

ather

uck, "I proud to be Red Feather Tea; rant in the cup, it, so well up, on over me, 'll guaran-tea.

m Ceylon

0 Cents.

er Tea Co., Toronto.

BAH SILKS

everywhere

is a magazine d take. Issued 4 ges beautifully rite for sample o. Ltd. St. John's, P.Q.

man's Greatest Bargain!

er in the history of subscrip- year choice of America's most- ONTARIO CHURCHMAN

AT OFFER

MAGAZINE - - 3.00 Our
- - - 1.90 price
- - - 1.00
MAGAZINE - 1.00 $3
Regular price, 6.00

s truly great offer more re- following $1 publications may rican Illustrated Magazine. in this list.

- Popular Mechanics
- American Boy
- Four-Track News
- Madame
- Little Folks (New)
- Garden Magazine
- Men and Women
- What to Eat
- Outdoors

ITISH WHIG, KINGSTON, ONT.

BER STAMPS

been at it, same address, since 1891. ills, Steel Stamps, Company Seals, Pub- et Sets for printing price cards. White etters, &c. Write us, we'll do the rest. ck, 9-11 King St. W., Toronto.

The Watch-Dog in your Vest Pocket

YOU can buy Health Insurance now. Several good "Accident" Companies sell it. Sixty dollars per week will bring you $25.00 per week, for every week you are Sick. But, your time alone may be worth far more than that. And $300 per week might not pay for your suffering. That's why "Casaree" Insurance which prevents Sickness, is worth ten times as much money as other "Health" Insurance. Yet "Casaree Insurance" will cost you less than Ten Cents a week. That gives you a "Vest Pocket" Box to carry constantly.

"Indigestion" means food eaten but only partially digested. "Constipation" means food retained in the body undigested too long, till it decays. It then supplies the poisons of decay to the system, in place of the nourishment it might have supplied. Isn't that a tremendous handicap worth bearing against? What does it cost to Cure Constipation or Indigestion, with their train of small and great ills, and to insure against a return of them? Not so very much. One 10 cent box of Casaree's per week, at most, perhaps half that. One candy tablet night and morning, taken regularly for a short time, is warranted to cure the worst case of Constipation or Indigestion that walks the earth.

One tablet taken whenever you suspect you need it will insure you against 90 per cent of all other ills likely to attack you. Because 90 per cent of these ills begin in the Bowels, or exist through poor Nutrition. Casaree's don't purge, don't weaken, don't irritate, nor upset your stomach. No, they act like Exercise on the Bowels, instead. They stimulate the Bowel-Muscles to contract and propel the Food naturally past the little valves that mix Digestive Juices with Food. They strengthen these Bowel-Muscles by exercising them. The Bowel-Muscles can thus, in a short time, dispense with any drug assistance whatever.

The time to take a Casaree is the very minute you suspect you need one. —When your Tongue is coated a little. —When your breath is not above suspicion. —When your head feels dull, dizzy, or achy. —When you have eaten too heartily, or too rapidly. —When you have drunk more than was good for your digestion. —When you have a touch of Heart-burn, Gas-belching, Acid-rising-in-throat, or a Coming-on-Cold.

Carry the "Vest Pocket" Box where it belongs, just as you would your Watch, Pocket-knife or Lead-pencil. It costs only 10 cents. At any drug-gist. Be sure you get the genuine, made only by the Sterling Remedy Company, and never sold in bulk. Every tablet stamped "CCC."

A sample and the famous booklet "Curse of Constipation." Free for the asking. Address Sterling Remedy Company, Chicago or New York.

Home Savings Banks

DEPOSIT ONE DOLLAR and test the use of one as a MONEY SAVER.

MILLS & CUNNINGHAM Sole Proprietors.

A REAL TREAT Which will bring delight to ninety-nine out of a hundred of your friends at your afternoon tea. In some of our assortment of fine Chocolates, delicious, sweet, of fine flavour, wholesome. No wonder so well so much of it. No wonder it's always fresh. Try a pound or two and you will join the rest in singing its praises, from 20c. to 50c. per lb.

