R. M. C. LETTER DISCUSSED AND ANSWERED.

Opinions Expressed by the Different Speakers-Regret Over the Bad Feeling Aroused - No Apology Forthcoming to the R.M.C.

"R.M.C., Dec. 8th, 1905. The Secretary Alma Mater Society, Queen's University, Kingston: "I am directed by the commandant to write you with reference to a dissurbance which took place on the R.M.C. grounds during the match between R.M.C. I and Varsity II, on November 18th. There seems no doubt that the disturbance was caused by Queen's students, many of whom were recognized as Queen's students. At a rrevious match on November 4th, the behavior of some of the spectators was most unseemly and a special force of military police was arranged for,
