BABY'S TERRIBLE FACE HUMOUR

Would Scratch and Tear Away the Flesh—Neighbours Called it Worse Case Ever Seen—Grew Worse Under Doctors.

CURED BY ONE SET OF CUTICURA REMEDIES

"My baby's face was a mass of sores. The doctor called it eczema, but the child grew worse, the disease eating the flesh away from his nose, and spreading to his body."

BABY QUIRK'S CURE

"My baby was afflicted with a loathsome itching eczema on his face. Two doctors treated him for three months, but he grew worse."

CUTICURA A BLESSING

The suffering which Cuticura Soap and Ointment has alleviated among the young, and the comfort they have afforded worn-out and worried parents, have led to their adoption in countless homes as priceless curatives for birth humours, itchy crust, scalled heads, eczema, rashes, and every form of skin and scalp humours, with loss of hair, of infancy and age."

JOSEPH CREAMER'S OPINION

Regarding Inspection of Cheese Stations. Joseph Creamer, of Elginburg, as a leading spirit of the Frontenac cheese board has been asked for his opinion regarding proposals for inspection at central stations, and has replied to the Canadian Dairyman in criticism of the plan.

THE FAMILY DOCTOR

Rheumatic Bone Oil makes the calling of the doctor unnecessary. It will give relief before he could answer the call, and if faithfully used will cure the most stubborn attacks of rheumatism, neuralgia, lumbago, pain in the chest or back, soreness, sprains or strains. It is a powerful penetrating oil that goes straight to the seat of the trouble and roots out the cause. It relieves the stiffened joints, soothes the affected part and allays the inflammation which produces the torturing pain. It is therefore a valuable remedy not only for rheumatism, but for all kinds of aches and pains. It is equally good for croup, bronchitis and quinsy. One father writes that it cured his child of a violent attack of croup in five minutes. A mother writes that her boy was subject to quinsy and two or three times each year was confined to his bed and could not speak. When threatened with another attack this fall she rubbed his neck and throat with the Bone Oil, and by three applications ward off the attack. The wonderful curative powers of this remarkable remedy are being talked about by everybody. A bottle should be in every home. For sale by all medicine dealers at 50c. A bottle will be sent prepaid on receipt of 50c. by The Truck Bone Oil Co. Limited, Smith's Falls. Money refunded if not satisfied.

Told in the Twilight

Happy grandchildren, happy little friends of theirs, happy mother of the first named, and surely, a happy grandmother too, all gathered at the bidding of the latter, Mrs. Nickle, at her big home, on Earl street, on Thursday night. And there they romped and played all the old games that the heart of childhood delights in. About sixty-five invitations were sent out, and not one of the small people invited sent regrets, but just at the hour, or shortly after, trooped in for the evening's frolic, Helpan Mrs. Nickle to entertain them were her two daughters-in-law, Mrs. W. E. Nickle, and Mrs. Hugh Nickle, who had their own lovely children there of course. Miss Edith Polger, Mrs. E. H. Martin, Miss Beatrice Tansley, Miss Jessie Dickson, Miss Margaret King, Miss Katie and Miss Minnie Gordon, and Miss Agnes Richardson. The latter, whose story-telling power is great was found, sitting on the stairway, surrounded by a group of eager little listeners, too much fascinated by her tale to join the frolic in the room below. Here "Feather" and "Hide the Handkerchief," and "Gathering Nuts in May," kept everybody busy, and in the latter several of the tug-of-war showed plenty of the sporting spirit in both sexes. Tea was eaten at long tables, forty-six happy little people sitting down together, the twinkling lights, from red candles, shining on snowy frocks, and the earnest and prettiest boys of blue and pink and Dresden ribbons in hair and sash. Doubtless, in years to come, these little people will say, as a grown-up did yesterday, as she looked at the hospitable old hostess: "The nicest party I ever was at was in that house, when I was a very little girl."

Mrs. Workman, Johnston street, entertained the following young people at a dance Thursday night: Miss Eleanor Macdonald, Miss Chappelle, Miss Jessie MacCann, Miss Isabel Bell, Miss Jessie Ellis, Miss Vera Mandel, Miss Edith Young, Miss Gillies of Carleton Place, Mr. Cyril Knight, Mr. Douglas Ellis, Mr. Neil, Mr. Stuart, and Mr. Henry Polson. Mr. Dennis Jordan, Mr. Hugh Macdonald, Mr. Robertson, Mr. Campbell and Mr. Gillies.

Last summer Mr. and Mrs. W. G. Craig had under their wing, over on the island, a camp of very merry people, and the name that Mr. Craig thought most suited to his happy young charges was "Fah-jah-jah-ling," which in case you don't know it, means "Jolly Family." The camp, composed of twelve members, has now formed itself into a club, which will meet through the winter, each hostess devising the form the evening's entertainment shall take. The first meeting was at Miss Bell's, Smythe's, on Thursday night, and the games belonging to right to the Christmas season played. Members wear a most appropriate pin—an Indian's head, and bar with the name engraved.

Mrs. A. F. Chow's musicale, on Thursday, was a much enjoyed event of the week. Receiving with the hostess were her two daughters, Miss Daisy and Miss Ada, and Mr. Percy (Chow), and Miss Edith Mills and Miss Rita Mitchell, who sang. Tea was served, at the programme's close, Miss France, Miss Mabel and Miss Laura Mills, Mrs. Grace Hiscock, and Miss Rita Mitchell, assisting. The Truck was very prettily decked with flowers.

The handsome prizes won at Mr. and Mrs. H. B. Sherwood's "At Home," in Napacan, on Tuesday evening, were taken by Mrs. W. S. Her-ington (played as a gentleman), Dr. Ward, second, and Mrs. M. Ryan, the ladies' prize. Mr. Sherwood has an ideal home for functions of this nature, and there are no bounds to his hospitality.

One of the big family dinner parties and Christmas trees on the brightest day of the year, was that given by Dr. and Mrs. Ryan at Rockwood House.

Mrs. William Baker's cosy Clergy street home, sheltered a jolly little gathering of young people last night, who danced away a few pleasant hours, and enjoyed a delicious little supper.

Mrs. Phelan entertained at a very pleasant little Christmas tea on Thursday.

A few young people dropped into Mrs. Bernard Browne's, last night, to spend the evening with her two bright young nieces.

Mrs. Uglow's party, last night, for her little daughter, Helen, was composed of about forty merry little girls, who had all sorts of a good time. Each little maid was paired off with another, by number, and then in couples they proceeded to guess the riddles which were put up all about on the walls of the drawing-room. The guessers of the greatest number were Miss Dorothy Chown and Miss Lillian Murray, and they got the prize. Afterwards games of many kinds were played, and then supper was served, in very grown-up fashion at quartette tables.

Useful Almanac. There is always a welcome in the million homes of Canada for Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac, of which the 1906 edition has been mailed. It appears in a new and attractive cover and one of the most interesting features is the Diary Contest, in which prizes, amounting to $200, are offered for the best record of events kept in this almanac.

Probably the most useful part of this book, especially for farmers, is the weather forecast, which during the past year was wonderfully satisfactory, as is evidenced by letters received similar to this one from the great west.

All almanacs to be entered for the Diary Contest for 1906 must be received not later than January 15th, 1906. Whether you have been keeping a diary during 1905 or not, be sure to secure an almanac and enter the contest for 1906. A copy of Dr. Chase's Calendar Almanac will be sent free to anyone sending his name and address to Publishers, Bates & Co., Toronto, and mentioning this paper.