T. PETERS & CO. 184 Princess St. Phone 649

CAPILLI FORMA

A clean healthy tonic. Guaranteed to produce a luxuriant growth of hair, falling and grey hair. Is a positive cure for dandruff, neuralgia, dandruff and other tormenting troubles. Received the States Health Reports. Satisfaction given or money refunded. One bottle of this famous Hair Tonic will give away with each cash order. Manufactured and sold by MRS. E. ELDER, 253 Princess Street KINGSTON

Nash's News Depot

Clarence Street, Opposite Cab Stand ALL THE LATEST MAGAZINES AND PAPERS Phone 490

New York Chinese Restaurant

83 Princess St. OPEN DAY AND NIGHT Daily Viands prepared by an experienced chef, tastily served by experienced waitresses. Single meals, 25c.; 5 meals for $1. Special rates to permanent boarders.

Wm. Murray, Auctioneer

27 BROCK ST. New Carriages, Cutters, Harness, etc., for sale. Sale of Horses Every Saturday

Matronly Jewels

The Amethyst has been referred to as the "Matronly Jewel"—and the epithet is undoubtedly apt. The new Diamond Hat has an unusually extended range of Amethyst Brooches, Pendants, Rings, Necklets, etc.

One Brooch of compelling beauty consists of a large Amethyst surrounded with 30 Whole Pearls—the price being $32, postpaid.

RYRIE BROS. LIMITED 134-138 YONGE ST. TORONTO - ONT.

Baby's Own Soap

A soap worthy of Baby—threefold good enough for any skin. Pure, Fragrant, Cleansing. Albert Toilet Soap Co., Mfrs. MONTREAL. No other soap has all its qualities.

Dyeing with Soap!

Maypole Soap is the Household Dye that washes and dyes with one operation. Used almost exclusively in England. Yields fast, brilliant colors. Dyes to any shade. No streaks. And above all—CLEANLY, SAFE, SURE.

Maypole Soap is Sold Everywhere. Mfr. J. J. Colwell—15, J. J. Black.

PHONE FOR A CAB

WHEN NEEDING A CAB Phone 490, Clarence Street Cab Stand, and you will get a prompt answer.

A Doctor's Medicine

Ayer's Cherry Pectoral is not a simple cough syrup. It is a strong medicine, a doctor's medicine. It cures hard cases of coughs and desperate cases. Especially good in bronchitis, pleurisy, consumption. Ask your own doctor all about taking it. We have no agents. J. C. Lowell, Secy. the firm of all our medicines. 2, Colwell, Mass.

DOUBLE-DECKED WAS LUCKY KINGSTONIAN'S CHRISTMAS DINNER.

Comparisons to the Disadvantage of Colorado — The Wicked Makes Better Time When He is Pursued.

Denver, Col., Dec. 25.—(To the Editor) I have just done ample justice to a fine Christmas dinner, but wishing with all my heart I could have been with my dear ones at home in Kingston. However, duty kept me here and realized fully the truth of the witty Irishman's saying, "A man can't be in two places at once unless he's twins." I dined with a friend who was also celebrating his wedding anniversary, so I had a double-decked or I should say a double-header dinner, but was not at all embarrassed thereby. My friend brought over a healthy Canadian appetite, equal to emergencies. I was not in the fix of a gentleman who arrived last summer from the Emerald Isle, and went into the Walker-Astoria to have his dinner. The waiter, seeing the darkies, equal to emergencies, and shirt bosoms of vast extent. The menu cards were printed in French. Patrick was not going to let a darky know he could not read French, and so said when it was presented to him, "I'll take the first article on the list." It was a bowl of soup. Soon the waiter was around again and Patrick said, "I'll take the second article on the list," and it was another bowl of soup. Again the waiter came to him, and thinking surely there would be no more soup, he said, "I'll take the third article on the list," and got a third bowl of soup. Again the waiter presented the card and he said, "I'll take the fourth on the list," feeling quite satisfied there would be no more soup but to his disgust in came his fourth bowl of soup. He resolved to take no more chances and when the waiter again came, he said with a dash of his hand from top to bottom of the bill of fare, "I'll take all the rest," and soon he was almost surrounded with such a spread of fish, flesh and fowl, vegetables and pastry, as the dear fellow had never seen in his life before. Instead of taking it he held up his hands in despair and groaned, "Och hoo! Och hoo! the chance of my life, and I'm full of soup."

