A Mississippi Lynching.

Memphis, Tenn., Nov. 23.—David Sims, a negro who blew off the head of Isaac R. E. Jones, manager of the Springfield plantation near Clarksdale, Miss., was lynched by a mob of sixty men at the scene of the crime. He was captured after a two-day hunt and confessed. Jones, who was the owner of several plantations was assassinated Saturday night. Disagreement over the settlement of a yearly account is said to have been the cause of the murder.

WILL RESIGN

This Is What Is Expected Of Balfour.

THE PARTY IS SPLIT

AND IS BECOMING WEAKER EVERY DAY.

Premier's Appeal to Unionists Falls Flat and Chamberlain Out in Opposition to Him—Liberals Oppose Balfour's Resignation and Want Him to Appeal to the Country.

MR. A. J. BALFOUR.

London, Nov. 24.—The rumors of an early dissolution of parliament and an appeal to the country are gradually crystallizing into more definite form, and while no official intimation has yet been forthcoming, the idea is prevalent in well-informed political circles that Premier Balfour will take an early opportunity to place his resignation in the hands of King Edward. Should this materialize the liberals will be invited to form a government, parliament will meet for a few days' session, and a general election will occur early in the new year.

The political situation was so radically altered during the past week that even the government supporters no longer argue that Mr. Balfour has a sufficiently united party at his back to meet parliament with the object of transacting public business. The premier's appeal to the unionists at Newcastle, a week ago, to unite on his fiscal policy has not met with much success. On the contrary, Joseph Chamberlain, the most powerful member of the unionist coalition, directly joined issue with his chief by a speech at Bristol, on Tuesday, calling on the unionists to rally to the support of his own more drastic fiscal proposals, which include a fifty-cent tax on grain.

The cleavage of the party was thus more markedly accentuated, and many unionist politicians held that no good purpose could be served by a longer retention of office. The weakness of the party will only be further increased by perpetuation of existing rivalry between the two sections.

On the stock exchange a definite announcement of the resignation of the cabinet is expected at any time, and the whole market is flat in consequence. The liberals are inclined to present Mr. Balfour's resignation at the earliest moment, and contend that the cabinet should remain in office a few weeks longer and himself dissolve parliament and appeal to the country. The liberals see no reason why the present opposition should put themselves to the inconvenience of forming a government in the dark without knowing what forces they will command in the new parliament, and they object to what they designate as Mr. Balfour's tactical manoeuvre, whereby the liberal attack would be turned into a defence before the election, and Mr. Balfour would be given a free hand to arrange with Mr. Chamberlain for concerted action against the liberal party.

This morning's newspapers are unanimous in their belief that the meeting of the cabinet, to-day, will result in the resignation of Premier Balfour. The speech of Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman, at Stirling, is the subject of much comment, owing to his downright adoption of home rule for Ireland as a plank of the liberal platform. The Daily Telegraph expresses its elation in an editorial and contends that Sir Henry Campbell-Bannerman is thereby driving a wedge into his own party infinitely more destructive than the rift existing in the unionist party.

To Visit King Haakon. London, Nov. 24.—King Edward has designed to introduce the family of Queen Alexandra to society at the capital city is not to be a ball at all. The waxed floor, the inspiring music, the flowers and beautiful women will all be there, but there will be no dancing. The Pattisons are members of the Methodist church, and the Methodist discipline prohibits dancing. So it is going to be a plain reception.

Dismissed by Witte — Agrarian Disorders in Poland.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 24.—The resignation of the employers to the demand of the workmen, for an eight-hour day, has resulted in meetings of workmen, at which it was shown that many of them do not support that programme.

Admiral Briel will reopen the admiralty's works, on the Neva, to-day. He announces that it will be the last opportunity for the striking workmen to return. Most of the other works will remain closed till the beginning of the week, awaiting the admiralty's experience with the workmen. There are now 60,000 unemployed in St. Petersburg.

Premier Witte yesterday summarily dismissed the governors of Yaroslavl, Vladimir, Perm, Tomsk, Kazan and Viatka, and the prefect of Odessa.

The town of St. Petersburg, near the town of Warsaw, are being expelled from the schools by police, armed with revolvers. Agrarian disorders are increasing in Poland. Regular revolutionary bands are marching from place to place, burning the stables, schools and administration buildings, belonging to the Russian government. At Radom the peasants are cutting down the state forests.

MOUSE IN HER HAT.

Threw Woman in a Church Into Hysterics.

London, Nov. 24.—Sister Wallace Wynn, wearing a hat that had been in the hands of a mouse, was thrown into a hysterical fit in the north part of Wesleyan Avenue Church, Sunday. She did not know that a mouse had made its nest between the lining and the crown of the hat.

Scientists have long known the aversion of mice to music. This particular mouse submitted to the opening anthem and was undemonstrative during the offertory until the organist placed burning the stables, schools and administration buildings, belonging to the Russian government. At Radom the peasants are cutting down the state forests.

As the rumbling bass notes filled the church the mouse squeaked and scamped through Mrs. Wynn's collar. She screamed and tore at her hat. The mouse came down, the mouse dropped to the floor and Mrs. Wynn fainted.

Occupants of near-by pews caught sight of the mouse. Women throughout the congregation seemed to know intuitively what was the matter and several became hysterical. The Rev. Dr. C. E. Rowley restored order with great difficulty and proceeded with the sermon.

MURDERED BY THIEF.

Shot Through Heart by Burglar in Her Home.

Chicago, Nov. 24.—Maude Reese, an expert stenographer employed by the Union Trust Company, was murdered in cold blood, yesterday by a burglar whose operations she had brought to a sudden halt as she entered her flat, 200 Extonton Avenue.

After killing Miss Reese the burglar had turned into a back porch and was about to enter an alley, from which he quickly made his escape. The police say the burglar carried off little if any booty.

Miss Reese, the murdered girl, came to Chicago about a year ago from Westfield, Kan., where she had graduated from a business college. She was the daughter of W. S. Reese, principal of the Union Trust Company.

Miss Reese was twenty-five years old and was a girl of refinement and culture. She was highly educated as a musician and was very popular in the circles in which she moved.

AN ILLUSTRATED MAN.

Literally Covered With Tattooed Pictures.

Washington, Nov. 24.—The bureau of pensions has recently been engaged in the investigation of a claim in which the identity of the dead sailor was an important factor.

From the testimony it appears that he had a cross and a picture of the Washington monument tattooed on one arm, the pictures of three women above the elbow, an American coat of arms above the wrist on one arm, another on the back of his head, a picture of a woman on his back extending near to a picture of a picture of a man and a woman and ship on his breast and various other artistic designs over his stomach, feet and other portions of his body.
