A BIG MUTINY Of Strikers Bomarded By Artillery.

THOUSAND PEOPLE BURIED IN MILL'S RUINS, AND KILLED.

Doubassoff Expects Moscow to Be Cleared of Revolutionists in Three Days—Plan to Corner and Kill Livonian Insurgents.

St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—Gov. Gen. Doubasoff telegraphed to the government from Moscow that a large meeting of revolutionists and strikers at the Prokhoroff cotton mill, outside the city, was surrounded by troops of all arms on Saturday.

The artillery opened a terrific bombardment, and made a large rent in the walls, which suddenly crumbled and the building came down in a heap. Hundreds, if not a thousand, persons were buried in the ruins.

Doubassoff regards the Prokhoroff mill as the stronghold of the revolutionists, and he reports that Moscow will be entirely cleared of them in three days.
The general also reports that "Loyalists who assembled in the Sokolniki district, in the outskirts of Moscow, from marching into the city for the purpose of attacking the strikers, revolutionists and Jews."

The police force of Moscow has been increased by a thousand men, and the nightwatchmen by two thousand men.

Corner And Kill.
Riga, Dec. 29.—It is said that the new governor-general, with 32,000 additional troops is planning to wipe out the revolutionary movement by surrounding Livonia and Courland and driving all the revolutionaries into a bag-shaped corner of Courland, between Riga and Libau, where they will be annihilated, warships cutting off all escape by sea.

New Minister of Justice.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—M. Skymoff, a member of the senate, has been appointed minister of justice, in succession to M. Manukhin. The resignation of M. Manukhin, who had been acting as minister of justice, had been accepted without discussion. The railroad service has been re-established here.

Men In Women's Clothing.
London, Jan. 2.—Belated details of the uprising at Moscow, continue to arrive here. The most sober correspondents concur in stating that the exact figures have been greatly exaggerated. The exact figures, of course, will never be known, but the limits of credulity do not embrace such limits as were lately printed that they were nearly 20,000. To say that they were a number of a hundred to two thousand killed, and a proportionate number wounded. Many corpses of men, in women's clothing, have been found in the ruins, which explains the tactics of a general of women taking part in the fight.

Premier Witte's Plan.
St. Petersburg, Jan. 2.—It is learned from a high source that Premier Witte is strongly urging the emperor to promulgate a moderate constitution for the liberals that the present war against the "Reds" does not mean reaction, and blocking the attempt, which undoubtedly will be made when the national assembly convenes to transform this body into a constituent assembly. Moreover, the plan has other heavy backing, and the emperor is showing an inclination to accept it.

Passion of Bloodshed.
London, Jan. 2.—The St. Petersburg correspondent of the Times cables: "St. Petersburg is a work of everywhere resumed, and people are busy preparing for Christmas. The certain has been run up since upon and sanguinary drama of Moscow, and the satirical caricature of the Prokhoroff navigating a vessel on a sea of blood. The newspapers publish long accounts of the fighting, and the soldiers of scenes of butchery and ghastly reprisals of revolutionaries. A veritable passion of bloodshed appears to have crept over the city. Stories are told of inoffensive citizens suddenly becoming seized with homicidal mania, in church bellies, to shoot all within range."

Millions of Damage.
Moscow, Jan. 2.—In the Prokhoroff cotton mill, the revolutionists made their last stand, to-day; after the rebels had given their guns. The investigators of the revolt with other revolutionaries were crushed. The Semenovskiy regiment occupied the quarters without further fighting. The total number of arrests was four. Prison quarters had been warned, and not able to escape before the bombardment began. The authorities have ordered homes for women and children who are without shelter. The damage is property of other revolutionaries to millions of roubles. Military reinforcements continue to arrive, and before comments.

Local Option Carried.
Allenford, Ont., Jan. 2.—Local option was carried here by forty-eight majority.
In Blinsloe, local option was carried by thirty-five majority.
Cataract, Jan. 2.—Local option was carried in Kingston township by twenty majority.

