THE DAILY BRITISH

WHG.

SECOND SECTION.

9 TO 16. PAGES

YEAR 72.

Advance

ristmas News

'hat! Christmas talk al-

y, why there's heaps of yet! Maybe not so much ou would think. Take the Almanac and count

veeks on it and you'll find n't so far away as you

ght. This isn't the real stmas alk yet-mere rumors, foretaste of the

aps interest the woman arranging her gifts as

en-New lot just received,

iles, guaranteed coverings,

A very choice lot just receiv-

handles and first-class covched, Pure Linen, 5c., 10c., roc., 121/2c., 15c., 20c., 25c., erchiefs from 10c. up to $3

en Hemstitched Handker-

, 15c., 20c., 25c., 35c., 49c.

en Hemstitched Handker-

tin, Thibet and many other ffs, Collarettes, Muffs. These ranteed by the two leading ontreal and Quebec, and sold with a very small profit.

women now realize the sav-

r Muff you may select can

d Novelty Neckwear just

of the designs shown now ot of very pretty designs just and Paris Silks, novel fast-

Cashmere Hosiery-Light

e, in Tans, Navy, Cardinal.

nese new things. Never epared to buy. 'It makes ice, you are just as wel-

DLAWES

ce from $1 to $3 each.

juired if you so desire.

d later this season.

arge assortment between.

2, 2.50, 2.75, 3.

KERCHIEFS

c. up to 75c.

c. each.

URS

intage.

to come.

RELLAS

.50, 3.

KINGSTON, ONTARIO, SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 25, 1905.

NO 275.

The wrap is nowadays indispensable to the street or outdoor toilette of any description. What, with the extrems vogue of dressy lines in gowns, and the increasing severity of the weather, it takes a wrap of some sort to differentiate the house from the street toilette. Charmingly picturesque are the lines that fashion most favors for those indispensable items of the wardrobe, and the variety to choose from is so great that even the most difficult and capricious taste is sure to be pleased.

The girl who is somewhat vain of her proportions will select instantly from among those long and fitted wraps those that clearly and sharply define the syelte curves of the figure. They are oftentimes quite upon the order of the stylish paddock coat that her brother wears with such a swagger. Or they may follow the someoverdone redingote idea; or again, the true mode of the Directoire period-that which reproduces the man's coat of that period, however, rather than woman's dress and make the figure seem slender, and graceful, but quite a little shortwaisted, never-

However, that same shortwaisted effect is one of the best cards in Dame Fashion's hand this season, and all of the exclusive-and incidentally as expensive in proportion to the amount of exclusiveness displayeddressmakers and high-class tailors. whose work is of the fancy order, or rather what is known as "la mode demi-tailleur" abroad, are employing this shortwaisted effect to most charming results. Not that the figure is foreshortened by any means. Rather is it that the body part is abbreviahest results, and in the hands of the

How's This?

We offer One Hundred Dollars Reward

Hall's Catarrh Cure is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and montals sent free. Price 75 cents per montals sent free. Price 75 cents per bottle. Sold by all Druggists. Toledo, O. Take Hall's Faulty Polls for any set shape to the hand and the faracter is of the garment.

A review, however, rapid, of those portrayed in their every line and fold. A review, however, rapid, of those portrayed in their every line and fold. A review, however, rapid, of those portrayed in their every line and fold. Take Hall's Faulty Polls for any set shape to the hand there is no hint of tissues give way. Ager's Cherry Pectors of the system. Total stops the hard coughing. Constitutions of the garment.

A review, however, rapid, of those portrayed in their every line and fold. A review, however, rapid, of those portrayed in their every line and fold.

nings, and the tailor's goose is hand- son. led quite after the professional man-

There are some novel designs in the rainproof cloths, chief of which is known as griffonette. This material, like others of its class, presents not a since all of the modish colors upon the calendar are to be had in it there is no reason why it should not be fashioned after the very latest caprices of the mode.

