THE AUTOCRAT OF THE BREAKFAST TABLE.

Now, kindly mark me well, my friends, in what I have to say...

And so 'twas tasteless, flat and tame, and I put in my kick...

And when this richness is unlocked by Nature's charm of heat...

And he, who knows the coffee plant know what is meant by that.

And being charred the oil escaped from out each tiny cell...

And so 'twas tasteless, flat and tame, and I put in my kick...

And when this richness is unlocked by Nature's charm of heat...

And he, who knows the coffee plant know what is meant by that.

And being charred the oil escaped from out each tiny cell...

And so 'twas tasteless, flat and tame, and I put in my kick...

And when this richness is unlocked by Nature's charm of heat...

And he, who knows the coffee plant know what is meant by that.

Told in the Twilight

Mrs. Jordan entertained at tea yesterday, for about twenty young people, and they all enjoyed themselves very much.

Mrs. Jordan herself poured coffee, and Miss Drummond cut the pies, Miss Ethel and Mr. Dennis Jordan, distributing the refreshments to the guests, who sat at small tables.

Those present were Miss Eleanor Macdonnell, Miss Gladys and Miss Green, Miss Jessie McCann, Miss Jessie Elkin, Miss McLaughlin, Miss Katie Workman, Miss Edith Young, Miss Etta Henderson, Mr. Lawrence Uglow, Mr. Douglas Ellis, Mr. Hunt and Mr. Norman Macdonnell, Mr. T. Jordan, Mr. Colin Orford, Mr. McLennan, Mr. Malloch, Mr. Dawson, Mr. Boak.

To-night, Mrs. Workman is giving a young people's dance.

Miss Vena Henderson was hostess, on Monday evening, at a jolly little euchre party, given in honor of Miss Ethel-Bunt, who leaves shortly for Antwerp.

At the meeting of the Junior Bridge Club, at Mrs. Rodrick Carter's, last night, Miss Brownfield, won the first prize for the girls, and Mr. Clyde Betts captured that for the men. This club will not meet again till after the Christmas holidays.

Mrs. Jordan gave a young people's tea on Tuesday afternoon, which was as pleasant as all this hostess' little hospitalities are.

The Levana Society of Queen's had a sociable afternoon yesterday, the members enjoying themselves in various ways. Miss Mackenzie sang very prettily, and Miss Low played.

Mrs. McLennan, wife of Mr. Justice McLennan, formerly Miss Strange, of Kingston, received in Ottawa, on Tuesday, for the first time since her marriage. She wore a gown of green crepe de chine, with cream lace yoke, and lace applique. She was assisted by her sister, Mrs. Ramsay Duff, and Mrs. Cotton. In the tea room, where the decorations were of yellow chrysanthemums, Miss Lily Fraser, Miss Jessie Macpherson and Miss Elsie Cotton presided.

To-night, after practice, the choir of Sydenham Street Methodist church, will go over to spend the remainder of the evening at Mrs. A. R. B. Williamson's. This thoughtfulness on the part of their retiring leader, will give them a warmer feeling of attachment to her than they have now, if that be possible.

Mrs. W. D. Carmichael, who has been in Brockville lately, is in town at present, and intends remaining in the city for a few days.

Lady Kirkpatrick was at home, on Tuesday, in honor of her sister, Mrs. Doherty, whom many were glad to greet, and who wore a beautiful dress of white tulle with lace and pearls.

Dr. and Mrs. C. K. Clarke are at No. 109 Queen street west, Toronto, and Mrs. Clarke will receive on Thursday during the season.

Miss Grace Bains, nurse-in-training at the Methodist Hospital, Ottawa, at her home on a two months' holiday.

Miss Daisy Fortescue is up from Montreal, for a few weeks' rest, at home, before entering on post-graduate work in the Montreal General Hospital, at the beginning of the new year.

Miss Levesque, and her sister, Miss Etta Levesque, who have been spending some months in Great Britain, France, Italy, Switzerland and Holland, paid a flying visit to town, yesterday, on their way to their home in Campbellford. They were with their cousin, Mrs. W. J. Fair.

While in England they spent a week at Petersfield, with their cousin, Mrs. Stafford Kirkpatrick, and her two daughters, Miss Etta Levesque will return to New York after Christmas. Miss Christie Melceat expects to leave for Isle of Orleans on Saturday.

