THE DAILY BRITISH WHIG is published every morning at 50c per copy. Advertisements are charged on a scale...

THE WEEKLY BRITISH WHIG, 12 pages, 84 columns, is published in two editions, one each on Monday and Thursday...

THE DAILY WHIG. "Opiter per Orhem Dicor."

Bluster From Alberta.

The conservative press varies the news from Alberta just a trifle. The first expression was one of surprise...

The new provinces have not been favoured by a registration act. They may be later. For the present the electoral process is held in the poll and the voters his vote. It may be challenged...

Then the announcement is made that "it will cost a lot of money to rectify the wrongs. The voters will not bother about it. The candidates have not the means to spend upon it..."

Jews In Mourning. What is the cause of these repeated attacks upon them, now in one place, and then in another?

The Toronto Telegram considers it for the best interests of the conservative party that R. B. Bennett has been beaten. The word wonder is without sympathy from those who know him.

Reliable Furs. There is complete satisfaction in our furs. They have all the vital points of quality, style, workmanship and fit...

MURDER FOR A LARK. Kill a Negro Out of Pure Devilment.

Columbus, Ok. Nov. 14.—"Let's hit the first colored man we meet" was the remark made by one of three young white men...

Change of Occupation.

A St. Kitt's barber is said to have fallen heir to $200,000. He is now in a position to shave notes.

Sense At Last.

After thinking it over R. B. Bennett sees how foolish it was for a C. P. R. solicitor to offer to act as the Mad Mullah of the West.

Candidate Hearst has been counted out of the mayoral office in New York. If he fulfills his promise to take the chair on inauguration day, he may be thrown out.

Do Tell.

The report that some ballot boxes used in the New York election have been fished out of the river suggests that Tammany may have borrowed some of the trick boxes used in Ontario.

Something In That.

F. D. Monk, M.P., leader of the conservative party in Quebec, having asked for an increase in the tariff on vegetables, it is strangely surmised that he feels the necessity for more protection for the party cabbage-heads.

Modern Philosophy.

If a man contemplates suicide he cannot do better than grab a load of gun by the muzzle and haul it toward him. It is very often quite effective. But it is past understanding why a man who wants to live should do that sort of thing.

WHITAKER WRIGHT'S PALACE

Low Bids Caused Its Withdrawal. Lea Park, the magnificent mansion and estate near Wiley, upon which Whitaker Wright is said to have spent $1,250,000, was offered for sale recently.

Four hundred people visited the place for the auction, but the result was disappointing. The estate was divided into fifty lots, of which forty-five were sold for $38,500.

Mr. Hearst, of New York, will, if not declared mayor before January 1st, take the office, make his appointments and demand his office. A Kingston man once went through this farce, and we remember the result.

Hearst's paper, the New York North American, offers $10,000 as a reward for the imprisonment of a Tammany leader. It will put up ten times $10,000 if the Tammany leader, Murphy, is convicted. Hearst is surely flush of funds.

THE GEARY CASE

Fails to Find Indictment Against Nathan. Boston, Nov. 14.—Morris Nathan, who was arrested two weeks ago, in Pittsburgh, in connection with the death in this city, of Susanna Geary of the Cambridge, Mass., chorus girl, was given his freedom, when his case came up.

One of the most remarkable statutes in England—the Stratford-on-Avon "Hop"—was celebrated recently. Eight oxen and a dozen pigs were roasted in the streets.

The perfect eyeglass—easy, secure, comfortable, with lenses that are restful to the eyes. Dr. Chown's Drug Store.

RHODESIAN COTTON.

Country Promises to Become a Rival to America.

New York, Nov. 14.—The New York Herald has the following special cable from London: Rhodesia is becoming a rival to America in the cotton industry? Consignments of cotton continue to arrive at Liverpool from there, some of which arrived there this week...

According to the information received by the British Cotton Growing Association, Rhodesia can produce three-quarters of a million bales per year, which is considered sufficient to steady the world's market and protect the British cotton industry from speculation...
