

Useful Christmas Presents
A great deal of money is spent uselessly every Christmas. You could avoid that by buying from our choice

CHEFFONIERS
Just the thing to please the men—choice for all his clothing, etc. $8.50, $10, $14 up.

BED-ROOM BOXES
Another nice idea. Fancy Cretone Covers, $3, $3.75 up.

SEWING ROCKERS
For ladies, hardwood, $1, $1.50, $1.90.

CARPETS AND RUGS
Are selling faster than usual this fall. Our variety of stock, good selection, excellent qualities leave an impression that has its effect. Wilton, Axminster and Brussels are the best. Some special snaps in Tapestry at 50c. and 60c.

Store is open till 9 o'clock each evening. Purchases stored until Christmas.

T. F. HARRISON CO. Phone 90
MISS K. SULLIVAN
Dressmaking and Ladies' Tailoring. Entrance through Miss Leader's Fancy Store, Brock Street. Phone 677.

Crossley's Windsor Carpets

These Carpets are of extra fine wear and all this season's patterns, and there is enough body and border to fit medium to large rooms, being the size of your rooms.

The regular price is $1 per yard. Your choice of all at 70c. per yard.

R. McFaul,
Kin ton Carpet Warehouse.

TO BUY PROPERTY

And to Pay For It Gradually...

Is to compel yourself to save. It is the best way to teach yourself economy, and you will save with pleasure.

Get the right kind of property now, at the right time.

Watch for the right time to sell it, when you can get more, wisely, do it.

For the convenience of the workingman, our office is open on Saturday evenings.

MCCANN'S,
51 Brock St. Phone 326 or 621.

TO OVERCOME EVIL BUT GOD WILL NOT HELP THE RECKLESS.

And Those Who Run Into Way of Temptation—Keep Away From Slime Pits; Keep on the High Grounds.

In St. Andrew's Street Methodist church, at the evening service, on Sunday, the pastor, Rev. C. E. Manning, preached an interesting and instructive sermon of particular interest to young men. A noticeable and commendable fact was that there was an unusually large turnout of young men.

The preacher took as text for his remarks, Genesis xiv, 10, "And the Vale of Siddim was full of slime pits; and the kings of Sodom and Gomorrah fled, and they that remained fled to the mountains."

The vale of Siddim is situated in the south-eastern part of Palestine when in the war when Lot was carried off, it was the scene of the whole campaign. The campaign was skillfully planned and eminently successful. It is a very significant fact that the kings were beaten in their own battle ground. Warfare, then was on different principles, than now, and consequently the open plain was the best battle ground. It is not true men have met with great defeats on battle grounds of their own choosing. St. Paul says: "I can do all things, when God's help strengthens me." The great conflicts of life are not those to be overcome by physical force, but by the spiritual.

There are two ways for the sceptic. If infidelity is a question in your mind. Many choose arguments that strengthen their arguments. If you are to successfully combat doubts, choose the best battle grounds. The young man who is trying to overcome an appetite for drink, he may go in the bar-room where the fumes overcome him, or he may choose places where local opinion is in force. Am I talking to the young man addicted to gambling? Are you where you can hear the rattle of the dice? God will not shield him, who never seeks to overcome his wrongs. It is the man who is not yet discouraged, who is the greatest hero.

The preacher mentioned some of the slime pits before young men. Irreverence, some look with contempt on sacred things. There is less sentiment and religious superstition than there is greater regard for religion. In 1882 less than ten per cent. of the United States colleges were church members. In 1901, more than fifty per cent. were church members. Nothing rebukes the godly man so much as the church.

Double standard of living. Every man lives two lives, the one under the gaze of public opinion, the other hidden. The outer life is not always the inner one. Our inner life is the true one. It is difficult to determine if we lead a true life. It is to be wondered at that there is a standard for men, another for women. You set a standard for your sister and lead a different one yourself. The young lady who smokes or drink will not be your life-partner. There are men who do not lead right lives yet we allow them to mingle with our families.

There is a prevalent idea that a young man has stronger character when he knows a bit of sin. Jesus knew more of sin than ever we did, yet he earned it in other ways than indulging in it. Some of you, now, may be in slime pits, do not get dissatisfied but make an effort to get up. Keep away from the slime pits, keep on the high grounds of life; give the reins of your life to Jesus and he will overcome in the struggle for you.

The Bishop of Ontario in the course of his sermon, at evening, on Sunday, at George's cathedral, on Sunday, laid the present day withholding from God His due of men's time and means, to practical unbelief. They profess Him with their lips, and deny Him by their acts. The unwillingness of men to speak of religion is due to lack of interest in it, and to failure to reach the personality of God.

A big programme at Canadian Order of Foresters concert, in City hall, on Wednesday night. Hear Harvey Lloyd, the Toronto humorist.