Mrs. Charles Low has left for Aylmer, Ont., to spend the holidays at her father's. Mr. Low will go up to spend Christmas.

Miss Effie Robertson is back in Winnipeg after her visit with Mrs. Walsh at Vancouver, B.C. She will reach Kingston shortly before Christmas.

Lieut.-Col. Massie and wife are now in London, Eng. the colonel having been assigned duties at the war office for a few weeks. They have found the English people most kind and hospitable. They sail for Canada on the steamer Parisian on the 14th inst.

Miss Clare Kirby was in town for a day, this week, on her way from Pictou to New York, where she is to spend Christmas.

Mrs. Frederick Denison has about decided to remain in Kingston until Monday.

Lady Sybil Grey, who has been spending some months in Scotland and England, has sailed for home, and is expected in Ottawa next week.

The engagement is announced of: Miss Ramsay, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. James Ramsay, Peel street, Montreal, to Mr. James Elmsley, of the British North America Bank.

Miss Frances Scott Washington, of Birmingham, Ala., to Charles E. Paper, formerly of the Traders' Bank, Hamilton.

Miss Ida M. Peay, of Finch, Ont., to Dr. W. E. Crain, of Crystal, Ont. The marriage is to take place on Christmas day.

Invitations are out for the wedding of Miss Frances M. Copway, of Toronto, to Mr. Samuel Francis Passmore, M.A., of the local Collegiate Institute. The ceremony will be performed in St. Ann's church, Toronto, on December 18th.

EVENTS AT QUEEN'S ANNUAL MEETING OF RUGBY FOOTBALL CLUB.

Officers Elected and Referees Chosen—A Report on the Secretaryship—Lectures By Professors.

A well attended and enthusiastic meeting of the rugby football club was held in the arts' building, last evening, when officers for the ensuing year were elected: Honorary president, Dr. Mylks; president, F. J. Donovan vice-president, A. G. Cameron; secretary, treasurer, D. Ellis; captain of first team, George Richardson; captain of second team, L. Malcolm; board of referees, Dr. Etherington, Dr. Dalton, Dr. Richardson, Dr. Ross, W. F. Nickle, J. M. Farrell, R. Britton, R. K. Patterson, F. J. Donovan, R. M. Mills.

The race for the secretaryship was very close and never in years has so keen a contest been elicited. The majority for R. Potter, over Donald Cameron, was only a single vote.

Question of securing a coach for next year was also discussed and the unanimous opinion was that next fall the best available expert must be secured. A thing damper was also erected as Queen's has proven sadly deficient in that part of the game. A vote of thanks to the retiring executive was passed before the meeting adjourned.

The Glee, Mandolin and Guitar club gave a concert in Sydenham on Tuesday evening.

Lazarus Silver, a graduate of the School of Mines, is lecturing during the absence of Professor Brock.

An outcome of the recent close contest for the secretaryship of the Alma Mater Society, has been a request for a recount. But ten votes separated the two candidates, Messrs. Breckoff and Quigley. As the ballots marked in ink were not to be counted it was thought by many that a recount was advisable, so a meeting of the Alma Mater Society was held last evening to make the necessary arrangements.

Prof. Carmichael will lecture on "Wood Cuts and Book Illustration" on Saturday at 5 p.m.

The science court will meet on Monday evening when justice will be dealt to a number of offenders.

Dr. Goodwin delivered a lecture in connection with the history of medicine to the students on Tuesday afternoon, choosing as his subject "Paracetamol."

The invitations for the concert are being distributed by hand this year instead of through the post as on former occasions. The reason for this is that many disappeared when sent out by mail.

The medical class promises to be an unqualified success as the committee in charge is sparing no effort to make it eclipse every previous college function. It will be held on the evening of January the 25th.

GANANOQUE NEWS.

Hotel to Change Hands and Become Temperance Place.

Gananogue, Dec. 7.—Municipal affairs are being watched with the keenest interest in Gananogue at present. A battle royal is expected, with the chances about equal between the liquor and temperance parties. Each party is straining every nerve for the furtherance of the interests of their respective candidates. It is difficult at the present time to find out who will stand for the council.

Mr. and Mrs. J. Daniels, who arrived here from Manchester, Eng., on spring left on Tuesday morning for North Dakota, where they expect to reside. At the business meeting of the Manhood League on Tuesday evening, Dr. A. H. Baber was elected president, to fill the vacancy occasioned by the removal of J. Daniels from Gananogue.