One garment that bespeaks Parisian ideas is fashioned after the old-time manteau. There is a broadly bias seam down the centre of the back, the sides are cut after the same lines, laring full and wide. The fronts are equally voluminous, and stitched strappings define every seam and joining. The shoulder seams is so cleverly handled that the plain but fullis so managed that it projects beyond the sleeve at all points. The fronts are double-breasted, fastening with handsomely embroidered velvet buttons, and this touch of velvet is repeated in the collar that shows the are among the trimming schemes that Mancharia. Not a ripple in South same embroidery as does the buttons. ted, and the skirts of the garment so Anything more modish, smart and at oleverly handled that they sink in the same time strictly practical could ribbon matches the satin lining for say there's trouble brewing in the just over so slightly around the na- berdly be imagined. The garment is satin has superseded silk in this re- Balkans? What kind of a newspaper bewitching and make it seem plain enough and utilitarian enough spect-or it may match the lace; or man are you, anyway? bewitchingly more slender than it for rainy day purposes (the griffonette better still, it may be one of the new though is. It takes a clover cutter, being absolutely waterproof); the broche ribbons that have floral-designs though, to handle this mode to its clever cut makes it a suitable after seemingly embroidered instead of noon or carriage wrap, and the dis- printed on them, as heretofore. A at Wade's drug store.

transactions to all business and believe are some exquisite ones in chiffon veltransactions and financially able to vet of delicate tint that employ beau- attached at any point except the neck farm, out any obligations made by his tiful hand embroidereries of ribbons, and the arm (where a dress shield is silks, tiny heads and spangles to their oftentimes deftly inserted) goes with-WALDING, KINNAN & MARVIN, adorning, and vards upon yards of out saying, and in many instances the Wholesale Druggists Toledo, O. real laces, all of the handmade varie- lining ends some few inches above the

Some of the darker colored ones may dainty evening wraps must include

in the afternoons, but the great ma- which the Chinese coats are received. jority are evening wraps, pure and They must be the veritable garment simple and are not supposed to . see of the male and pigtailed citizen of the amateur -unless she be marvellously daylight during their brief career. | celestial empire; no mere domestic gifted the finished garment is apt to The modes of both the first and the copy will do. The richest of satins, are some tricks of the trade in this | the more favored of the coming wins those are wrought and enriched with ple. They had not been married very connection that are kept a profession- ter's festive garments. We are wont to embroderies that are simply marvel- long.

fortunes with her exquisite taste in garment in characteristic fashion. too, she avers this clever dressmaker not unlimited will look with favor uphint of its utilitarian purposes, and who was educated entirely in France, on a smart design in Persiana, a Perasks her customers when they demand sian lamb cloth that has all the beau- her seat in a big arm chair. gowns and wraps of the empire order, ty, the gloss and curl of the veritable the second; the Josephine or the Eu- the fuzzier demands. Furthermore, it more strongly.

full folds of a cape, for the coat itself I row Valenciennes for edging, with per- delightful results, pure, Italian filet or some other expensive web of strongly marked individuality.

show up to excellent advantage upon America. I don't know what to do. those luxurious wraps. Sometimes the Managing Editor Well, can't you creet touch of velvet and embroidery printed chiffen, either plain or plisse, will-bring it into the quieter and is oftentimes employed to veil the linmore sober at evening wraps general ing, and a full ruffle of this is posed hems being then identical, and and Ine lar for any case of Catarrh that cannot be But all of the season's modish hems being then identical, and ancured by Hall's Catarrh Cure.