Sunlight soap is better than other soaps, but it is best when used in the Sunlight way. Buy Sunlight Soap and follow directions.

William H. T. Stacey, Toronto, son of James Stacey, formerly of Kingston, was married in Toronto on Friday afternoon to his uncle, Rev. W. H. Stacey, officiating.

Awful Palpitation, Dizzy, Faint, Weak

Have You a Weak Heart and Poor Nerves—Instant Relief May Overtake You!

With weak heart and exhausted nerves you are living in the very shadow of death.

Think what it would mean to your family if you were to be taken today!

You can't afford to risk it any longer. Get Ferronze at once and make your heart strong and well.

Ferronze has helped many a man to live a long, useful life, and will do likewise for you.

Mrs. E. J. Brooks, of Berlin, says: "My nerves were weak and I was irritable and cross."

"My heart palpitated like an engine and everything faded away."

"After using Ferronze I gained strength. My appetite improved. I slept well. The heart trouble disappeared."

"Ferronze made me well."

You will never know what real good health means until you take Ferronze. It gives strength, endurance and energy, to every organ of the body. Try Ferronze, 50c. per box six for $2.50, at all dealers in medicine.

THE DONNELLY ASHORE

Mishap of the Local Wrecking Steamer.

While coming from Brockville to Kingston last night, the steamer Donnelly, towing the lighter Grantham, went ashore near Alexandria Bay. The night was very dark and also misty.

At noon, Sunday, the Donnelly wrecking company succeeded in releasing the M. T. company barge Melrose, on a shoal near the Narrows, and at three o'clock the Melrose, in tow of the tug Emerson, and the Donnelly, with the Grantham, started for Kingston, the Emerson leading. The latter did not know of the Donnelly's mishap until this morning, when she left to release the stranded steamer.

The Melrose is the Queen street slip, reaching here at eleven o'clock last night. Part of her cargo is in the Grantham. As soon as the damaged vessel is taken out, the barge will go into dry-dock for repairs.

Movements of Vessels.
Crawford's wharf: Steamer Bothnia, from Oswego, with coal.
Richardson's elevator: Steamer India, from Fort William, with wheat.
Craig's wharf: Propeller Michigan, up, Saturday night on her last trip.
SS. H. M. Pellatt, from Fort William, is unloading grain at the Frontenac Milling Co.'s elevator.

Schooner Queen of the Lakes left the wharf at present dry dock, yesterday, and is loading feldspar at Richardson's.

The tug Emerson will likely go to Charlotte to-night to bring back a coal-laden barge for the M. T. company.

The schooner Winnie Wing was to clear to-day for Frenchman's Bay and await a chance to slip across the lake to Oswego, to which port she belongs.

For the past two weeks Craig's wharf has had to charter a vessel to bring in a cargo of coal, but due to the lateness of the season none wish to go out.

The schooners Straubensee and Collier were lying under Four Mile Point this morning, awaiting clear weather. The Straubensee is bound for Toronto and the Collier for Oswego.

FINED TWO MEN

For Creating a Disturbance on Street Cars.

Walter Shuffelbottom, who was charged with assaulting William Webb, a conductor on the street railway, used the court this morning.

"I am guilty of doing a little, but the conductor started first," came the answer.

William Webb sworn said, prisoner was taken to the depot car, on Friday. He refused to pay and the car was stopped to let him off, and he declined to dismount. A tussle ensued and Shuffelbottom tore buttons from the conductor's coat and hit his fingers. He could do nothing but let Russell street. The conductor made a report to headquarters.

Sherring was a passenger on the car. He corroborated the previous witness. The other man with prisoner offered a bill and said he'd pay when they got half way down.

Defendant said he was going down with Capt. Grey. Grey would not let him. He wanted to pay but Grey would not let him. Grey showed a $5 bill and said, "There's your fare, and then put the money in his pocket. The conductor tried to put Grey off. He would not let him and a fight ensued. He had a glass and it was broken."

To W. F. Nickle. He did not offer the fare. The conductor did not ask him. Had had a drink or two.

John Grey was also charged with assault. He could do nothing but let him pay the fare, but offered to pay half way down.

Magistrate said—"I am satisfied Shuffelbottom created the disturbance. Shuffelbottom took part in the scuffle when Grey refused to pay. I must protect the public on the street cars. I fine you $5 or one month."

To Grey the magistrate said—"You are charged with refusing to pay your fare, $2 and costs of the day's wages. Defendant asked if he would be given a month to pay."

THE LEVANA TEA.

Successful as a Campaigning Centre.

The Levana tea, given annually by the flourishing society, belonging to Queen's women students, was, this year, more successful than its predecessors. The reading-room, where it was held on Saturday, was decorated very handsomely and great credit is due the committee, Mrs. Adam Shortt, and Miss Florence O'Donnell, president of the Levana, received the guests, and made them as welcome as the flowers in May.