I have been making comparisons between one way of doing things, the Colorado style to the disadvantage of Colorado, but on one point they are first class, viz. in their keeping of Christmas. Here, in their way of doing things, they carried out the true Christmas spirit. The Denver Post was the originator of it. Their delivery wagons and many others met at their headquarters, and with a new-boy hand started to take their goods contributed by generous business men and citizens, so that all Denver's poor might be made happy. And the wagons came back loaded heavily. The Salvation Army, and volunteers in a rival organization, the churches, all made splendid provision to feed and clothe the hungry, preaching a very practical christianity, and the Democratic club gave a dinner to any and every one who came along, rich or poor who claimed kinship with the party.

I started for the Central Presbyterian church, yesterday, (Sunday) morning, expecting service to begin at eleven o'clock, but on my way I found that at 10:30 was the hour. So I turned into the Methodist Episcopal church, which was just at hand. It is a handsome church, and a wealthy congregation. There was special music and an extra attraction, in the shape of a fine orchestra, violins, piccolo, flutes, besides the grand organ, and a hundred voices, male and female. The singing was grand, especially the Hallelujah chorus, which conducted the musical portion of the service. As I looked at the choir leader and his flying hands, arms and baton, I could not help thinking of Bengough's cartoon in Grip, of lamented memory. It was the time of the centenary meeting of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a cartoon. There was a handsome church and a handsome crowd of fashionably-dressed ladies and gentlemen, walking up the steps, whilst carriages, with cones and footmen, were bringing up loads of others. And a bulletin board announced "Prima Donna Madame So-and-So, was going to sing a solo." In the middle of the road, in a faded black coat, poor old John Wesley was holding up his hands despairingly, and saying, "And this is Methodism, I'd never have known it." But I enjoyed it, and I think especially the violin.

In the evening I attended Dr. Cook's services at the Central Presbyterian church. Dr. Cook was informed, is a Canadian from Cobourg. Again there was a splendid church and a large, wealthy-looking, fashionable congregation. It is a handsome church and abundantly provided with Sunday school and other rooms. A choir of about thirty voices, beautifully trained, and no choir leader, at least none with the usual antics, arms and body and came flying. They have a leader of course, but he was not in evidence, and whilst I am not disposed to be critical, I don't like that particular performance. I think John Knox would have condescended with dear old Wesley and said, "If this is Presbyterianism, I fail to recognize it," but I think Dr. Andrew's, in Kingston, has as much in their order of service. I remember the first time I was a worshipper there (I was just from the country) I said to a witty young friend as we were coming out, "Is this a Presbyterian church?" and got the answer, "Yes."

HON. JOHN BURNS BY ONE WHO HAS WATCHED HIS CAREER.

Splendid Service Rendered to London — Independence and Courage Are His Chief Characteristics.

London Chronicle. We congratulate English government on the appointment of John Burns. The central board never before had a man at its head with Mr. Burns' practical knowledge of municipal life, and one who will work hard for the party, and besides were all union men any way. Let me finish with a piece of good humor furnished by the president of the temperance league. He was allowed a few minutes at the close of the morning service, in the M. E. church, and urged the members present to write or wire their senators and representatives to take action such as the statute books prohibiting legislation. Then the league could get the violators off the list, and said he, "Though the wicked few when no man pursue, he makes better time when there is somebody after him."

Hoping Kingston's Christmas has been a happy one, and wishing that her new year may be a prosperous one.—A. B. LOWE.

PRINCESS BIANCA STIGLIANO-COLONNA.

Granddaughter of Mrs Mackay, was married to Count D'Almeida, a wealthy nobleman, connected with the Castellanos, on December 29th, in Paris.

WIFE OF AN HOUR.

Bride Skipped From Paris Hotel With $4,000.

London Daily Mail. A M. Binet met with an experience which he is likely to remember for the remainder of his life.

He recently made the acquaintance of a young woman, aged about twenty-two, with whom he became so infatuated that he begged her to become his wife. The marriage ceremony took place on Tuesday in Paris, and the wedding dinner was given in a well-known Paris restaurant. The bride looked charming in her white robes of immaculate and flawless material. After the dinner came the ball, and then M. Binet took his bride home.

She removed her white veil and her orange blossom, and then suddenly became deathly pale, and leaning against a sideboard gasped, "A doctor, a doctor!"