But all of the season's modish hems being then identical, and ancured by Hall's Catarrh Cure. garments are not so practical or so other enseading its way down either We the undersigned have known F. J. utilitarian as that just quoted. There side of the front fastening. That the

Take Hall's Family Pills for consti- portrayed in their every line and fold. A review, however, rapid, of those

al secret, and one of them is the em- designate that shortwaisted garment ous. The soft old blues that charac- The wife, who was suffering from a ployment of a featherweight hair-cloth that is so popular as the empire coat terize Chinese porcelains are in the slight cold, lay on the couch among in the lining of the body part. This forgetting or ignoring the fact that it highest favor, as the work upon those the pillows. She had on a red kimois made to hold out the best form and | belongs solely to the first empire, and is in harmonious tints. The veritable no. She was very pretty, with red to to define the waistline so that the that the fashions of the second empire, Chinese shape is left untouched. The match in her cheeks. In her hands skirts of the coat shall sink in after that came along over a half a century garment hargs in straight and loose was a book. It happened to be the the clever fashion already described. later, and owned their chief charm to folds from the shoulders, the fronts same color as her kimono, which was Sponging and shrinking both have the Empress Eugenie, are equally are double-breasted, with a slightly also pretty. Attached to her book was much to do with this shaping of lin- strong in fashionable favor this sea- rounded neck, and the side seams are a tiny little electric light, with | slit quite after the traditional design. | shade. The battery lay by her side.

One very clever dressmaker-she is a The sleeve is the same square fold as member of the old regime in New York the almond-eved Celestials wear, and centre table. By his side was an open and is rapidly retrieving her fallen the embroideries wander all over the hook, with a paper knife keeping the place for him. It was under the read gowning her friends-and her enemies. Those whose social possibilities are ing lamp.

which one they refer to, the first or fur, and costs but a fraction of what ultaneously." genie. And in the next breath she lends itself well to the manipulations a gay dinner party where she had has ordered models from both periods of the dressmaker, and a smart wrap laughed for two hours with a lot displayed to point her question the that may be worn with equal distinct friends, glanced quickly from one tion day or evening may be evolved the other, taking in the books, Of the evening wraps, pure and at a comparatively small cost. The lamps, their attitudes of repose, the simple, perhaps the most charming modes of the first empire make up quiet of the room, the air of having are those of all lace. Any of the all- most luxuriously in this fabric; and finished with fun altogether, over laces, will do, although the pre- the fad embroideries wrought directly | "I see," said she, "I know how ference at the moment indicates real upon furs one of the most character- is. I used to be married. I read then Irish crochet or real Cluny for the istic fads of this present season-may and read and read. I nearly put my Philadelphia Press. foundation of the garment, and a nar- be beautifully carried out in this with eyes out reading. I read sometimes

The Old Standby.

Telegraph Editor : "Gosh ! I don't know what to do for news to-day. Al Shirred and bouillinne ribbons, too, quiet in Russia. Nothing doing in Fountain syringes from 59c, to $2.50.

Hammer blows, steadily applied, break the hardest rock. Coughing, day after day, jars and tears the throat and lungs until the healthy sult your doctor freely about this.
We have no secrets! We publish J. C. Ayer Co., the formulas of all our medicines. Lowell, Mass.

DISPOSING OF THE AGED.

State Do It.

The first native that passes the spot discovers what he imagines to be an with a spear. The members of the deceased aged one's family then press open horror and surprise at the unfortunate incident, though inwardly congratulating themselves upon the successful manner in which they have Circulation.

Who did you say that stranger

"Well, well! Why, that's the name

"Don't say? Wat's the name

Of course, you know about

You know there is nothing

You know, too, there is nothing so good for Bad

Stomach and Liver as

ABBEY'S SALT.

SEC AND SEC A BOTTLE

take ABBEY'S SALT.

so bad for health as a Dis-ordered Stomach or Liver.

emerge from hiding near by, and been relieved of their burden.

When last heard of Major was?" asked the country editor.

loafer at the village store.

of one of our subscribers.

"Jonas Perkinbine," replied native track.

to Give Time to How the Natives of Congo Free

After dinner the woman called on two friends. They were a married cou- Powell Cotton, who set out last year well may be.

antelope skin. In this garb they are The husband reseated himself at th then hurried by the members of the family to a point remote from the village, and abandoned in the grass near

"How long have you been married "About six months," said they sim-

The woman who had just come from till three o'clock in the morning and "I do that now," smiled the wife. "Really," went on the woman, think there wasn't a book that came out then I didn't read, I devoured them omnivorously."