The candy shop, cleverly erected between the four pillars which form a portion of the room, gave with color, did a rushing business, as may be inferred from the fact that more than $35 was taken in at the door. Queen's calendars, a most artistic production, for which the Whig was responsible, found ready buyers from their vendors, as did the ice cream sold in another corner of the room. As for the delicious coffee cake and sandwiches which were thrown in with the entrance fee, they disappeared in a twinkling before the summer sun. For the Queen's undergraduate, irrespective of gender, like every other well appointed undergraduate in the world, has a healthy appetite.

As an electioneering ground, the Levana tea has long been noted. With homely words, does the wily candidate solicit the favor of the fair one, but more especially does the wily candidate, by chocolate creams, and other often, with lambent smiles to his fair companions in the walks of learning, while he converses fluently on every thing, but votes. And the candidate, with a flourish of varied remarks, and later casts its vote for the candidate who is least far removed from the conception of Apollo. Telle est la vie.

A good brush saw at 50c., a good axe for 65c., at Yellow Hardware Store, opposite Grand Opera House.

PULPIT TRIBUTES

TO THE LATE MRS. BRUCE CARRUTHERS.

Ministers of Chalmers and St. Andrew's Churches Speak in Glowing Words—All Spheres of Good Work Have Lost a Fine Woman.

At the Sunday morning service in Chalmers church, Rev. Dr. Macgillivray made appropriate reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

Major Carruthers, the son of the late Major Carruthers, John, gentles, K.C.C. and Lieut.-Col. Rutherford, Ottawa, were present.

At the close of the morning service yesterday in St. Andrew's church, Rev. Dr. Mackie made the following reference to the late Mrs. Bruce Carruthers, who, he said, had passed away with a long and painful illness, borne with rare christian patience and fortitude.

Her death will be felt to be a great loss in the many spheres of God's work in this city, in which she manifested a deep, practical and generous interest. She was as capable as she was cheerful in rendering her aid. She loved her church in a very special manner, and was devoted and liberal to all its interests.

In her home life, she was gracious and hospitable, and in the circle of her most intimate associates a woman of charm and attractiveness, and greatly beloved. She loved life, and enjoyed the many gifts and comforts which Providence had conferred on her, and she remained much to live for, she complained not of her long and severe illness, and welcomed, as was becoming a finely tempered christian spirit, the end with its release and rest, hard as parting from her loved ones must have been. Under every circumstance her joy in her service was bright and assuring. Dr. Macgillivray closed with an expression of affectionate sympathy for himself and the congregation for her bereaved and sorrowing husband and father. The musical portion of the service was appropriate, the hymns being "O, My Am My Beloved" and "Peace, Perfect Peace." At the close, "The Dead March In Saul," was played, the congregation remaining till the end.

MISS UNA SAUNDERS

Speaks Eloquently For Indian Educational Work.

The quarterly meeting of the combined city branches of the Women's Auxiliary, was held, in St. James' schoolroom, on Saturday afternoon, at half-past three. Archdeacon Macgillivray presided, and the Rev. Dr. Mackie, president of the parochial branch, was in the chair. Miss Constance Cooke, read the minutes of the previous meeting, and secretaries and treasurers of the various branches, read full, and most satisfactory reports.

At four o'clock Miss Una Saunders, who is connected with the Student Volunteer Movement in India, began her address, and charmed everyone by the clear forthrightness of her appeal, and the vivid descriptions of the educational work among India's women.

Miss Saunders is a woman of much personal grace and attractiveness, and finds her way about with words with a clearness that marks the cultured Englishwoman.

As is pretty generally known the movement to which Miss Saunders belongs, is that great ten-year-old body, which has John R. Mott for its head, and "The evangelization of the world in this generation" its watch word. To the centuries' old culture of the west, it bears the light of the gospel, it bears, to shine in the dark corners of the ancient civilization, and it is the educational work among Indian children, and other, that Miss Saunders, is asking the members of the auxiliary and the financial aid of Canada at this time.

There was a large attendance at the Y.W.C.A. room at the meeting, when Miss Una Saunders spoke on the world wide work of the student-volunteer movement. Miss Rankin, Canadian college secretary of the Y.W.C.A., presided. Miss Saunders briefly touched on the work which has reached to China, Japan, South Africa, all the European countries, and indeed to almost every corner of the globe. She presented the spiritual side of the work in a way that appealed to her hearers, and her words will, doubtless, bear much fruit.

At the "drawing-room" meeting at Mrs. George Richardson's to-night, called to hear Miss Saunders, Miss Little, one of the national travelling lecturers of the college association, will address those present.

SCOTCH SOCIETIES

At St. Andrew's Church Last Evening.