Thomas Eyles, a laborer, was found dead in bed at Stratford.

HONORED PREFONTAINE.

The Funeral in Paris Largely Attended.

Paris, Dec. 30.—Long before the hour set for the funeral services of the late Hon. Raymond Prefontaine in La Madeleine, large crowds endeavored to gain admission, but only ticket holders were admitted. Among those present were the British Ambassador and staff; M. Rouvier, prime minister of France; M. Doumer, president of the chamber of deputies; Sir Charles Rivers Wilson, president of the Grand Trunk; Secretary Griffiths, representing Lord Strathcona; Col. Hutchinson, Alphonse Lemieux, James Brodie Archer, Montreal, and M. Thompson, French minister of marine. The Canadian colony in London and Paris was also largely represented.

A very large number of wreaths were sent from England and Canada, French friends also contributing many floral tributes. The catafalque was completely hidden under wreaths of crosses and anchors.
The service was conducted by the high priest of La Madeleine, assisted by Canon Wurtz and in the choir M. Planchon, Montreal, sang the solo.
President Rouvier, addressing the gathering, eulogized the services of the late Hon. Mr. Prefontaine to Canada, and not only in Canada, but in the Canadian colony in London and Paris was also largely represented.

W. C. Boyle, aged forty-seven, accountant in the office of J. C. Cassidy company, limited, St. Paul street, Montreal, and a native of Strathville, Ont., died suddenly.

Likely He Was Drowned.
Belleville, Ont., Jan. 2.—Ernest Coughlan, a thirteen-year-old boy of this city, is believed to have been drowned in the Bay of Quinte yesterday afternoon, and was using a sail which carried him along at great speed. When last seen he was making the Prince Edward shore, on the edge of which there was some open water. Envision of William Hendrie for keeping a disorderly house at the Woodbine. The case arose out of the betting on the horse races there.

Demand Mayor's Removal.
Terre Haute, Ind., Jan. 2.—At a special meeting of the city council a formal demand was made for the removal from office of Mayor Edward J. Bidamon. The charges were signed by representatives of the Manufacturers' Club and the Young Men's Business Club, who assert that "Bidamon has been willfully and corruptly guilty of oppression, malconduct and malfeasance in the discharge of his duties."

On a cold day you can enjoy a cup of hot Bovril at Gibson's Red Cross Drug Store.

An Explanation
During December the Rudd Harness Company announced that they would close their Princess street store on January 1, 1906, as the firm had decided to discontinue their retail business. They advertised the stock and purchases. As the business paid so well, the company finally decided to install W. H. Norris as manager, to replace T. Hück, who is transferred to Toronto. Mr. Norris, who has travelled for the firm for a number of years, is thoroughly experienced in the harness business. His many acquaintances and friends will not doubt be pleased to find him in his new position. The stock in the local store is being replenished by a special shipment of harness that will be run off cheaper than ever.

Decapitated by Train.
Man Supposed to be Canadian Found on Tracks.
Kingston, N.Y., Jan. 2.—The decapitated body of a man was found lying by the side of the Elter and Delaware railroad tracks near here. He, it is believed, caught his leg in a frog of the track, and fell, hitting his head on the rails, rendering him unconscious. A coal train then most likely passed over his neck, cutting off his head. From papers found on his person it is thought that he was a Canadian of the name of John Delong. A package of clean laundry was found in a pool close by.

Eight Hour Day Battle.
46,000 Printers Vote to Add 10,000 Strikers.
New York, Jan. 2.—The 46,000 union printers of the country whose national strike for an eight-hour day has begun have decided by a virtually unanimous referendum vote to pay ten per cent. of their weekly wages toward the support of the 60,000 printers who are on strike. The ten per cent. assessment will amount to between 800,000 and 870,000 a week, which will be added to the $80,000 contributed by the American Federation of Labor to the printers' eight-hour day fund.