"And now?" said they, The woman smiled serenely at them from the recess of her hig armchair, "Now," said she, "I never read a single book that's on the market. I don't know what's come out and don't care. I go by bookstands from one year's end to the other and never think of them.

"Why?" asked they. "I'm no longer married," explained the woman, "I no longer vegetate and read and read and vegetate, I live now," she added.

> Merely A Question. Jackson: "I understand that hat young man who comes to see on so often is anxious to become an His daughter : "Yes, sir, He wants to appear before the footlights."

A stitch in time may save nine, if I vou den't have to look for a needle in Oriental Opera Coat

BRINGS WITH IT THOUGHTS OF GIFT-MAKING.

Made-Transparency at Throat

a Necessity. coming of the Christmas holidays with all their attendant gifts and giving, makes the skilled needle-woman feel that she, not her purse. it is that can command the situation. With hand work of every kind and character leading the fashionable pro-cession, the skilled needlewoman bethinks herself early in the season of her duties in the gift line, and her purchases are made before stocks or the counters are depleted and her fancy can have full swing and sway am-

Neck dressings are highly important nowadays, and the shops do charge startlingly high prices for anything that shows any indication of daintiness at all. Almost any odds and ends of lace will make up well in this connection, and those featherboned founnotion counters are a vast help in both planning and making those dainty conceits. The lace is first tacked to the foundation, such piecing and jointhen those fancy stitches that seem to collars and jabots and chemisettes for says the Scientific American, he has singe the spring, one must have quite gathered interesting information con- a repertoire of chemisettes, and now cerning the methods adopted by the that guimpes are added to the wardnatives of the innermost regions of robe of the grownups, as well as in the Congo Free State for the disposal those of the wee folds of the nursery. of their aged members when they be- embroidered and hand-made guimpes ome a burden. The infirm and aged will prove a very welcome gift to people are rendered unconscious by many a girl who has not time or

Vests and waistcoats, too are items that will be gladly received. First find out, though, if the coats or gowns of the proposed recipient are such as will immediately utilize such possessions. The best shops are displaying antelope, and promptly dispatches it stamped and outlined pieces in , rich sorts of devices. Silk and linen embroideries, those pompadour and Marie Antoinette designs that call for tiny ribbons, beads and spangles to their achievement: wool and worsted work and what not, all according to the use to which they shall be put when finished, are offered for the skilled > match are among the latest fancies; and there are even ribbons stamped for embroidery that are intended to border kimonos and dressing sacques of sheer henrietta, cashmere and other soft and comfortable goods.

As for the belts of ribbon and silk, they call for embroidery and much handwork if they are to compete with the best that the shops display. They are all of them made with little rods of featherbone, in the back at the sides, and again in front, these last very shallow ones, so that the ceinture hugs the waistline tightly and patterns, their name is legion. In addition to the ones of lingeric persuasion there are some new ones in a silk warp henrietta, in cohenne, a silk voile and other sheer woolen fahrice that will make up delightful for

Chiffon velvet, too, takes hand em broidery beautifully, and many a clever needlewoman is her own embroidcress where her best frock of the season is concerned, and individual des igns are thus secured where such are oftentimes just the chief desideratum

AT ALL DEUCOSTS fist-Gee! I'd have a fit.

HOLIDAY SEASON

Neck Arrangements Very Popular as Presents, and Are Easily ong unbroken lines of goods be inseparable from the latest con-the present styles, and further addi-tions to the stock are always welcome. Transparency at the throat is almost a fundamental point of recent productions, and the cascade, jabot, selected for a finish must be as fil-News has been received from Major my and openworked in character as means of a narcotic, and in this com- perhaps skill enough-to fashion them atose condition are wrapped in a fresh for herself.

needlewoman's attention.

Cotton had left for the Stanley forest. Embroidered bags and belts to > yet holds all of its smart shape. As for the embroidered shirtwaist cold weather wear.

of the gown.

Teacher If you had five cents, and It's a habit of health to your father should give you a dollar what would you have? Willie Close-