The annual sermon to the Kingston Scotch societies was preached last evening in St. Andrew's church by Rev. W. S. Macdougall, Ph.D. There was a large congregation, and the services of St. Andrew's Society and the Sons of Scotland, in company with J. M. Farrell, president of the former, occupied the central front seats of the church. The opening prayer was the second psalm, "O God of Beth-el," and during the service, Mr. Craig sang, "I Am Far From My Home," to a Scotch melody. Dr. Macdougall expressed his regret over the inability of the Scotch society's chaplain, Rev. Prof. Macnaghten, to preach the sermon, which would do him health, and hoped he would be restored to his former vigor. He himself had been called upon to take the chaplain's place.

Dr. Macdougall's discourse was on "Friendship." He chose as text II Timothy i, 16-18, which verses tell of the friendship of Onesiphorus to Paul. He who has found a true friend has found a treasure, and such a friend will stand by him in adversity. One who plays the part of a true friend character of Christ. A writer has said that the sentiment of friendship is dying out. If that is true, the preacher declared, it will be a sad day for the world. Scotchmen and Scotchmen's sons cannot afford to let the sentiment of friendship die. Onesiphorus' friendship to Paul is a true picture of what real friendship should be. The apostle was refreshed by it and it was given without hope of any temporal reward. Such should be the spirit of the friendship in St. Andrew's Society, whose members in extending help to those in trouble could make that help as refreshing to the apostle. Onesiphorus was a true friend, who was the latter end to Rome he sought diligently and found Paul, in prison. When a man is in need, he needs help, that is the time to display friendship. It is then that the test is made as to whether friendship is real or not.

The closing praise was the well-known hymn, "From Ocean Unto Ocean," written by a Scotchman, Rev. Robert Murray, pastor of the Presbyterian Witness, Halifax, and who has just celebrated his golden jubilee as an editor.

After the service the Scotch societies met in the Sunday school hall of the church, and passed a vote of thanks to Rev. Dr. Macdougall for his able and helpful sermon.

LETTERS TO THE EDITOR.

Charles Hosmer, The Man.

Kingston, Nov. 25.—(To the Editor): I read in last night's Whig, Hiram Calvin's remarks to the Montreal Star about a certain Montreal gentleman, that he possesses a sincere regard for his neighbor, and is a telegraph operator in Kingston, and that he himself would not divulge his name. Well, Mr. Editor, when he was here, he was a small fellow in size, but a little good talker, very smart, quick and a liked him. He is a big fellow now, richest men in Montreal.—JOSEPH DIX.

The sheriff and deputy sheriff, of London, bought two prisoners of the penitentiary to day, Robert Fields and William Ross, sentenced to three years for robbery. This is their second term at Portmouth. Asked as to their offence they replied, "Oh we stole a pig and it squeaked."

William Swainley, organ tuner. Orders received at McAuley's book store.

THE DAY'S EPISODES

LOCAL NOTES AND THINGS IN GENERAL.

Occurrences in The City and Vicinity—Other Brief Items of Interest Easily Read and Remembered.

Do it now, and avoid the Christmas rush.

R. D. Hunt, Hamilton, is in the city on business.

Norman Hawley is ill at his home, on Bagot street.

C. McGillivray, Smith Falls, was in the city over Sunday.

J. G. Hay, Dawson, Y.T., is registered at the British American.

William Baker, Gannaque, was in town, over Sunday, visiting friends.

W. Mackenzie, who has been spending a few days in town, returned to day to Picton.

Your ad. should be in the Whig if you want Whig readers to know what you are doing.

Clarence W. Trimble, of Johannesburg, S.A., who is visiting in Naperville, is in town.

Col. F. L. Lessard, Toronto, Lieut.-Col. Gwatkin and Major Maunell, Ottawa, are registered at the Randolph.

Read the stories told by the store editors of the Whig. If there are good things to be had cheap they have them.

Hear Harvey Lloyd, Toronto society comic, at Canadian Order of Foresters' concert and hop, City hall, Wednesday night.

The 1906 tour for the Glidden trophy will start from Buffalo July 23rd, and continue for a fortnight. Kingston is to be visited.

A large assortment of horse blankets, halters, stirrings, halter chains, and horse bits at the Yellow Hardware Store.

Miss Ethel Ward, who has spent the past month with friends in Montreal, has returned to her home at Kingston Mills.

Excursions are being arranged for from Belleville, Brockville, Tweed and Sharbot Lake to bring people to see the new dam on the Ottawa river.

The Fortnightly Club give their second dance of the season to-night in Whig Hall. The club purpose organizing a snowshoe club for the winter.

Mrs. James Lawson, has returned to her home in Long Island City, New York. She was accompanied by her sister, Miss Haran, Bradford, Yorkshire, England.