The horrified bridegroom rushed out to fetch a doctor, and in less than a quarter of an hour came rushing back with him in a cab.

When they got up to the room there were no signs of the bride, though her wedding gown lay on the bed. She had gone, and had taken with her a sum of $4,000 which M. Binet had put away in his portfolio. The bridegroom immediately went with the doctor to inform the local police magistrate of his adventure, and learned to his astonishment that as he had married the lady he could not arrest her, as according to French law, a husband cannot charge his wife with any criminal offence.

"The only thing you can do," said the magistrate, "is to take proceedings to arrest your wife to return to her conjugal duty."

And with this sorry consolation the bridegroom returned to his solitary home.

NEW STYLE OF SWINDLING.

It Encounters Attorney-General of Post Office.

New York, Dec. 30.—A new style of swindling has just come to light and has encountered the attorney-general of the post-office, who has issued a fraud order against it. The swindle is a new one, and the post-office department has issued a ban upon it this week. An advertisement appeared at intervals in the Herald that a man in Watertown had $60,000 to invest. Parties who wrote to the address received answers that there was no money, and it was stated that it would be necessary to write to a certain party in New York. This person, who had two other addresses, letters being forwarded to him from one to the other, wrote to the man or firm desiring funds that the money was ready to loan if the business showed up satisfactorily, to ascertain which it would be necessary that this man be employed to investigate the concern at $50 per week, and five per cent. of the amount asked and his expenses to and from Montreal and Watertown, to consult his clients. If the would-be borrower wouldn't pay that, that ended the negotiation, if he did pay, investigation was made and after due interval the applicant for funds was informed that the investigation proved unsatisfactory and that no further communication would be held on the subject.

TOBACCO HABIT

Dr. McTaggart's tobacco remedy removes all desire for the weed in a few days. A vegetable medicine, and only requires touching the tongue with it occasionally. Price $2.

LIQUOR HABIT

Marvelous results from taking his remedy for the liquor habit. Safe and inexpensive. Home treatment; no hypodermic injections, no publicity, no loss of time from business, and a cure certain. Address or consult Dr. McTaggart, 75 Yonge street, Toronto, Canada.

DOUBLE-DECKED WAS LUCKY KINGSTONIAN'S CHRISTMAS DINNER.

Comparisons to the Disadvantage of Colorado — The Wicked Makes Better Time When He is Pursued.

Denver, Col., Dec. 25.—(To the Editor) I have just done ample justice to a fine Christmas dinner, but wishing with all my heart I could have been with my dear ones at home in Kingston. However, duty kept me here and realized fully the truth of the witty Irishman's saying, "A man can't be in two places at once unless he's twins." I dined with a friend who was also celebrating his wedding anniversary, so I had a double-decked or I should say a double-header dinner, but was not at all embarrassed thereby. My friend brought over a healthy Canadian appetite, equal to emergencies. I was not in the fix of a gentleman who arrived last summer from the Emerald Isle, and went into the Walker-Astoria to have his dinner. The waiter, seeing the darkies, equal to emergencies, and shirt bosoms of vast extent. The menu cards were printed in French. Patrick was not going to let a darky know he could not read French, and so said when it was presented to him, "I'll take the first article on the list." It was a bowl of soup. Soon the waiter was around again and Patrick said, "I'll take the second article on the list," and it was another bowl of soup. Again the waiter came to him, and thinking surely there would be no more soup, he said, "I'll take the third article on the list," and got a third bowl of soup. Again the waiter presented the card and he said, "I'll take the fourth on the list," feeling quite satisfied there would be no more soup but to his disgust in came his fourth bowl of soup. He resolved to take no more chances and when the waiter again came, he said with a dash of his hand from top to bottom of the bill of fare, "I'll take all the rest," and soon he was almost surrounded with such a spread of fish, flesh and fowl, vegetables and pastry, as the dear fellow had never seen in his life before. Instead of taking it he held up his hands in despair and groaned, "Och hoo! Och hoo! the chance of my life, and I'm full of soup."

