COMMISSION IS NOT NEEDED SAYS THE MINISTER.

of Bavarian Not Due to Narrowness of Passage - Too Many Pilots. Montreal, Nov. 16.-Hon. Mr. Pre-containe, minister of marine, stated yesterday that there was no need for commission to enquire into the St. Lawrence route, because of the wreck of the Bavarian. The passage there was a mile and three-quarters wide. The further improvements, he said in progress and contemplated, are in tended to make the channel still wide deeper at its narrowest and shallowest points in view of the increasing size of the ocean steamships, In the meantime, given careful navigation, there is no more reason for accidents between the sea and Montreal than between Sandy Hook and New York, where the German steamer Graf, Waldersee was aground for twenty-four hours this week.

Mr. Prefontaine repeated his intention to thoroughly reorganize the Plotage system so soon as he obtained control on January 1st. There are far more licensed pilots than are
