tell Conspicuous. New York, Nov. 20 .- With New York agog with the entertainment of Prince Louis of Battenberg, the American production of "Oliver Twist," as acted by Beerbohm 'Iree in London, comes to l'roctor's theatre at a most auspicious time. To many in the audience, the presentation made me feel as if he were visiting a portrait gal cry of people whom he had learned to love and for whom he had a feeling of old-time camraderie, Mr. Dodson as Ragin provided the audience with a considerable number of thrills and in the prison scene of the last act his horribly human picture of the wretch awaiting the hangman, moved everyone by its gruesome realism. Amelia Bingham as Nancy, seemed to be just such a woman as Dickens had so truly pictured her. At the Knickerbocker, E. H. Sothern and Miss Julia Marlowe gave a magnificent revival of Shakespeare's comedy, "Twelfth Night." As Viola, Miss Marlowe proved herself quite at home in the part which is regarded her admirers as her greatest Shakespearean characterization. She blended the comedy of the part with its sentiment in a most delightful way and in her dainty boy's dress made a graceful, happy youth. Mr. Sothern as Malvolio, gave an intelligent interpretation to the part. The Bick Headache and relieve all the troubles inci- scene in which he finds the supposed Belasco's Theatre opened up Tuesday evening, with Blanche Beates in the title role of David Belasco's latest lay "The Girl of the Golden West." The story is that of the mining camps of our west in the old days of 1849. It tells of "The Girl," as the untamed child of California is known, who runs the Polka saloon amidst the un couth men and a solitary Indian girl. She is loved by everybody, miners and gamblers alike, and especially by Jack Raneem the sheriff of the county Ramerez, a young highwayman, suspected of holding up the Wells Fargo Express seeks shelter at her place pur-STRONG to have a clear cool head, sued by a posse of vigilantes. She recognizes him as one, who once did her a favour, and hides him from pursuers. Six Cents a Quart. Gananoque, Nov. 21.-The mass meeting in the town hall last night, was largely attended by the electors of Gananoque. Mayor Sheppard opened the meeting by reading the proclamation and requisition of the rate payers. Rev. Henry Gracey was called to the chair and filled it in and impartial manner. A resolution was laid on the table, moved and sec onded in proper form, that the electors were dissatisfied with the action of the town council, in refusing to permit the electors to vote on the local option by-law. A vigorous dis cussion was engaged in. Messrs. W. Y Boyd, and W. B. Carroll, defending the council's action, and G. Cooke Frank Wright, and Joseph Meggs spoke in opposition. A vote was tak en on the resolution which was de clared lost by a majority of one vote. Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Shortell have returned to Gananoque and purpose going into business again.