I have been making comparisons between one way of doing things, the Colorado style to the disadvantage of Colorado, but on one point they are first class, viz. in their keeping of Christmas. Here, in their way of doing things, they carried out the true Christmas spirit. The Denver Post was the originator of it. Their delivery wagons and many others met at their headquarters, and with a new-boy hand started to take their goods contributed by generous business men and citizens, so that all Denver's poor might be made happy. And the wagons came back loaded heavily. The Salvation Army, and volunteers in a rival organization, the churches, all made splendid provision to feed and clothe the hungry, preaching a very practical christianity, and the Democratic club gave a dinner to any and every one who came along, rich or poor who claimed kinship with the party.

I started for the Central Presbyterian church, yesterday, (Sunday) morning, expecting service to begin at eleven o'clock, but on my way I found that at 10:30 was the hour. So I turned into the Methodist Episcopal church, which was just at hand. It is a handsome church, and a wealthy congregation. There was special music and an extra attraction, in the shape of a fine orchestra, violins, piccolo, flutes, besides the grand organ, and a hundred voices, male and female. The singing was grand, especially the Hallelujah chorus, which conducted the musical portion of the service. As I looked at the choir leader and his flying hands, arms and baton, I could not help thinking of Bengough's cartoon in Grip, of lamented memory. It was the time of the centenary meeting of the Methodist Episcopal church, and a cartoon. There was a handsome church and a handsome crowd of fashionably-dressed ladies and gentlemen, walking up the steps, whilst carriages, with cones and footmen, were bringing up loads of others. And a bulletin board announced "Prima Donna Madame So-and-So, was going to sing a solo." In the middle of the road, in a faded black coat, poor old John Wesley was holding up his hands despairingly, and saying, "And this is Methodism, I'd never have known it." But I enjoyed it, and I think especially the violin.

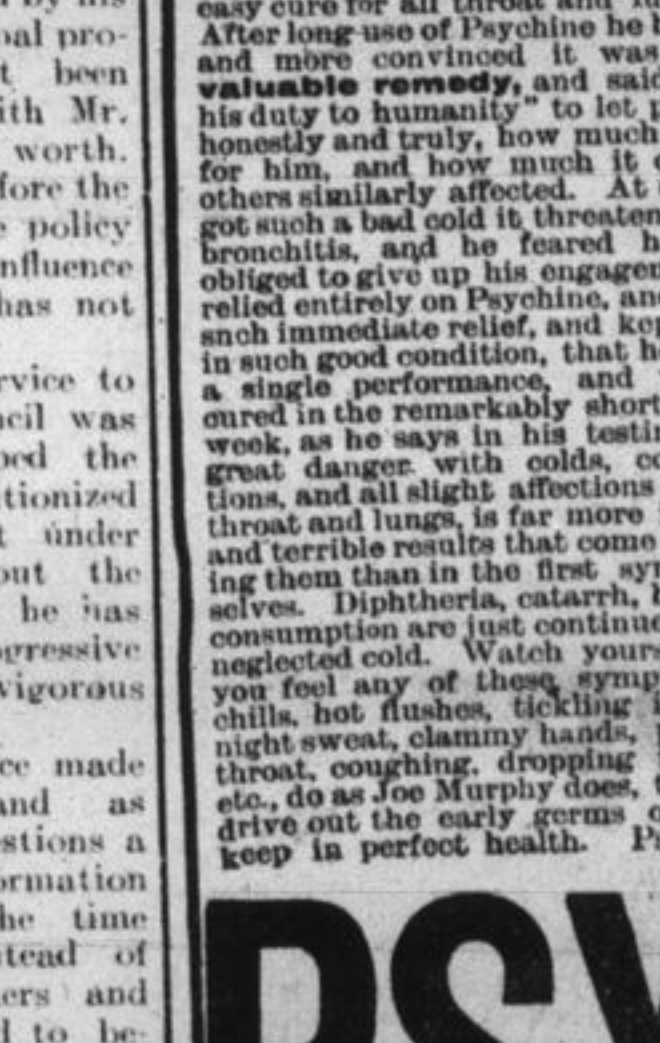

In the evening I attended Dr. Cook's services at the Central Presbyterian church. Dr. Cook was informed, is a Canadian from Cobourg. Again there was a splendid church and a large, wealthy-looking, fashionable congregation. It is a handsome church and abundantly provided with Sunday school and other rooms. A choir of about thirty voices, beautifully trained, and no choir leader, at least none with the usual antics, arms and body and came flying. They have a leader of course, but he was not in evidence, and whilst I am not disposed to be critical, I don't like that particular performance. I think John Knox would have condescended with dear old Wesley and said, "If this is Presbyterianism, I fail to recognize it," but I think Dr. Andrew's, in Kingston, has as much in their order of service. I remember the first time I was a worshipper there (I was just from the country) I said to a witty young friend as we were coming out, "Is this a Presbyterian church?" and got the answer, "Yes."

