THE INFANT DIED.

The Mother and Daughter Were Badly Burned.

New York Dec. 26.—The six-months-old child of Mrs. Alice Bowker, Allan avenue, Toronto, died in its mother's arms on Sunday night, while the woman was waiting in the Grand Central depot for the Montreal train to return home. Mrs. Bowker, with her mother, and the babe, came to New York on her way to England in the hope that the trip would mend Mrs. Bowker's health. As they were about to board the train, it was learned that her baby was in such condition that it could not stand the voyage. They were turned back from the steamer. Following this they were hounded on all sides, at the hotel, in the redemption of steerage tickets and otherwise. They found their way to the Grand Central station and while waiting for the train, the infant died of miasmas.

Alas! She Toiled.

This week's Story. A ladies' committee, desirous of collecting money for a good object, called its members to earn five shillings. When the money was paid each donor was asked to state what she had done. One had gained the five shillings. One had baked several cakes, another had knitted two pairs of stockings, a third had painted a picture. "How did you earn your money?" was asked of one woman. "I got it from my husband," she replied. "Oh, that won't do there." There was no hard work about that." The woman smiled a weary smile. "My husband wasn't there. You don't know my husband!"

CRISIS OF GIRLHOOD A TIME OF PAIN AND PERIL

Miss Emma Cole says that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has Saved Her Life and Made Her Well

Many lives of beautiful young girls have been sacrificed just as they were ripening into womanhood! How many irreversibilities or dislocations have been developed at this important period, resulting in years of suffering!

Girls' modesty and oversensitivity often puzzle their mothers and baffle physicians, because they withhold their confidence at this critical period.

A mother should confide in her doctor and remember that Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound will at this time prepare the systems for the coming change and start the menstrual period in a young girl's life without pain or irregularities.

Miss Emma Cole of Tullahoma, Tenn., writes:

Dear Mrs. Pinkham:

"I want to tell you that I am enjoying better health than I have for years, and I owe it all to Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound."

"When fourteen years of age I suffered almost constant pain, and for two or three years had soreness and pain in my side, headaches and was dizzy and nervous, and doctors all failed to help me."

"Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound was recommended, and after taking it my health began to improve rapidly, and I think it saved my life. I sincerely hope my experience will be of great service to other girls passing through womanhood, for I now know your Compound will do as much for them."

If you know of any young girl who is sick and needs motherly advice ask her to write Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., and she will receive free advice which will put her on the right road to a strong, healthy and happy womanhood.

FASHION'S FORM.

Pajamas For the Boarding-School Maid.

Quite the most popular of night wear with the boarding school girl today is the pajama suit of fine Scotch flannel for winter, and fine silk for summer. Dainty stripes and checks are used for these, and the real masculine finish is followed throughout. In cut they are a bit more dashing than the masculine article, the little saucy term "spring" on the under arm seems somewhat after the fashion of the new box coats.

The Kennebec Council.

Arden, Dec. 25.—The patrons of the Arden cheese factory were paid last week $1 per hundred, for milk delivered in October. W. G. Vanderburgh has returned to the village. At the nomination held Friday, Addison Miller was elected reeve, Benjamin Franklin Deller having retired. The following form the new council: W. McGregor, William F. Hawley, George W. Pringle, and Mr. Thompson, the latter taking the place of Willard Parks, who retires; the whole council being elected by acclamation, for the municipality of Kennebec, for 1906. David Andrew Osborne, township clerk, a newly appointed justice of the peace, has been chosen. It is reported that the Lake View hotel, for summer visitors, is about changing hands. Frederick MacLean from Deloraine, Manitoba, is home for a visit. Alexander Anderson is visiting W. T. Hunt. He formerly lived in Kennebec, but went to the North Woods for a time, and is now doing well. H. R. Sanderson is improving nicely. Willard Parks is home for Christmas. Service was held in the English church on Christmas morning. A Christmas tree was held in the town hall in the evening. Mr. Post, of North Fredericksburgh, is visiting his son, J. J. Post.

Have It In The House.

There is nothing else you can have in your house worth so much that costs so little as a bottle of St. Paul's White Liniment.

Mrs. Edward Crumley has sent Christmas greetings to many friends here. With her husband and children she is enjoying life in Los Angeles. They are at the Granada, 419 South Grand avenue. Mr. Crumley is much improved in health. The cards, with their California flowers and bright ribbons, were very dainty.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Botterell returned, to-day, to Montreal.

Sixty choirs, containing over 1,000 voices, took part in the thirty-second annual festival at St. Paul's, London, the London Church Choir Association. The lord mayor and sheriffs attended in state, and there was an immense congregation.

Belleville Man Drops Dead.

Belleville, Ont., Dec. 26.—Samuel H. Phippen, one of Belleville's prominent citizens, dropped dead at his home, last night. Heart disease was the cause of death. He was about sixty years of age.

Both father and mother of a five-month-old baby, turned to death in New York, have been arrested. The baby, the son of Frederick Shannon, was found in the kitchen, and the police believe carelessness caused the tragedy.

Mr. and Mrs. Francis Botterell returned, to-day, to Montreal.

Mr. McEwan, Windsor, the guest of Mrs. Clermont, University avenue, for some days, left for Toronto to-day.
