you and to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound. I wish every suffering woman would read this testimonial and realize the value of writing to you and your remedy."—Mrs. Mary Dimmick, 50th and E. Capitol St., Benning, D.C., Washington, D.C.

When a medicine has been successful in restoring to health so many women whose testimony is so unquestionable, you cannot well say, without trying it, "I do not believe it will help me." If you are ill, don't hesitate to get a bottle of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound at once, and write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., for special advice—it is free and always helpful.