To Be Prosecuted.
Admiral Charged With Causing Loss of Fleet.
Berlin, Jan. 2.—Dispatches from St. Petersburg say that the czar has directed the minister of marine to prosecute Admiral Rojstevsky who commanded the Russian fleet which was annihilated by the Japanese in the battle of the Sea of Japan, charging him with causing the loss of the Russian fleet, and the lives of men and with negligence and inefficiency.
The czar has granted the appeal of Admiral Rojstevsky to have a public hearing. Rojstevsky declares he will be able to clear himself of the charges made against him.

Municipal Ferry Costly.
New York, Jan. 2.—For the privilege of owning its own ferry between New York and Staten Island the city is paying $300 a day, that being the daily excess of expenses over receipts in the seven weeks since the city took control. Increase in the number of men employed on the boats, and wages as compared with the rate when the ferry was under private ownership, together with a reduction of one-third in the hours of labor, necessitating three shifts instead of two, are responsible for the deficit.

"Rats" In His Will.
Washington, Jan. 2.—After beginning his will with the words "Calling to mind the uncertainty of human life," and the remainder of a stereotyped paragraph, Elphoson Young, a rich grocer, wrote: "Rats! This is too formal. All there is about it is always spent money like water. Though I know everywhere for his lavish extravagance, he is still well-to-do."

Claims Hall The Property.
Ottawa, Jan. 2.—Alfred Larose, Hull the discoverer of the Cobalt mining district, is the plaintiff in an action in the high court against Duncan McMartin, Montreal, to establish his title to one-half interest in a mining location in the township of Coleman in the district of Nipissing. The defendant claims the entire property. The plaintiff asks for an accounting of mineral deposits which he says accrued while he was unlawfully kept out of the property, and demands also a division thereof.

SEIZED HIS TRUNKS.

Mr. Small's Action Against Lord Rosslyn.

Montreal, Jan. 2.—Lord Rosslyn's trunks were seized at the Windsor hotel, at the instance of Mr. Small, theatrical manager, Toronto, who seeks to satisfy a claim a four hundred dollars for alleged non-fulfillment of his contract. The seizure is in the nature of a garnishee, and has proved to be an unfortunate experience for his lordship, owing to the fact that legal advice has been given to the effect that the alleged debt was not collectible. It seems that Lord Rosslyn, when an actor about four years ago, was expected to appear at several places in Canada, but failed to make more than one appearance. His lordship is interested now in mines.

MR. TORRANCE RETIRES.
New Manager for Dominion Steamship Company.
Montreal, Jan. 2.—John Torrance, one of the oldest and best known shipping men in Montreal, has resigned manager of the Dominion Steamship Company, and is succeeded by James Thom, who has for some time been connected with the company. Mr. Torrance has been in this service for forty-five years, and for the last twenty years had been manager. He was among the pioneers in the large shipping business at this port, and retired owing to advancing years. He was a firm believer in the class of steamers that accommodate both freight and passengers. David Torrance, whose name is still retained in the firm, was his father.

PLEADED NOT GUILTY.
Said That Council Not Favorable to License Reduction.
Ottawa, Ont., Jan. 2.—Alphonse Larocque, charged with the murder of James Burke, on New Year's eve, appeared in police court, this morning, pleaded not guilty, and was remanded for a week. The other four inmates of the shack where the killing took place are held as disorderly persons.
Ottawa city council is not favorable to license reduction and the allied churches got a black eye in yesterday's contest. The council would probably divide fourteen to ten against reduction. The council is strongly in favor of municipal ownership.

Greetings

It is our pleasure to acknowledge the receipt of many kindnesses from the good people of Kingston during the past year and we take this opportunity of thanking them all most heartily. We hope that the trade which has passed between us has been as satisfactory to them as to us, and that the same good feeling will continue during the New Year. We wish you good health and a prosperous bright New Year.