HON. JOHN BURNS BY ONE WHO HAS WATCHED HIS CAREER.

Splendid Service Rendered to London — Independence and Courage Are His Chief Characteristics.

London Chronicle. We congratulate English government on the appointment of John Burns. The central board never before had a man at its head with Mr. Burns' practical knowledge of municipal life, and one who will work hard for the party, and besides were all union men any way. Let me finish with a piece of good humor furnished by the president of the temperance league. He was allowed a few minutes at the close of the morning service, in the M. E. church, and urged the members present to write or wire their senators and representatives to take action such as the statute books prohibiting legislation. Then the league could get the violators off the list, and said he, "Though the wicked few when no man pursue, he makes better time when there is somebody after him."

Hoping Kingston's Christmas has been a happy one, and wishing that her new year may be a prosperous one.—A. B. LOWE.

PRINCESS BIANCA STIGLIANO-COLONNA.

Granddaughter of Mrs Mackay, was married to Count D'Almeida, a wealthy nobleman, connected with the Castellanos, on December 29th, in Paris.

WIFE OF AN HOUR.

Bride Skipped From Paris Hotel With $4,000.

London Daily Mail. A M. Binet met with an experience which he is likely to remember for the remainder of his life.

He recently made the acquaintance of a young woman, aged about twenty-two, with whom he became so infatuated that he begged her to become his wife. The marriage ceremony took place on Tuesday in Paris, and the wedding dinner was given in a well-known Paris restaurant. The bride looked charming in her white robes of immaculate and flawless material. After the dinner came the ball, and then M. Binet took his bride home.

She removed her white veil and her orange blossom, and then suddenly became deathly pale, and leaning against a sideboard gasped, "A doctor, a doctor!"

The horrified bridegroom rushed out to fetch a doctor, and in less than a quarter of an hour came rushing back with him in a cab.

When they got up to the room there were no signs of the bride, though her wedding gown lay on the bed. She had gone, and had taken with her a sum of $4,000 which M. Binet had put away in his portfolio. The bridegroom immediately went with the doctor to inform the local police magistrate of his adventure, and learned to his astonishment that as he had married the lady he could not arrest her, as according to French law, a husband cannot charge his wife with any criminal offence.

"The only thing you can do," said the magistrate, "is to take proceedings to arrest your wife to return to her conjugal duty."

And with this sorry consolation the bridegroom returned to his solitary home.

NEW STYLE OF SWINDLING.

It Encounters Attorney-General of Post Office.

New York, Dec. 30.—A new style of swindling has just come to light and has encountered the attorney-general of the post-office, who has issued a fraud order against it. The swindle is a new one, and the post-office department has issued a ban upon it this week. An advertisement appeared at intervals in the Herald that a man in Watertown had $60,000 to invest. Parties who wrote to the address received answers that there was no money, and it was stated that it would be necessary to write to a certain party in New York. This person, who had two other addresses, letters being forwarded to him from one to the other, wrote to the man or firm desiring funds that the money was ready to loan if the business showed up satisfactorily, to ascertain which it would be necessary that this man be employed to investigate the concern at $50 per week, and five per cent. of the amount asked and his expenses to and from Montreal and Watertown, to consult his clients. If the would-be borrower wouldn't pay that, that ended the negotiation, if he did pay, investigation was made and after due interval the applicant for funds was informed that the investigation proved unsatisfactory and that no further communication would be held on the subject.

TOBACCO HABIT

Dr. McTaggart's tobacco remedy removes all desire for the weed in a few days. A vegetable medicine, and only requires touching the tongue with it occasionally. Price $2.

LIQUOR HABIT

Marvelous results from taking his remedy for the liquor habit. Safe and inexpensive. Home treatment; no hypodermic injections, no publicity, no loss of time from business, and a cure certain. Address or consult Dr. McTaggart, 75 Yonge street, Toronto, Canada.

