Detroit, Mich.; Dec. 6 .- Whatever the outcome of the struggle between the wretern jockey clubs and the American Turi Association, the Western Jockey Club will have Detroit to itself The Highland Park Association has abandoned the race track at

Highland Park, Detroit, and will make Windsor its headquarters. The latter plant is to be greatly roved, and thirty new barns built, six hundred horses. The Windson dates have not been assigned, and robably will not be until after the American Turi Association meeting in January. But if 'the Grosse Point (Detroit) dates conflict, the Highland Park meeting, at Windsor, probably will be a long one. In any case it will follow the Toronto meeting. The Western Jockey Club has se cured the track at Fort Erie, at present held by Hendrie and Palmer, but will not come in possession for two years. Meantime the latter will build of a new track in the same vicinity, but in a location much more convenient to the ferry on the Canadian side, opposite Buffalo.
