The ministry of marine has received additional confirmation of the news that the mutineers have surrendered According to the Slavo, the mutineers themselves began the attack. The fight lasted for two and a quarter nours. The mutineers made a heroic struggle, but the odds were too heavy. The Listo says the conspicacy, which led to the mutiny went on even Vice Admiral Birileff, the minister of marine who was at Sebastopol a fortnight ago, suspected nothing. The sailors waited until they were assured of the support of the corps, most of whom, however, had refused to go over to the mutine rs