Joe Murphy--the Veteran of the American Stage

His Voice Preserved at the Age of Sixty-four. Thrills His Audiences with Undiminished Power.

He tells the Secret of His Health and the Preservation of His Voice "for the Benefit of Humanity," as He Himself Expresses It.

America is in possession of a perfect health, and an unimpaired voice. His vigorous nature, and the fact that he has never lost a single note of his beautiful voice, is a simple look, and a simple strength of mind and frame at 64 years of age is so good as to arouse the curiosity of thousands to know the secret of such preservation. The way he performs the part of a young man, so true to the life in action, voice, and gesture, as he does in Kerry Grew, and the way he sings such beautiful songs as "A Handful of Earth," "Night after Night," without detriment to his voice or throat, is marvellous. Mr. Murphy tells the public how he has saved his voice so long. In the first place, he never lets a drop of alcohol of any kind get near his throat. He has tried scores of remedies, but never until he used PSYCHINE did he find his true ideal of a quick, sure and easy cure for all throat and lung troubles. After long use of PSYCHINE he became more and more convinced it was the only valuable remedy, and said he "felt it honestly and truly, how much it had done for him, and how much it could do for others similarly affected. At one time he was obliged to give up his engagement, but he relied entirely on PSYCHINE, and it gave him such immediate relief, and kept his throat in such good condition, that he did not lose a single performance. He was entirely cured in the remarkably short time of one week, as he says in his testimonial. The great danger with colds, coughs, irritation, and all slight affections of the nose, throat and lungs is far more in the certain and terrible results that come from neglecting them than in the first symptoms themselves. Diphtheria, catarrh, bronchitis and consumption are just continued stages of a common cold. Watch yourself, and when you feel any of these symptoms, such as chills, hot flashes, itching in the throat, night sweats, clammy hands, phlegm in the throat, coughing, drooping in the throat, etc., do as Joe Murphy does, take PSYCHINE, and you will be able to drive out the early germ of disease, and keep in perfect health. PSYCHINE is not only good for the throat and lungs, but is good for stomach troubles, and acts as a general tonic to the system. For checking the symptoms of the early stages of disease, nothing ever prescribed is so efficacious as PSYCHINE. Sold all over Canada, by every druggist in the Dominion, for $1 per bottle.

Joseph Murphy, Veteran Actor

"I deem it my duty to make public the great benefit I have received by taking PSYCHINE. I was threatened with Asthma, but it has disappeared entirely, and I have only been taking the medicine one week. It has given me speaking and singing voice renewed and power, and I advise all public speakers, actors and singers never to be without it." "JOSEPH MURPHY."

PSYCHINE

(PRONOUNCED SI-KEEN)

Never known to fail when taken according to directions. Druggists are always ready to hand out Psychine when asked for, as they know its merits. Price $1.00 per bottle. Ask your druggist, or order from

Dr. T. A. SLOCUM, Limited, Laboratories, 179 King St. West, Toronto

E. B. Eddy's

Rising Star

Parlor Match

In neat attractive boxes containing about 750 MATCHES ASK YOUR GROCER FOR THEM It will cost you only 5c. to try them.

GOLD MEDAL AWARDED, WOMAN'S EXHIBITION, LONDON, 1900.

Neave's

For Infants, Invalids, And The Aged.

Nearly 80 Years' Established Reputation.

DR. BARNARDO SAYS: "We have already used Neave's Food in two of our Homes (Babies' Castle and the Village Home), and I have no hesitation in saying it has proved very satisfactory."—July 27th, 1901.

Manufacturers: JOSIAH R. NEAVE & CO., FORDINGBRIDGE, ENGLAND. Wholesale Agents:—THE LYMAN BROS. & Co., Ltd., Toronto & Montreal.

Useful Articles

CARVING SETS from 50c. up to $10. A large assortment of KNIVES AND FORKS from 70c up to $15 per dozen. RAZORS, 90c. up to $5 each.

Bissell Carpet Sweepers.

"STRANSKY" CELEBRATED AGATEWARE in Fancy Tea and Coffee Pots. "ARGENTINE" SILVER TEA & COFFEE POTS.

ELLIOTT BROS.

77 Princess Street. Phone 35.